TOMORROW OUR LAST CHANCE

Unless Fitts Is Nominated at Primary He Will Be Eliminated

Many persons apparently are under the misapprehension that, because tomorrow's election is a nominating primary there will be another chance to vote for Fitts for Governor in November. This is not the case. Fitts, Rolph and Young are all Republican candidates and only one of them can be nominated. The other two will be eliminated.

In other words, unless Fitts gets more votes tomorrow than does either Young or Rolph Southern California's chance to elect a Southern Californian as Governor will be irremediably gone for another four years.

SIX MEET FIERY END IN CRASH

Three Others in Portland Auto Party Escape with Minor Injuries

VANCOUVER (Wash.) Aug. 24. (AP)—Six Portland residents, returning from a week-end outing, met a flaming death on the Battleground Highway north of here this afternoon when their speeding automobile plunged into a ditch, turned over against a fence and burst into flames. Three other Portlanders in the same car escaped with minor injuries.

The dead are C. E. Cobb, driver of the car; Marguerite Cobb, 6, his daughter; Joe Cobb, 4, his son; Mrs. Martha Fuller, housekeeper for the Cobb family; Mrs. A. C. Henson; Beatrice Henson, 10, her daughter.

The injured are A. C. Henson, broken leg; Roberta Henson, his daughter, cut and bruised; Mary Cobb, daughter of C. E. Cobb, cut and bruised.

Witnesses say Cobb was driving at a high rate of speed. On a curve in the highway he saw another car approaching and swerved his machine sharply to avoid a collision. As he lost control the machine hurtled into the ditch, pinning six of its occupants in the wreckage and throwing the other three free. Fuel lines broke and gasoline sprayed over the flaming mass.

CHAMPION GLIDES 100 MILES TO NEW RECORD

GERSFELD (Germany) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Robert Kronfeld, world champion glider, piled up another world record this afternoon by gliding 100 miles. This is seven miles longer than his own record set a week ago. The start was made at Washerkuppe and the finish at Fichtelberg, near the Bavarian-Czecho-Slovakian border. The flight was all the more remarkable since it was made without a storm wind and under the normal summer cumulus of clouds.

TRAIL LEADS TO HOOVER

Highway Survey Passes Camp

Virginia Commission Quick to Approve Scheme and Stakes Out Section

ORANGE (Va.) Aug. 24. (AP)—At the instance of Mrs. Herbert Hoover the Virginia Conservation Commission has staked out a twenty-mile stretch of scenic Blue Ridge Mountain country near the Hoover camp as the first link in the main highway to traverse Shenandoah National Park.

Work on the road, to be known as the Hoover Highway, probably will start in the fall and commission officials expect it to be ready for tourist travel by next summer. Eventually the main highway will be continued up and down the great mountain ridges and probably will reach from Mt. Royal on the north to Staunton on the south.

PAST PRESIDENT'S CAMP

The first link to be staked out skirts the President's Rapidan River lodge, crosses the marine guard camp a mile away and continues to Hawksbill Peak, the highest in the Blue Ridge Range in Virginia.

From its 4000-foot summit the highway will continue to Crescent Rock, one of the most beautiful spots on the trail, and will follow the backbone of the mountain ranges over to Skyland and Stony Man Mountain. From there it will trail down the mountain and exit at Luray.

Although he spent Saturday night conferring with Secretary Hurley and army engineers on inland waterway affairs, the President made no announcement of progress. Today he arose early and with Mrs. Hoover and their guests drove to the marine camp, a mile down Fork Mountain, and attended church services at a little pine community hall. The services were initiated by Mr. Hoover and today's were the first held.

NAVY IN CHARGE

Lieutenant-Commander C. A. Neyman, navy chaplain of Washington, delivered a short sermon and a United States marine played a small organ brought down by truck from the national capital last week.

After dinner the President and his party devoted the remainder of the day to short hikes and horseback riding over the mountain trails.

The party will leave early tomorrow for Washington.

SIX KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS AUTO

ST. ANTHONY (Ind.) Aug. 24. (AP) Six persons were killed and three injured severely when a Southern Railway freight train struck an automobile at a grade crossing here this afternoon.

Those injured are Mrs. William Hedinger, 34; John Bieker, 55, the dead woman's husband, and Marie Bieker, 3, another grandchild. They were taken to a hospital at Evansville. All live at St. Anthony.

The driver of the car, William Hedinger, apparently did not see the approaching train.

Women Plan Fight for New Amendment

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. (AP)—Veterans of the front ranks of the battle for woman suffrage are ready to launch another militant campaign this winter for a twentieth amendment to the Constitution guaranteeing equal rights to industry and trade and every other human relationship guarded by law.

This was announced today by Miss Maud Younger, Congressional chairman of the National Woman's Party, while a quiet celebration was in progress at headquarters to mark the tenth anniversary of their victory in the dramatic struggle that closed with the suffrage proclamation of August 26, 1920.

TEXAS HAILS "MA'S" LOSS

Greatest Vote in History Cast

Sterling Piles Up Lead of 464,698 to 371,654 on Mrs. Jim Ferguson

Defeat of Former Governor Acclaimed by Papers as Political Epitaph

DALLAS, Aug. 24. (AP)—Aroused by a spirited campaign of personalities, the greatest number of Texas voters ever to visit the polls yesterday denied Mrs. Miriam A. (Ma) Ferguson another opportunity to serve the State as Governor.

Late unofficial returns compiled by the Texas Election Bureau from all but one county indicate Ross R. Sterling, millionaire Houston publisher, has received the Democratic run-off primary nomination by approximately 100,000 votes. The incomplete tabulation counted a total of 836,352 ballots.

VOTE TOTAL LISTED

Sterling received 464,698 votes; Mrs. Ferguson, 371,654. The largest previous vote was 834,442 votes, cast in the first primary this year.

Democratic nomination for the Governorship always has proved equivalent to election. Sterling will be opposed in the November election by Dr. George C. Butte of Austin, nominated by the Republicans in the July primary.

Yesterday's Democratic run-off concerned only six State offices and one Congressional post. The Republicans did not hold a second primary. By State law a run-off is held when no candidate for any office receives a majority of the votes cast. The two high candidates are voted on again.

DEFEAT HAILED

Numerous Texas newspapers tonight hailed Mrs. Ferguson's defeat as the end of "Fergusonism" and the political demise of "Ma" and her husband, James E. (Farmer Jim) Ferguson.

"Ma" Ferguson, who was elected Governor previously when the courts refused to allow "Farmer Jim's" name on the ballot because of his impeachment in 1917, when he was Governor, entered the political lists this year following similar court action.

"Farmer Jim" did most of the campaigning, promising "two Governors for the price of one."

Despite adverse newspaper comment tonight, Ferguson has issued no statement and revealed no plans for the future.

EDGAR WITT WINS

In the Lieutenant-Governor's race, State Senator Edgar E. Witt had 410,797 votes to 347,868 for Sterling P. Strong, and in the Attorney-General's race James V. Allred of Wichita Falls had amassed 454,241 votes, compared with 328,647 for Robert Lee Bobbitt, incumbent.

Democratic nominations for six State offices and one Congressional post were voted on in yesterday's run-off.

In all other contests, one of the candidates received more than 50 per cent of the vote in the first primary. The Democratic nomination ordinarily is tantamount to election.

The Republicans did not hold a run-off primary, having selected Dr. George C. Butte of Austin in July as their standard-bearer in the Governor's race.

Guinn Williams, incumbent, apparently had won the Thirteenth District Democratic Congressional nomination from B. D. Sartin. With returns from ten of twelve counties tabulated, Williams had 20,386 votes; Sartin, 17,481.

Former Gov. Pat M. Neff's majority in the Railroad Commission race was more than 100,000 votes on the latest tabulation. Neff at present is a member of the commission.

CHICAGO STUDIO TO REOPEN

CHICAGO, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—After fourteen years of retirement Chicago is to return to the motion-picture industry January 1 at the old Essanay film plant on Argyle street, a few blocks west of Broadway.

That announcement was made today by George K. Spoor, a pioneer in that industry and president of that company. The buildings are being sound-proofed and additional structures are under construction.

The studio is to make feature pictures with outstanding stars. All pictures are to be taken with a third-dimension camera, invented by Mr. Spoor, who has been experimenting on it for years and through which natural vision is given to the screen. The camera has two lenses which record impressions on the film through a single aperture in "staggered" formation. This feature gives the illusion of depth to the screen.

An improved method of sound registration also is to be employed. Registrations are made on the edge of the film instead of its surface. This feature enables productions to be made at a lower cost. At the time the plant reopens Mr. Spoor said he will have perfected a process by which natural colors may be combined with depth.

The Essanay Film Company was founded in 1897 by Gilbert M. (Broncho Billy) Anderson and Mr. Spoor. The trade name was coined from the initials of the founders. Both previously had been in the industry in a small way. The combination produced the first 1000-foot films.

SCORE HURT IN FLEMISH CONFLICTS

Mounted Officers Charge Crowd of 50,000 After it Tears Up Belgian Flag

BRUSSELS, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—The sudden outgrowth of Flemish racial feeling culminated this afternoon with a charge of the mounted police on a crowd of 50,000 Flemish men, women and children and several priests who had gathered at Dixmude to pray for Flemish heroes of the World War. A score of persons were injured in the ensuing panic.

A second skirmish with the police took place at Ostend later in the evening when the police threatened a rioting throng with revolvers. Five persons were seriously hurt and 100 arrested.

As in the last few years since the armistice, Flemish war veterans of Belgium with their families came to Dixmude today to pray and to sing Flemish patriotic songs at the monument to their war dead. The French-speaking Belgians interpreted the Flemish manifestation as directed against Belgian unity. Three airplanes threw hand bills exhorting the Flemings not to listen to bad shepherds, who under the guise of a pious ceremony, try to stir up race hatred between the Flemish and French-speaking Belgians.

The crowd tore up the hand bills and then seized a Belgian flag and tore it to pieces. The police thereupon charged the crowd. More conflicts are feared.

Trees were dedicated by the Women's Relief Corps to the memory of William C. Johnson, commander-in-chief of the G.A.R. twenty years ago, who died two months after his election; Clara Barton, head of the Red Cross and famous Civil War nurse, and the present commander-in-chief, Edwin J. Foster of Massachusetts. The third tree was accepted by Mr. Foster in person, who delivered a short address.

ROVING EYE OF STORK ON ITALY, NOW

Fabled Bird Makes Note of Winter Call to Home of Crown Prince Humbert

BRUSSELS, Aug. 24. (AP)—The next royal baby expected in Europe was reported here today to be a little Prince or Princess of the House of Savoy, child of the former Belgian Princess Marie Jose and Crown Prince Humbert of Italy.

These reports have reached the homeland of the Princess from Italy, where she has recently been visited by several specialists. The baby is expected to be a "winter baby," arriving probably in January, or just a year after the marriage of the couple.

Princess Marie Jose has lately been a little ailing but no serious complications are foreseen. She and the Crown Prince plan to spend the autumn in the Castle of Racconigi, a mountain stronghold in Piedmont resembling Glamis Castle, where a royal baby last week was born to the Duchess of York.

It was in this castle that Crown Prince Humbert was born, and the estate was given to the couple by King Victor Emmanuel as a wedding present.

INSPECTORS SHOT DEAD

Posse Then Kills Young Slayer

Canadian Suspect Murders Two Americans on Train and Flees to House

Pursuers Forced to Battle Long Time and to Set Fire to His Retreat

FORT FRANCES (Ont.) Aug. 24. (AP)—Two United States immigration inspectors were shot and killed early today on a train at Emo, Ont., twenty-five miles west of here, and their assailant was shot and fatally wounded twelve hours later by a posse.

The inspectors killed were Lawrence Doton, about 30 years of age, of Ranier, Minn., and Lawrence Jones, 37, of Warroad, Minn. Their assailant was Emeric Prenett, 21, of Fort Frances, who died late today from bullet wounds inflicted by the posse.

SURPRISE KILLINGS

The inspectors were killed without warning by Prenett, who thought they were about to arrest him as Fort Frances police had pursued Prenett when they caught him tampering with automobiles.

Doton was shot as he awoke from a nap on the train, and Jones was killed as he boarded the train at Emo, as was his duty each night. Neither inspector had been aware that Prenett was sought by local police according to officials here.

Several hundred shots were exchanged between possemen and Prenett, who had barricaded himself in a house five miles west of Emo.

When all other efforts to force Prenett from the house had failed, one posseman got close enough to the structure to set it on fire. The smoke finally drove Prenett out into the open where he was shot.

He was taken to a hospital at Emo, where he died at 4:30 p.m. In a statement to a physician before he died, Prenett intimated he had been despondent as the result of a series of misfortunes. He said he thought "the American officers were after me, and I heard they were quick to shoot." He decided to shoot first.

TRAINS CHANGED

Doton and Jones were assigned to Duluth, Winnipeg and Pacific Railway trains, their duty being to check passengers into the United States from Canada. Doton worked between Emo and International Falls, Minn., and Jones between Ranier and Emo.

East and west-bound trains meet shortly after midnight at Emo and the inspectors usually change trains there to ride back into their respective territories.

Doton was shot as he arose from his seat when the train was pulling into Emo. A bullet passed through his heart as Prenett shot him from behind. Prenett apparently had boarded the train at Fort Frances after eluding police. Seeing the uniformed officer, he fired.

PASSENGERS FLEE

A dozen passengers in the coach fled to the depot platform as the train stopped. The conductor was held at bay by Prenett several minutes. Then as the train from the west arrived, Prenett fled down the aisle. As he reached the platform, Jones was about to board the coach. Still carrying the gun, Prenett shot him in the neck.

No trace of the fugitive was found until 6 a.m., when word was received he was seen at the farmhouse of H. Stockfish, just across the road.

Provincial police at Fort Frances were notified and a posse set out for the Stockfish home. Prenett was still at the place when the officers arrived. An exchange of shots immediately followed. All through the morning and well past noon the shooting continued. One posseman, whose name was not learned here, received a slight wound in the arm. It was then the house was fired.

Both slain inspectors have families. Doton leaves a widow, who is in a tuberculosis sanatorium, and three children. Jones had a wife and two children.

SEA FLYERS MAKE NEW HOP

Germans Land Eighty Miles from Halifax After Fog and Lack of Charts Confuse Them

HALIFAX (N. S.) Aug. 24. (AP)—Four German aviators on their way to the United States arrived in Nova Scotia this afternoon after an unheralded and surprising flight by flying-boat across the Atlantic from Germany.

Capt. Wolfgang Von Gronau and his three companions landed at Queensport Harbor, Guysboro county about eighty miles from here, at 3:45 p.m., Atlantic daylight time (1:45 p.m. eastern standard time.)

The airmen plan to continue their flight to the United States but have not yet decided to what city. If the weather clears, they will leave Queensport for Halifax tomorrow morning. Their most probable route after that will take them down the Atlantic Coast over New England.

Capt. Von Gronau said apart from fog he had met with no difficulty on the flight. His charts were not detailed enough to enable him to reach Halifax.

They left Cartwright Harbor, Labrador, at 7 a.m. (5 a.m., eastern standard time,) which, in turn they had reached yesterday from Ivigtut, Greenland.

As there is neither wireless nor telegraph station at Cartwright, their departure for Nova Scotia was as unheralded as their departure yesterday from Greenland. The whole flight has been a series of surprises.

They flew to the Faroe Islands and from there to Reykjavik, Iceland, arriving Wednesday. They then were expected to fly back to

FITTS APPEALS TO PASADENANS

Orgy of Spending Charged to Young's Regime

Pledge of No Tax Increase Made by Candidate

Pomonans Have Great Rally for Prosecutor

PASADENA, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Buron Fitts, candidate for Governor, made his final personal appeal for the support of local voters this afternoon. Mr. Fitts warned his audience that a mistake at the polls Tuesday probably would mortgage the future of the State and direct California toward bankruptcy.

"We have seen under Gov. Young," he asserted, "the greatest orgy of spending this State has known, and the present regime is especially dangerous because of tax increases and tax inequalities."

PROMISE MADE

"If elected, I promise you that taxes will not be increased and the only way I know how to bring about lower taxes is to spend less."

The speaker declared that during the last four years, California has had not one, but five Governors, from four of whom Gov. Young has taken orders. Among these "ex-officio Governors," he said, is William Randolph Hearst.

"The Young forces," he asserted, "has covered up its inaction by building up one of the largest and most costly political machines we have ever seen."

In speaking of his record as District Attorney he declared that two years ago, Los Angeles was second only to Chicago in crime and corruption.

PROGRESS MADE

"It was no easy task to eradicate much of this corruption, but my conscience tells me that I have accomplished much that I set out to do along this line," he said.

"We had to fight newspapers and ministers and it hasn't been pleasant, but crime has been reduced.

"I haven't been a machine District Attorney and if you place me in the Governor's chair, no one else will share that chair with me."

The candidate was greeted by A. Burlingame /Johnson, former State Senator; W. Parker Lyon, owner of the Pony Express Museum; Capt. Orson Early, head of the local Fitts Club, and Mrs. Thomas C. Austin, chairman of the women's division of the local organization.

POMONANS JOIN IN OLD-TIME RALLY

POMONA, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Climaxing one of the most intensive and far-reaching campaigns ever conducted in this city, supporters of Buron Fitts for Governor last night held a monster old-time town political meeting. The affair was in charge of Mark H. Potter of the local Fitts-for-Governor organization.

Harry Sewell of Whittier, Assemblyman for the Sixty-ninth District, who is unopposed for re-election, told his listeners that he has no axes to grind in his backing of Mr. Fitts, because "in my legislative experience in the State of California, I believe it absolutely essential that the next Governor must be a Southern California man. Important legislation will come before the next Legislature, especially regarding reapportionment of the State Assembly districts and the United States Congressional district. New tax legislation, additional highways for Southern California, which have been delayed for political reasons, are pending, and various State projects which should have been under way have been delayed by Gov. Young's cumbersome 'business administration.'"

"Hiram Johnson rode up to the halls of Congress on the G.O.P. elephant, and after safely alighting kicked the beast in the slats and told him to feed upon deserts and waste lands for another six years until he was needed again," Sewell declared in bringing his remarks to a close.

Gov. Young's campaign committee was taken to task for its methods of campaign advertising and was accused of trying to make California voters believe that corporations pay the State taxes and that the people pay none, by Ralph Smith, Los Angeles tax attorney, and for four years in charge of inheritance tax collection under State Controller Riley.

The meeting was brought to a close by Chairman Potter, who declared other candidates in Southern California, seeking State and county offices, are deserving of the support of voters of Pomona Valley, particularly State Controller Riley of Colton.

LARGE CROWD HEARS FITTS AT SAN FERNANDO

SAN FERNANDO, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—A large crowd of Fitts enthusiasts waited for two hours and a half here last night to hear Buron Fitts, gubernatorial candidate, who wound up the final week's campaign before the primary election Tuesday with a tour of all communities in the San Fernando Valley.

Fitts was scheduled to address the local meeting at 9 p.m. but it was nearly 11:30 before he arrived. Preceding Fitts's address members of Fitts's party came on from Van Nuys where the candidate was holding a meeting and gave brief talks. Former Gov. Friend W. Richardson was among the preliminary speakers.

The candidate attacked the taxation inequalities of the Young regime and the tactics that have been used by his opponents in the present campaign. He pleaded for support of the voters on the ground that Southern California long has been overwhelmed by the northern part of the State in the matter of representation and apportionment of State moneys. Fitts was visibly tired and worn by his strenuous campaign but spoke forcefully and lucidly on the issues at stake.

GOVERNOR OF OKLAHOMA RIVALS MAYOR WALKER

It wasn't so many years ago that Oklahoma was Indian territory, but now some even find its Governor in formal dress, others in mourning or afternoon garments. And when occasion demands he carries a cane.

When the executive attends sporting events he is always fittingly attired and during hot weather he frequently wears white trousers, white sport shoes and dark coat.

MINER HELD FOR KILLING OF RANGER

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—William Wilson, 65-year-old miner, is in the County Jail here tonight following his confession of the killing of Franklin Hooma, 42, a United States forest ranger, near Wilson's mountain cabin in Rattlesnake Canyon on the north slope of the San Bernardino Mountains Friday night.

Wilson surrendered to Deputy Sheriff Farley at Victorville this afternoon and said that he killed the ranger in self-defense. After an investigation Farley declared that the ranger's body was found without a gun and that there had been ill-feeling for some time between the two men. Hooma was an Indian and chief of a Hopi tribe at Tuba City, Ariz.

KALISPELL (Mont.) Aug. 24. (AP) Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Halverson and a man named Smith were slain at Stillwater Lake, forty miles northwest of here, early today, the Sheriff's office here was informed.

George Vann of Olney is being sought for the killings.

The shooting occurred at a dance at an inn operated by the Halversons. Smith was a representative of a cannery at Hamilton. Vann was a lumberjack.

SENATOR ALLEN, ILL, ARRIVES AT HIS HOME

WICHITA (Kan.) Aug. 24. (AP)—Senator Henry J. Allen, who was taken ill two weeks ago while a guest of Ambassador Morrow at Mexico City, arrived at his home here today, accompanied by a party of friends from New York and a special physician. The Senator will enter Wesley Hospital here tomorrow for a physical examination.

Senator Allen's trouble is believed to be a gall-bladder ailment. His condition is not considered serious.

INDIANS DO DANCE FOR RAIN GODS

Hopis at Hotevilla Go Through Snake Ceremony Under Cloudless Sky

HOTEVILLA, HOPI INDIAN RESERVATION (Ariz.) Aug. 24. (AP) Under a cloudless sky as the sun sank over the edge of the mesa to the west, Hopi Indians today went through the weird ceremony of the Snake Dance, their prayer to the god of rain for water on their maize fields.

The aged tribal medicine men cast anxious glances toward the north when it was hoped rain would come, while Hopi Indian braves danced with rattlesnakes and huge bull snakes dangling from their mouths.

At the conclusion of the dance the serpents were released to glide into the crevasses and rocks of the mesa, thence, according to the belief of the redmen, into the lower regions of the earth, carrying the Indians' petition for bountiful crops and rain, to the snake people, guardians of the rain god.

FITTS SELECTED AS SURE WINNER

out the county join in her declaration.

"Gov. Young's campaign has collapsed," said Mrs. Doughty. "In spite of the efforts of the Anti-Saloon League to picture Gov. Young in the role of a dry candidate, temperance workers who are interested in results rather than in promises are solidly behind Mr. Fitts.

WARNING VOICE

"The Los Angeles Federation is confident that Fitts will obtain the nomination. It is clear and evident that 90 per cent of the temperance vote of this State will be cast for Mr. Fitts. In Mr. Fitts lies our only hope of defeating Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco, an avowed wet. We take this opportunity of warning our friends that a vote for Young is half a vote for Rolph. To permit the election of Mayor Rolph is nothing short of a calamity to Southern California.

"We of the Los Angeles City Federation have had occasion to observe Buron Fitts as District Attorney. We are impressed with his fearless enforcement of all laws and his conscientious effort to enforce the Wright Act. During his regime the arrests and convictions for violations of the prohibition law have increased tremendously."

OTHERS SIGN

Joining with Mrs. Doughty in signing the statement were: Mrs. Margaret T. Phillips, vice-president of Los Angeles City Federation; Mrs. Louise M. Williams, secretary; Mrs Charlotte Rosegrant, recording secretary; Mrs. Albert Andrews, treasurer; Mrs. Nellie McDowell, president of Crusade unit; Mrs. Myrtle Gilman, president of Lucy Hayes unit; Mrs. Edith Simpson, president Belvedere unit; Mrs. Ida M. Strange, president Woodlawn unit; Mrs. Lilly Galloway, president Venice unit; Mrs. Cora Deal Lewis, director Los Angeles unit; Mrs. Ida Meiser, president Pacific Palisades unit; Mrs. J. W. FOR CONTROLLER RILEY

State Controller Riley, candidate for re-election, in a statement issued last night said that his attention "has been called to a published report stating that Mrs. Helen Werner and Justice Gavin Craig are not supporting me in my present campaign for the office of controller. As a matter of fact, Mrs. Werner and Judge Craig have given me most gracious and effective support."

FITTS ON THE AIR

Fitts will be on the air twice tonight to close his gubernatorial campaign, it was announced at his local headquarters yesterday. From 6:15 to 7 o'clock he will speak over the Columbia chain. He will be heard locally over KHJ. Preceding him will be Mrs. Harriet Works, Republican leader.

From 7:30 to 8 o'clock Fitts will speak over KNX and Joseph Scott will be heard over KFWB from 9 to 9:30 o'clock.

Oregon Forest Fire Ominous

PRINEVILLE (Or.) Aug. 24. (AP)—A fire which was discovered Saturday in the Ochoco National Forest today threatens to develop into a serious blaze.

One hundred men have been sent to fight the fire which already has burned nearly 700 acres of lodge pole pine and fir. The fighters are centering their efforts on keeping the fire away from a valuable stand of yellow pine adjoining the section where the fire is burning.

BUSINESS LEADER PASSES

OLYMPIA (Wash.) Aug. 24. (AP)—Louis F. PARTY LEADERS TRAIN BIG GUNS

Cabinet Members to Speak in Fall Campaign

No Open Fight Planned on Recreant Republicans

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Three members of the Cabinet as well as Vice-President Curtis and a host of Senators and Representatives will be on the firing line when the Republican Congressional campaign speakers go into action this fall.

Secretary of War Hurley, regarded by the Republican high command as an effective speaker, is one of the Cabinet members slated to be heard on the political rostrum. Another is Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, who will be depended upon to aid administration Senators in States where opposition to the President's farm program has developed.

As a candidate for the Senate himself, Secretary of Labor Davis will do most of his speaking in Pennsylvania. His campaign, already under way, was given momentum Saturday when Vice-President Curtis spoke at Sharon, Pa., Mr. Davis's home town.

PRESIDENT IN RESERVE

Just what part President Hoover will play in the campaign will probably not be known until late autumn. White House officials have thrown cold water on reports that the President will make at least one campaign speech over the radio and it now appears doubtful whether Mr. Hoover will make any political speeches. It is considered probable, however, that the President will take some part in the general campaign after all nominations have been made. It is possible his contributions may be in the form of letters or statements read in certain States where the going is rough.

All indications are that the President will make no open fight to prevent any of the radical Republicans from being re-elected. There is little doubt but that Mr. Hoover would like to see Senator Norris, Republican, of Nebraska, defeated, even at the expense of placing a Democrat in the Senate.

FRUITLESS FORAYS

Attempts already are under way to smoke the President out on the prohibition question, but thus far they have been unsuccessful. Reports published recently to the effect that the President is beginning to veer toward the wets have met with no response from Mr. Hoover. Those close to the President, however, term such reports without foundation. As proof of the President's dryness Mr. Hoover's dry supporters point to the recent selection of Senator Fess, Republican, of Ohio, as chairman of the Republican National Committee and of Mrs. Ellis A. Yost, Women's Christian Temperance Union spokesman in Washington and a leading dry worker, as head of the party's women's activities.

Those who believe the President intends to prevent the present Republican administration from being tied too closely to the dry side of the prohibition issue point to the fact that the White House has announce it will support Dwight W. Morrow, Ambassador to Mexico City, in his campaign for the Senatorial toga in New Jersey.

DUCHESS AND BABY BOTH GAIN

Glamis Castle Bulletin Cites Continued Progress of Mother and Child

GLAMIS (Scotland) Aug. 24. (AP) Continued favorable progress of the Duchess of York and her infant daughter is reported in the bulletin issued today from Glamis Castle, where the child was born last week.

"The Duchess of York continues to make a normal convalescence," says the bulletin. "Her Royal Highness has had another excellent night's sleep, and so has the infant Princess."

No further official bulletins will be issued until the end of the week.

Sir Henry Simson, the obstetrician attending the Duchess, issued a statement from the castle denying that "twilight sleep" was used for the birth.

"My attention has been drawn to certain statements in the press with regard to the confinement of Her Royal Highness, the Duchess of York, particularly one that twilight sleep was induced," said the physician. "This statement is without any foundation, and I desire to emphasize that fact, which has been stated in the bulletins, namely, that everything was and continues to be absolutely normal."

ARGENTINA EASY ON REVOLUTIONIST

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—To shout "Long live the revolution! Down with the President" is not a punishable offense in Argentina, according to a decision of the Court of Appeals here. The court declared that such exclamations are "more or less vehement expression of an idea, and do not constitute a threat." This decision freed a student, Ernesto Lanucci, who had been jailed for such words.

INTERNAL TAX RECEIPTS GAIN

Total for Past Fiscal Year $3,040,145,733

California in Sixth Place in Contributions

Four States Pay More than Half of Aggregate

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Internal-revenue receipts for the fiscal year 1930 totaled slightly more than $3,000,000,000, a preliminary report published by the Treasury Department disclosed today. The total receipts, including income and miscellaneous taxes for 1930 fiscal year ending June 30, last, were $3,040,145,733, an even $100,-000,000 increase over collections the previous year amounting to $2,939,-054,375.

Most of the increase was registered in income taxes which showed a gain of $78,000,000 over the 1929 fiscal year notwithstanding the fact that the 1 per cent tax reduction voted by Congress last December affected the quarterly payments of taxes paid in March and June of the present calendar year.

This increase was attributed largely to the exceptional prosperity enjoyed by corporations and individuals in the calendar year 1929 against which the taxes collected in these two quarters were assessed.

CUT MAY BE RETAINED

Opinion was divided in official circles regarding whether the fact that the 1 per cent reduction had not cut revenues as much as expected would have any effect on maintenance of the 1 per cent reduction for another year. President Hoover wants to continue the reduction, but no definite statement as to whether business conditions will make this possible has been issued from the Treasury. As Republican leaders in Congress are ready to support legislation continuing the reduction if it is recommended by the White House, indications are such a bill will be introduced.

The Treasury figures disclosed that of all the States, New York contributed the largest amount in income taxes; Illinois was second and Pennsylvania, third. Michigan comes fourth, Ohio, which was sixth last year, has moved up to fifth, displacing California, which is now in sixth place. Massachusetts is seventh.

In miscellaneous taxes North Carolina with its cigarette tax contributions, heads the list of States with New York second. Virginia, also a tobacco State, ranks third, and Pennsylvania, fourth. Illinois, Ohio, California, Michigan and Massachusetts are also up among the leading States.

Four States—New York, North Carolina, Illinois and Pennsylvania—paid more than half of the total internal-revenue collections. New York's combined income and miscellaneous tax total was in round numbers, $929,000,000; that of North Carolina, $274,000,000; Illinois, $247,000,000, and Pennsylvania, $230,000,000.

RECAPITULATION

A recapitulation of internal revenue receipts by general sources shows the $3,000,000,000 total was paid as follows: Income, $2,410,-259,230; cigars, tobacco, $450,339,000; stamp taxes, including playing cards, $77,728,669; estate, $64,769,625; admissions and dues, $16,751,759; distilled spirits and beverages, $11,695,-000; excise taxes, manufacturers, $2,664,652; special taxes, $635,649, and miscellaneous taxes, $5,301,818.

A comparison of the income-tax payments by quarters shows how well the totals held up in the final quarters of the fiscal year, 1930, despite the 1 per cent reduction in normal tax rates which it was estimated would reduce the total to be received for that half of the fiscal year by $80,000,000. The receipts for 1930 include payments of the third and fourth installments of the tax on the returns of net income for 1928 and the first and second installments of the tax on the returns of net incomes for 1929, together with collections made for prior years.

California Crop Reporting Eyed by Floridans

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24. (AP)—Florida may be among the first States to follow California's example in using short-wave radio stations to disseminate crop information to growers, Department of Agriculture officials said here today. The system gained nationwide publicity recently when the Federal Radio Commission held a hearing at Los Angeles as a preliminary to possible revocation of the State's short-wave channels.

Feasibility of such a service in Florida was pointed out editorially by the Orlando (Fla.) Sentinel, in commenting on an article by G. H. Hecke, California director of agriculture, which appeared recently in the United States Daily. The article described the California Market News Service, by means of which more than 800,000 words are handled each month in giving growers news of crops and markets.

STRIKING MILL HANDS REJECT AGREEMENT

BESSEMER CITY (N. C.) Aug. 24. (AP)—Seven hundred striking employees of the American Mills, No. 1 and No. 2 held a mass meeting tonight and voted unanimously not to return to work tomorrow in accordance with an agreement reached with mill officials Saturday, R. C. Gregory and E. L. Gillespie, strike leaders, said.

CRIMINOLOGIST BELIEVES FINGERPRINTS INHERITED

IOWA CITY (Iowa) Aug. 24. (AP) It won't be long until science will be able to remark that Junior has his daddy's eyes, his grandmother's nose and his mother's fingerprints, Dr. John A. Larson, University of Iowa psychiatrist and criminologist, believes.

And when that time comes, Dr. Larson says, danger of another Watkins-Bamberger baby mix-up will be almost wiped out.

Dr. Larson is the inventor of a new "single point" system of classifying fingerprints, and he is also credited with perfecting the first working model of the "lie detector" now used in Chicago and elsewhere for examination of suspected criminals.

Though science has not yet discovered accurately just what features of a fingerprint pattern constitute its "dominant" and "recessive" hereditary factors, Dr. Larson is convinced that there are such inherited characteristics, just as facial or bodily configuration among blood relatives betray family kinship.

HUGE GANG ARSENAL LOCATED

Largest Arms' Cache in Police History Found at Brooklyn Flat

NEW YORK, Aug. 24. (Exclusive) An arsenal of gangsters' weapons unprecedented in the history of the police department was found by detectives today in a flat in Sixty-first street, Brooklyn, where they had trailed a sedan belonging to the wife of Jack (Legs) Diamond, notorious gangster.

The array of underworld war material, ranging from bombs powerful enough to destroy a large building to what looked like harmless fountain pens, but which were actually pistols discharging .22-caliber bullets, besides hand grenades, steel vests and tear gas, offered mute testimony in support of rumors of an impending war over the liquor "racket."

Three men were arrested, charged with the possession of the weapons. They were Frederick Witcher, 31 years of age, a steamship loader who occupied the flat with his wife and 7-year-old son; Harry Klein, 26, of Brooklyn, and James Dalton, 30, of Acra, N. Y., who admitted to the detectives that he was employed by Diamond as a chauffeur.

TRAIL ENDS FOR WAR OF '98 OFFICER

Col. MacNutt, Resident of Los Angeles for Many Years, Dies in Bay City

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Col. Ira MacNutt, 80 years of age, a resident of Los Angeles since 1908, who retired at his own request from the United States Army that year, died here today at Letterman Hospital after a lingering illness. His widow, Mrs. Mary F. MacNutt, said his body will be cremated, the ashes eventually to be buried in Arlington National Cemetery at Washington. Besides his widow, Col. MacNutt leaves a son, Barry MacNutt.

Col. MacNutt graduated from West Point in 1870, the youngest member of his class. A native of Philadelphia, he joined the Coast Artillery after leaving West Point and later went into the ordnance department. He saw service in the Spanish-American War. Col. McNutt was considered an authority on steel and his advice was often relied upon by the government.

Col. MacNutt went to Letterman Hospital, December 1, 1929, and had been confined there since.

OCEAN FLYERS MAKE NEW HOP

Germany, but Friday they reported by wireless after starting that they were in a position on the route to Greenland. Subsequently it was learned from Copenhagen Von Gronau some months ago had asked for a supply of gasoline to be sent to Julianehhab, Greenland, there to await his arrival. He asked that his request be kept secret.

Friday afternoon their large Dornier-Wal flying-boat came down safely at Ivigtut. The next news the world had of them, they were on their way to Labrador. Just before pulling in their wireless aerial last night, they reported they were preparing to land at Cartwright.

Throughout the flight the German commercial flying-school authorities have said they knew nothing of the captain's plans or preparations. Von Gronau is known as an excellent aviator and is greatly interested in the scientific and practical side of flying. Apparently he wished to avoid the usual publicity connected with trans-Atlantic flights.

The flight from Cartwright to Queensport Harbor is roughly 600 miles. The Germans made the distance in 8 hours and 25 minutes. All the way across the Atlantic they have maintained an average speed of about eighty-five miles an hour but fog today apparently slowed them down to about seventy.

Petroleum in Mexico Inactive

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Federal imposts collected for the production, exportation and importation of petroleum slipped below the 1,000,000-peso mark during the month of July. The July total was 952,685.67 pesos, compared to 1,003,006.98 pesos in June.

Itemized, the July receipts were as follows: Production tax, 566,-510.01 pesos; exportation tax, 385,-958.66 pesos; importation tax, 217.00 pesos. In June: Production, 610,590.99 pesos; exportation, 387,-846.18 pesos; importation, 3459.81 pesos.

The July slump is taken as a sign that renewal of petroleum activity in Mexico, indicated by concessions petitioned for by large oil companies, is farther away than had been supposed.

PAN-AMERICANS OPEN CONCLAVE

Latin Visitors Still Talk of Reception Here

BY CHARLES C. COHAN
"Times" Staff Representative

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24.—In the presence of several thousand persons at the Sacramento Memorial Auditorium this afternoon the Pan-American Reciprocal Trade Conference was launched on a week of meetings from which is expected a material increase in the flow of trade between California and Latin-America. Eighteen American nations are represented.

Simon J. Lubin, Sacramento, president of the Sacramento Regional Citizens' Council, which is sponsoring the conference, was unanimously chosen permanent president of the conclave. Juan Carlos Godoy, Argentinian Consul-General at San Francisco, was proposed for the position by a representative from Ecuador but in the balloting Ecuador gave its support to Lubin.

M. A. Cremer, San Francisco, a former United States Trade Commissioner, was announced as secretary-general of the conference by Lubin, who presided at today's meeting.

LUBIN'S ADDRESS

In his welcoming address Chairman Lubin, speaking with reference to the conference, said: "It is particularly our hope that all achievements will be preserved and enhanced through the establishment of a permanent unofficial Institute of Pan-American Relations, which shall not set itself against the rest of mankind but which shall take interest in the complete development of this continent, that benefit ultimately may come to all the world."

The invocation was by Archbishop Hanna of San Francisco and welcoming addresses were given by Director of Public Works Meek, speaking for Gov. Young, and by Mayor Bidwell of Sacramento.

Responses were by Francisco Goyzueta of Guatemala, speaking in Spanish; Ronata De Asevedo, official of the Brazilian-Lloyd Steamship Company, in Portuguese, and Capt. Leonard M. Cox of Vallejo in English.

FELICITATIONS READ

Messages of greetings and felicitations were read from President Hoover, the Presidents of Brazil, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Guatemala, Honduras, Panama, Peru and Venezuela. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. William Hermitage, Episcopal rector of Sacramento.

R. S. Silva, manager of the Latin-American Steamship Company, San Francisco, translated addresses and announcements into Spanish.

LOS ANGELES MAKES HIT

Enthusiastic expressions are frequent as to the reception Los Angeles gave the Latin-Americans who gathered there preliminary to touring the State and proceeding to Sacramento. It is the consensus of opinion that the opportunity afforded the visitors in the Southland to see so many of the industries and other developments there has proved a factor of incalculable value in furthering the good expected from the conclave here. The enthusiastic hospitality shown by Los Angeles and its neighboring towns to the Latin-Americans is treasured by them and the return of a Latin-American delegation to Los Angeles for important trade purposes in October is scheduled.

Newspaper men covering the conference were guests at a dinner attended by the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce at Hotel Senator tonight. Arthur S. Dudley, secretary of the chamber, spoke briefly of Sacramento and introduced Rodolpho Mayorga-Rivas of Salvador, editor of Diario Del Salvador, as toastmaster. Various prominent Latin-American journalists spoke.

AIR GAINS REPORTED TO HOOVER

Survey by Maj. Young Says 200,000 Passengers will be Carried This Year

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Phenomenal growth by the commercial aviation industry in the United States during the last eighteen months was recorded in a report submitted to President Hoover by Clarence M. Young, assistant Secretary for Aeronautics in the Department of Commerce, and made public at the White House today.

A prediction that at least 200,000 passengers will be carried on scheduled air transport lines this year was one of the features of the report, which stated that approximately 150,000 passengers patronized the lines during 1929.

Maj. Young's report, completed before he departed for the Chicago Air Races, which he is attending this week, was requested by the President following the aviation conference at his Rapidan camp a week ago. Maj. Young, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and others prominent in aviation were present.

The President, it was said, expressed satisfaction especially over development in passenger transportation and agreed that the government should continue to extend all possible aid to the commercial air industry of the country.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24. (AP)—Displays of gold nuggets and ores at the California State Fair, held in Sacramento, the 30th inst. to September 7, will impress upon visitors the fact that hills and gulches or the Mother Lode and other areas still yield millions of dollars' worth of the yellow metal that turned the country's eyes westward eighty years ago.

FARMERS HUNT GIRL'S KIDNAPER

Abductor, 27 Years of Age, Steals Child, 10

Had Worked Five Years for Her Father

Note Threatens Victim's Death if Followed

VALPARAISO (Ind.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—A Sheriff's posse, augmented by nearly 100 farmers, pressed a search of the highways, swamps and timberlands southeast of here tonight for a farm hand and the 10-year-old girl he kidnaped last night.

The missing girl is Betty Ann Foster, daughter of Ernest Foster, Porter county farmer. The kidnaper is Claude Dellinger, 27 years of age, for five years a hired hand on the Foster farm until he left this section last winter.

Dellinger revisited the Foster farm yesterday afternoon, seeking his former job. Foster already had a man but joined his wife in asking Dellinger to stay for supper.

After the meal and chores were finished, the Fosters drove down the road to visit a neighbor. Dellinger, left alone with Betty Ann and two neighbors' daughters, invited them to ride with him to the near-by village of Malden where, he said, he intended buying overalls.

On returning about 8:30 p.m., he dismissed the other children, but refused to let Betty Ann out of the car. Alarmed, the other girls ran down the road to notify Mr. Foster as Dellinger drove away with the child.

The neighbors were aroused and the search was started, the farmers armed with shotguns. At 10 a.m. today Foster, who had been directing the search from a neighbor's car, went to get his own and found in the seat a note indicating that Dellinger premeditated the kidnaping.

"I've got Betty Ann and I'm going away," it read. "If you set the Sheriff on my trail, I'll kill her."

RASKOB'S "PLOT" ON HOOVER TOLD

Magazine Writer Exposes Asserted Fraud

Chairman Accused of False Press Propaganda

Agent Reported Paid to Pen Misrepresentations

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. (AP)—Representative Wood of Indiana today said "the plot" of John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, to "bring about a systematic and malicious misrepresentation" of President Hoover was disclosed by Frank Kent, a political writer, in the current issue of Scribner's Magazine.

In a statement through the Republican Congressional committee of which he is chairman, Wood said that from Kent's article it appears that Charles Michelson, Washington writer, "was employed at a large salary by Mr. Raskob to develop these misrepresentations of the President in every quarter of the United States, in an attempt to systematically undermine his influence to do service."

The attacks, he said, were prepared at Michelson's bureau and issued in the names of various persons "who have shown themselves willing to be pawns in such practices."

Wood said his collection of the statements shows that practically every act of the President, big or little, had been "challenged, slandered, maligned."

CENSUS BLOW TO FARM BELT

Seven States in Area Show Smallest Growth

Loss of Ten Seats in House Looms as Result

Present Agricultural Bloc's Sway to Suffer

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—The farm problem is strikingly reflected in the 1930 census figures. The returns by States show that the wheat and corn belt, lying between the Mississippi River and the Rocky Mountains, had less growth in population in the last ten years than any other section of the United Sates.

This is the land of McNary-Haugenism—the politically most vocal part of the country.

While the nation as a whole gained more than 16 per cent in population, between 1920 and 1930, the seven States which form the backbone of the farm-relief movement showed an increase of only about per cent. The farm belt added only 743,000 inhabitants as compared with a country-wide increase of approximately 17,000,000. Perha the kind of advertising the farm-belt spokesmen have been giving their States on the floor of Congress has something to do with these figures.

POLITICAL CONSEQUENCE

The political consequence is that these States—Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska, North and South Dakota and Kansas—stand to lose ten seats in the House of Representatives under the reapportionment scheduled for next year. The effect of this sweeping reduction in agricultural representation on national political affairs is at once obvious.

Missouri will lose three seats, Iowa two and each of the other States in the group at least one. The ten seats all seven are calculated to lose will be transferred to other States with large urban population. Thus the influence of these seven farm-belt States, so potent in shaping legislation during the last decade, will be weakened by twenty votes in the House.

EFFECT UNCERTAIN

But although these particular States will lose some of their strength in Congress, it is only a paper loss so far as agriculture as a whole is concerned and the actual, ultimate effect on farm representation remains to be gauged by the future. It is the view of the writer that agriculture will not suffer. California alone will absorb nine of the ten Congressional seats the corn belt is to lose, and it goes without saying that all these new California Representatives will be in sympathy with the farmer and vote for any constructive measure designed to assist him.

The important thing about the trend is the getting away from the more radical farm-relief proposals, such as the McNary-Haugen bill with its equalization fee, and the export debenture. Without a doubt such unsound measures are dealt a severe setback by the shift in representation now being considered.

FARM BLOC NUCLEUS

In the present make-up of the national House, unchanged since 1910, the seven States listed above have had fifty-seven Representatives in the lower branch of Congress. These fifty-seven have formed the nucleus of the farm bloc at their end of the Capitol and have stood together with extraordinary unity on legislation affecting farm matters. By this solidarity they have achieved an influence entirely out of proportion to their numerical strength. With fifty-seven votes to begin with they have been able to form alliances with other groups, such as the river-and-harbor bloc and force through legislation which has done more credit to their persistence than to their statesmanship.

BLOC'S INFLUENCE

They compelled the passage of the McNary-Haugen bill twice, only to be thwarted by President Coolidge's veto, but eventually they wrung from the Hoover administration the compromise farm relief act of last year, with its $500,000,000 revolving fund. There is considerable doubt that any group of the farm bloc's size ever has wielded such influence on Capitol Hill.

In all the political campaigns of the last ten years both major parties have given first consideration to the wishes of the seven States in the Northwest farm area. At national conventions Republican and Democratic platform makers have vied in devising planks to please them. But now, in addition to losing ten seats in the House, they lose double that number of delegates to the national conventions and so, no doubt, their influence in the party councils will be lessened in like degree. However, it again is suggested that so far as the farm question as a whole is concerned only quack panaceas will suffer and sound proposals for helping agriculture will have as much support as ever.

SHOWINGS BY STATES

It is interesting to glance down the census figures by States. They show, for instance, that Iowa, the great corn-producing State, virtually stopped growing in population nearly thirty years ago. Its population today is 2,467,900, a gain of 63,879, or 2.7 per cent over 1920. In 1910, Iowa's population was 2,224,000 and in 1900 it was 2,234,000. This is a net increase of only 233,000 in thirty years.

Missouri now has 3,216,632 inhabitants. This is a gain of 216,906, or 6.4 per cent over 1920, but more than half of it went to St. Louis and Kansas City. In 1910 the "Show Me" State had 3,293,000 and in 1900 it has 3,106,000.

Minnesota, with 2,566,455 in 1930 gained 179,320, or 7.5 per cent over 1920. Here again the large cities—Minneapolis and St. Paul—got approximately two-thirds of the increase. The State had 2,075,000 inhabitants in 1910 and 1,751,000 in 1900.

The report for North Dakota was 682,449 in the recent census, a gain of 35,576 or 5.5 per cent since 1920. North Dakota had 577,000 people in 1910 and 319,000 in 1900.

South Dakota with 690,750, showed a gain of 54,208, or 8.5 per cent. The 1910 figure was 583,000 and that of 1900 was 401,000.

NEBRASKA'S GAIN

Nebraska registered a gain of 82,528, or 6.4 per cent, over 1920. The 1930 population was 1,378,900. It was 1,192,000 in 1910 and 1,066,000 in 1900.

Kansas boasts 1,879,946, a gain of 110,689, or 6.3 per cent, since 1920. In 1910 the Sunflower State had 1,690,000 and in 1900 it had 1,470,000.

The 1930 census gives the combined population of these seven States as 13,287,365. This is slightly more than the State of New York and represents a little more than one-tenth of the population of the country.

When the census figures are officially reported to Congress in December farm-belt members undoubtedly will fight to reopen the reapportionment question and demand as they did when the measure was being considered last year, that only citizens be counted for the purpose of determining Congressional representation. They claim that on such a basis they will hold substantially their present delegations in the House, by virtue of their home-bred populations.

MISS MORGAN THIRD

Miss Morgan holds second place for the trip with total elapsed time of 19 hours 56 minutes. Jean La Rene of Kansas City, whose time of 1 hour 53 minutes, gave her fourth place in today's lap, is in third place for the trip with a total time of approximately 19 hours. Miss Barron's total time is 36 hours 1 minute.

Majorie Doig of Danbury, sixth entrant and one of the leaders in the early stages, was forced to drop out because of continuing engine trouble.

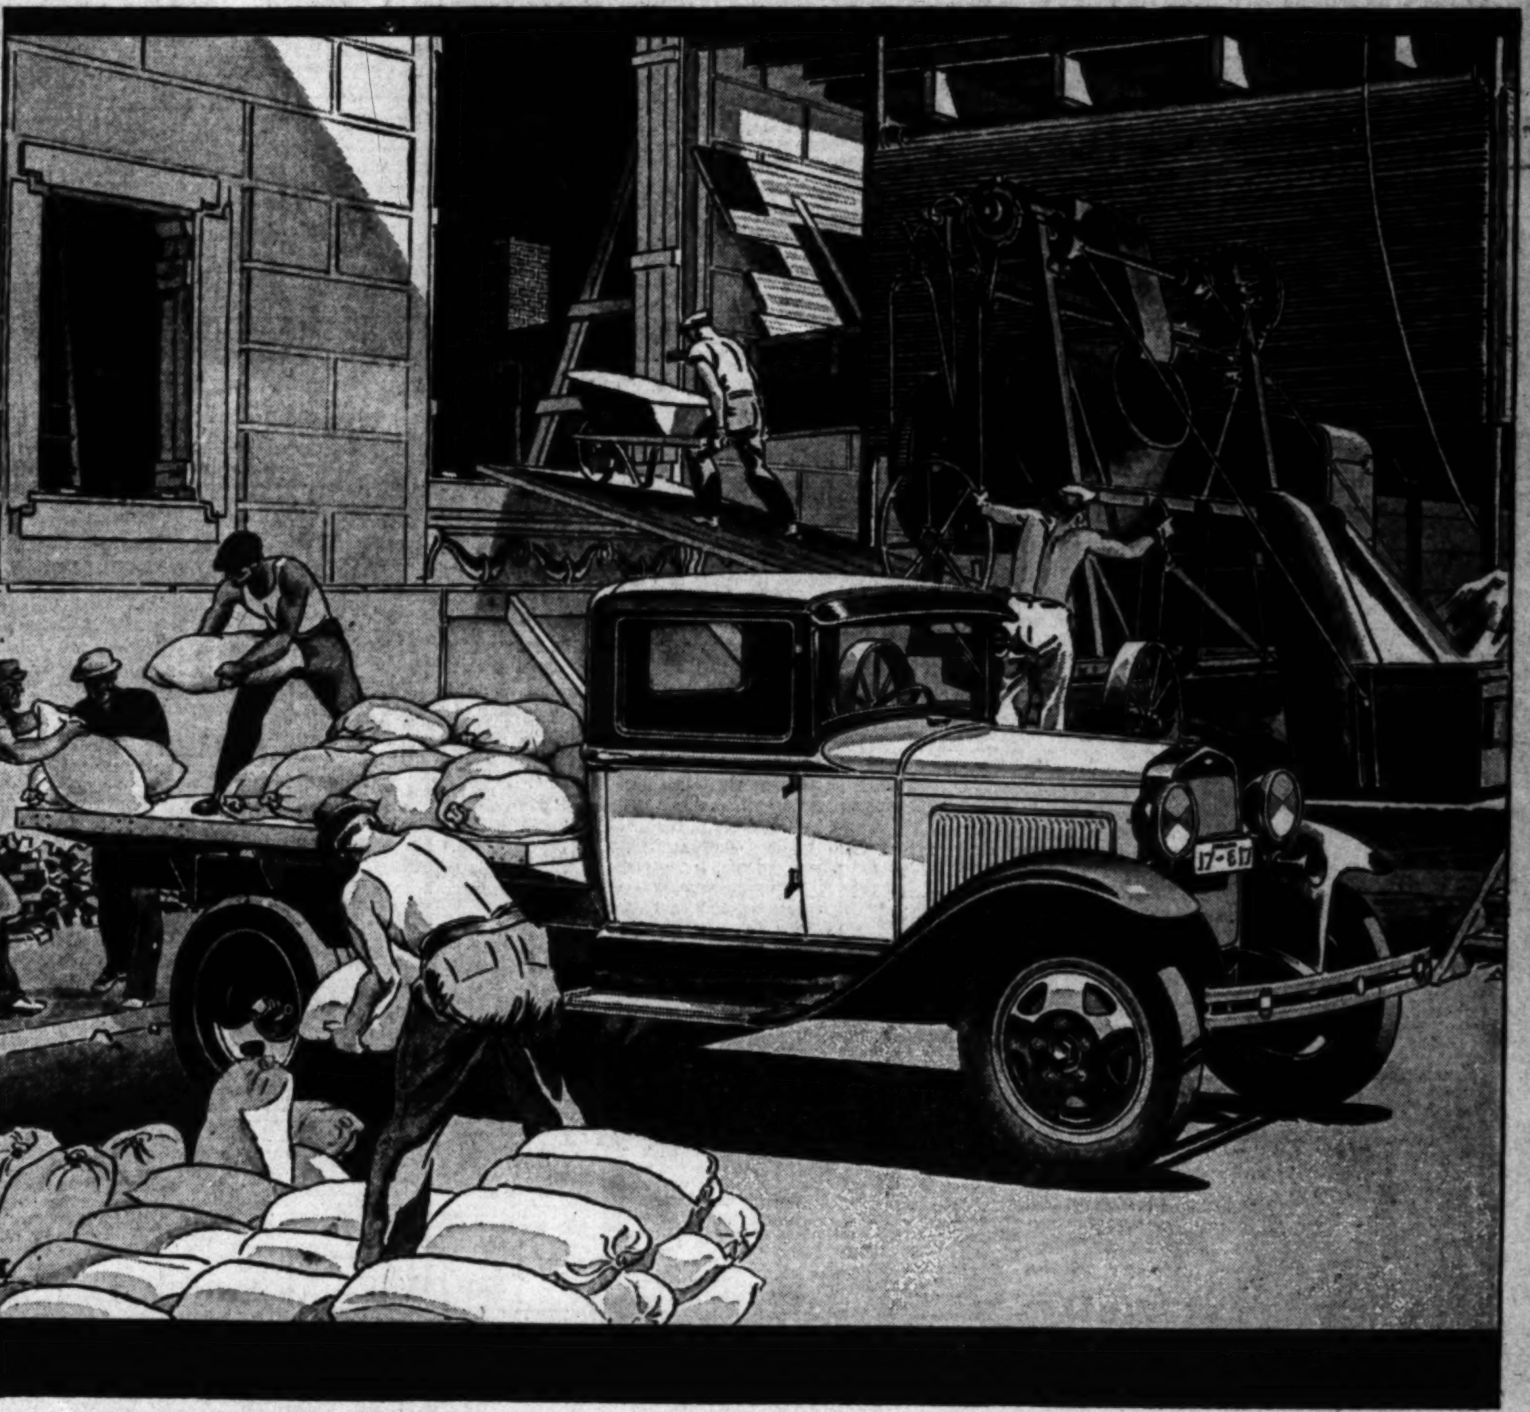
The Ford Truck

offers a value far above its price



FOR almost every business enterprise where there is hauling to be done, the Ford 1½-ton truck offers able performance for the work, reliable strength, long life, low first cost, and economy of operation. Not in a few fields, but in many, the Ford truck has found a place. In all of these, it is serving faithfully and well.

Closely related to your satisfaction with the Ford truck are features of its construction which reduce the cost of maintenance. Forty different kinds of steel are used in the chassis. Each of these is especially designed to resist strain, wear, or fatigue in the part for which it is employed.

The crankshaft and camshaft, for example, are of Ford carbon manganese steel. Valves are of chrome silicon alloy. The front axle is a chrome-alloy steel forging. These and many other special steels prolong the life of the truck, increase its ability to do hard work, and reduce the necessity for adjustments or repair.

New features of the truck are the spiral bevel gear rear axle, which has a straddle-mounted pinion; the two gear-ratios optional; the larger brakes; heavier front axle and spring; 4-speed transmission; provision for power take-off mounting; and the dual rear wheels, available at small additional cost.

Standard bodies, which are the stake, platform, and panel types, are mounted on the chassis with 131½-inch wheelbase. A chassis with 157-inch wheelbase is available for carrying light but bulky loads.

Go to your Ford dealer and see this truck. The closer your inspection of its chassis and bodies, the more you will appreciate that it is a value far in excess of the cost.

NEWS OF SOUTHERN COUNTIES

SOUTHLAND VOTES ON NOMINEES TOMORROW

Forecast of Southern Counties' Returns Indicates Heavy Poll in All Districts

One of the hardest-fought and, in many instances, one of the most interesting campaigns in the history of Southern California politics, is now a thing of the past and tomorrow the voters will decide who will be the candidates of the major parties in the general election next November. While interest, in a broad sense, has centered in the race for nomination for Governor, each county has presented a series of problems of its own. A resume of the county contests follows:

IMPERIAL

EL CENTRO, Aug. 24. — With Colorado River legislation now a matter of record, the Boulder Dam and all-American canal, which Mark Rose and directors of the Imperial Irrigation District have used for the past eight years as a club to maintain the supremacy of their political faction, has lost much of its potency and will not be a serious factor in next Tuesday's election, according to local observers.

The disintegration of the old factional lines is nowhere more evident than in the District Attorney's race where Elmer W. Heald, incumbent, is being opposed by Ernest R. Utley, whom Heald defeated four years ago.

In the previous election Heald was supported by the Rose machine. Utley was denounced as an "enemy of Boulder Dam." Since then there has been an open break between Heald and members of the Mark Rose faction with the result that the District Attorney is being supported by the faction which opposed him four years ago, while Utley's candidacy is being promoted by many of the machine crowd. This reversal in alignment was emphasized this week when a straw vote taken at Holtville, for many years the stronghold of the district faction, disclosed a big majority for Utley.

The American Conservation Club, recognized as the political vehicle of the Imperial Irrigation District, has indorsed a partial ticket, but is taking only a lukewarm interest in the election, due to the dwindling of its membership to a mere handful of Rose lieutenants.

INYO

BISHOP, Aug. 24.—Inyo county will re-elect County Auditor Kendrick, County Tax Collector Miller, County Recorder Reynolds, and Coroner Carrasco without opposition. County Assessor Brierly is opposed by Will L. Smith. Mrs. Leete, superintendent of schools, is opposed by Mrs. Robinson. The majorities Tuesday will keep those offices from the November ballot.

Four candidates for Sheriff include Sheriff Thomas Hutchison, former Sheriff Charles Collins, former Sheriff Frank Logan and Carl Ayres. In 1926 Hutchison defeated Collins by four votes in the recount of the primary result and by 460 votes in the general election after a "write-in" campaign made by Collins.

Supervisor Naylor of the Independence district is unopposed. Two new candidates, Ford and McAfee, are out for Supervisor in the West Bishop district. In the Lone Pine district the fight between Supervisor Lubken and Earl Car is one of the county's hottest.

The State campaign is too apathetic here to warrant a forecast. There is considerable Fitts strength but predictions favor Rolph leading, with Young an uncertain quantity. Lieut.-Gov. Carnahan and Tallant Tubbs are considered close in the Lieutenant-Governorship race.

Interest in the Imperial county election centers in the Sheriff's race, where Charles Gillett, twice indicted by a grand jury and later cleared in court on charges of theft of public money, is being opposed by a field of six candidates. Gillett's opponents include Supervisor George L. Pulliar of Calexico, County Clerk Calvin G. Mousseau, Charles Nice, a former deputy under Gillett; Tom Potts, pioneer druggist of Holtville; Dr. Fred H. Fargo, Police Commissioner of Brawley, and George Campbell general store operator at Seeley.

For Recorder, Bird E. Hobdy, incumbent, who recently was accused by the Imperial county grand jury of being $1400 short in her accounts, is being opposed by Evelyn B. Westerfield, former County Librarian, and Claude S. Connor.

In the Assessor's race Dan Wiest, former deputy in the office, is running against Frank G. Weir, superintendent of the County Farm. Wiley M. Weaver, Assessor since Imperial county was formed, is retiring voluntarily, due to age.

The Coroner's race is a three-cornered fight between Bert Underwood, former undersheriff, Dr. F. W. Petersen of El Centro, and Harry Bowman of Calexico. For Public Administrator, the incumbent, S. P. Williams, is being opposed by D. F. Harbison, one of the leaders in the Rose political faction.

George Varney, veteran merchant of Imperial Valley, is seeking to defeat Mrs. Josephine Adair, incumbent, for County Treasurer.

Edward H. Law, candidate for County Clerk, Walter Garey, County Auditor, and Nont J. Reid, County Tax Collector, have no opposition for the offices they seek.

Congressman Phil D. Swing and Assemblyman M. D. Witter have no opponents on the Republican ticket. Edward J. Kelly of San Diego is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the Eleventh District. Swing has been nominated for both Republican and Democratic primaries.

Imperial Valley has 15,059 registered voters this year, of whom 9061 are Republicans. It is estimated that the Republican vote cast next Tuesday will be between 5000 and 6000. Young supporters are asserting that their candidate will receive as many votes as Fitts and Rolph combined. Fitts headquarters insists that the Los Angeles candidate will get at least an even break with the Governor, but a majority of other observers give Young a lead in the county. Rolph is expected to run a poor third.

KERN

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—With four candidates in the field for Sheriff and five for Superior judge, the political battle in Kern county next Tuesday will center around these contests. Cas Walser, Sheriff for many years, is the pick of many to win at the primary over his three opponents, Phil Fickert, Maurice Tice and J. A. Waltman.

The judge contest will be between Jackson Mahon, son of the late J. W. Mahon, who was a Superior judge here for thirty-two years; A. B. Campbell, M. S. Platz, F. W. Welsh and J. W. Wright. Political prognosticators favor Mahon and Campbell to make the ticket.

Charles Shomate, incumbent, and C. F. Johnson, will fight it out at the primary for the office of County Recorder, while F. C. House, Coroner, will defend his office against Edward R. Silber.

The County Supervisorial race in the Third District may develop into a hot contest with John O. Hart, incumbent, contested by J. R. Thornber, whom Hart has defeated before; Cecil Tracy and Charles K. Badger.

J. I. Wagy, State Senator, is unopposed, but R. L. Patterson, incumbent Assemblyman, has an opponent on the Democratic ticket in Walter Hicks, a youthful aspirant.

Two important justice-of-the-peace battles are waging. In the Sixth township Thomas Baker, incumbent, is opposed by Stewart Magee and in the Third township, R. L. Davis, incumbent, is opposed by Ben Hunter.

All other county offices are unopposed.

In the gubernatorial contest sentiment appears to predict James Rolph will be high man, although the appearance of Buron Fitts here on Wednesday night and the showing made by him at his open-air political meeting, may switch the tide. Young, it is believed, will not carry Kern county.

ORANGE

SANTA ANA, Aug. 24.—The most hectic campaign in the history of Orange county elections neared to its close tonight with the winners in half a dozen contests very much in doubt. Veteran office-holders who, in the past, have encountered but little opposition, find themselves in stubborn battles to hold their places.

In view of the heat of battle, the usual percentage of votes cast at a primary election is expected to be considerably increased, and may reach 40 per cent of the total registration of 48,937, of which 36,285 are Republican voters.

Political observers believe there is no reason to doubt that Orange county will cast a majority of votes for Buron Fitts for Governor. Mayor James Rolph and Gov. Young are expected to be very close for second place. Orange county is literally filled with Young appointees but the patronage office-holders are not believed to have cut much into the majority expected for the Los Angeles prosecutor. Mayor Rolph was in Orange county two days this week and is thought to have reduced the vote for Young.

Three candidates stand out for Lieutenant-Governor in Orange county, Frank Merriam of Long Beach, who will probably be high on the list; Tallant Tubbs of Northern California, and H. L. Carnahan, incumbent. Tubbs will probably be third, corralling the wet vote with Carnahan second.

Frank C. Jordan will receive a big vote for Secretary of State, with Donald J. Bruce second. M. Len Hutchins, ardent dry, will be third in Orange county, it is believed.

Ray Riley will receive a heavy majority for Controller with Paul Collins second and C. J. Rambo third in this county, it is conceded.

Charles G. Johnson will lead here for Treasurer with Frank J. Smith second, and William E. Smith, third.

Charles A. Son will give U. S. Webb a real battle for Attorney-General in Orange county. H. G. Cattell is expected to win out in the selection of a member of the State Board of Equalization.

Edward Craig of Brea is unopposed for the Assembly.

E. J. Marks of Santa Ana will receive a large complimentary vote in Orange county for associate justice of the District Court of Appeal, Fourth District. Justice Marks is the incumbent.

Seven candidates for Sheriff are staging an intense campaign. Sheriff Sam Jernigan of Santa Ana is expected to top the ticket followed by Logan Jackson of Orange, W. R. Sylvester of Santa Ana, and James Pearson of Fullerton. Ralph McFadden of Placentia, will follow next, it is thought, running close to or just behind Leo Porter of Fullerton. W. J. McCardia is conceded the cellar position.

Sam L. Collins, Chief Deputy District-Attorney of Fullerton; David Wettlin, former Deputy District-Attorney of Orange, and Harry Westover, Santa Ana attorney and ardent dry, are engaging in a tight race for the prosecutor's place. Collins is expected to head the ticket, with Westover his opponent in the November run-off election. R. E. Haynes of Fullerton is not expected to figure prominently in the contest.

County Assessor James Sleeper and G. D. Montgomery of Anaheim are contesting for the Assessor's place. Sleeper is expected to be re-elected by a majority much smaller than in previous years. Montgomery has raised the issue of inequality of taxation, mentioning in particular Sleeper's assessments on the Irvine ranch.

County Auditor W. C. Jerome also has a stiff contest on his hands to retain his place. W. T. Lambert, newspaper publisher of Laguna Beach, is receiving strong support, especially in the beach sections. Jerome will probably win out by a narrow margin.

County Tax Collector John Lamb is another county officer seeking reelection who has encountered serious competition. His opponent is Belle Spangler of Santa Ana, for several years prominent in Parent-Teacher Association work.

Few political observers care to venture a guess on the race for Treasurer, involving County Treasurer J. C. Joplin, incumbent for nearly thirty years; Earl Abbey, Deputy County Clerk, and E. B. Trago of Santa Ana, high in fraternal circles. Those who will guess put Trago first, Abbey second and Joplin a close third.

Ray Arkinson, vice-principal of the Santa Ana High School, is offering strong opposition to County Superintendent R. P. Mitchell, candidate for re-election. Mitchell has held the office for nearly a score of years.

Two candidates are seeking to be elected Surveyor, W. K. Hillyard, present Surveyor, and W. G. Knox, former Santa Ana City Manager. Hillyard is expected to win easily.

Charles G. Brown, Coroner and Public Administrator, is expected to triumph without much opposition from Dr. J. G. Berneike.

Five candidates are contesting for the two places as constable in Santa Ana. Constable Jesse Elliott and Vernon Bernhill, members of the State motor patrol, may be one-two, or Cornish Roehm, member of the Santa Ana Police Department, may be second. B. Frank Lutz, Bert E. Dawson and Constable Joseph Ryan are also running.

Judge G. K. Scovel is unopposed for election to the Orange County Superior Court bench. John D. Ball, P. G. Beissel, William Iverson, W. C. May, S. M. Reinhaus and Z. B. West are unopposed for election to the Republican County Central Committee.

Lew Wallace and Supervisor George Jeffrey are in a hot contest for election as Supervisor from the coast section. Other candidates are: S. H. Lucas, formerly of Ohio, now of Corona del Mar; John Sauers of Tustin, Eugene Fenelon of New-Port Beach, Charles Artz of Tustin.

RIVERSIDE

RIVERSIDE, Aug. 24.—A primary election campaign is being waged here the like of which has never been seen in Riverside county. The vigor and elaborateness of the drive for votes which candidates for county offices are conducting make all previous efforts hereabouts seem tame by contrast. And so closely are the contestants in the race bunched that experienced and wise political prophets are puzzled over picking probable winners.

Much the same situation exists in the State primary situation, although results are beginning to be less doubtful as election day approaches.

The office of Sheriff is proving a veritable storm center with Undersheriff Carl Rayburn and County Supervisor Jack McGregor in the vortex. Both men are skilled vote-getters and have campaigned the county from end to end for weeks. Rayburn has the powerful support of Sheriff Sweeters who has refused to seek re-election, and as Sweeters has proved on previous occasions that he knows how to get votes his backing is considered a highly important factor. But McGregor is also known as an expert in the political field and has an efficient organization functioning. Rayburn's watchword is "efficiency," while McGregor is emphasizing "economy." At present the betting slightly favors Rayburn.

Attracting wide interest is the three-cornered struggle for the office of Coroner. Dr. C. S. Dickson, who has been Coroner for some thirty years, is seeking re-election. Opposing him are Ben White, Chief of Police of Blythe, and Dr. B. E. Garrison of Riverside. The political prognosticators refuse to hazard a guess as to who will win.

Alexander C. Fulmor, incumbent, and Lee Nafzgar, former City Engineer, are seeking the job of County Surveyor. Both men are popular and are known as competent engineers. It is anybody's race.

Ray T. Hicks, chief deputy County Auditor, and John R. McWilliams are contesting for the County Auditorship, while Luther J. Tobias and Henry P. Zimmerman, incumbent, would like to be county administrator.

Charles R. Stibbens, veteran County Tax Collector, has opposition for the first time in years. Austin A. Howell, an accountant, is also on the ballot. Stibbens is generally expected to win by a large margin.

The Supervisorial contests are being hotly fought. In District No. 2 W. C. Moore, incumbent; Clarence Backstrand, Riverside City Councilman, and Hans Jorgensen, rancher and farm bureau leader, all would like to be elected. Moore is considered a hard man to beat. In the Third District Robert Dillon and C. D. Hauvermann, both of Beaumont, are placing their merits before the voters.

For justice of the Riverside township court R. Moore, incumbent, and Chester W. Benshoof are asking support. Benshoof is an old resident and an active church and lodge man, so he is expected to poll a heavy vote. But Moore is well liked and has proved an able justice. Both men are lawyers. The result is placed in the doubtful column.

Chester Kline, publisher of a San Jacinto newspaper, and Joseph Seymour, Riverside attorney, are in the field for the nomination for State Assemblyman.

Fitts, Young and Rolph forces are all at it hammer and tongs. Both Rolph and Young are backed by numerous old-time politicians, who have spent money liberally. But Fitts's popularity is so great in the county and the need of a Southern California Governor is so urgently recognized that he is expected to carry the county without trouble.

H. L. Carnahan, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, taught school and practiced law in this county for a number of years, and is backed by powerful local political interests. In spite of that fact, it is believed that Frank F. Merriam will win in Riverside county by a substantial margin.

SAN BERNARDINO

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 24.—With a number of contested offices on the ballot, San Bernardino county will poll perhaps the heaviest vote in its history at the August primaries Tuesday. There are more than 48,000 registered voters in the county.

Three members of the Board of Supervisors, Chairman C. E. Grier of Upland, M. P. Cheney of Colton, and Arthur L. Doran of Barstow, are opposed for re-election. The opposition candidates are Frank C. Buffington of Upland, Myron Pine of Bloomington, and R. B. Peters of Dwore.

Superior Judge Benjamin F. Warner of Ontario is opposed by Jesse Olney of Adelanto, twice defeated for the bench.

What will probably be the closest race for any county office is the contest between Dist.-Atty. George H. Johnson and Stanley Mussell, prominent San Bernardino attorney. Johnson has served eight years as the county's prosecutor and Mussell was formerly one of his deputies.

Three candidates are in the field for the office of Recorder. They are Fulton G. Feraud, incumbent; Walter V. Combs of Ontario and M. E. Nott of Redlands.

Assessor A. E. Allen of Redlands is opposed by Edward P. Doyle of San Bernardino.

Coroner Al W. U'Ren of Colton is opposed by Tom McFarlane of San Bernardino.

Miss Ida M. Collins, County Superintendent of Schools, is opposed by D. L. Newkirk of Ontario.

The unopposed county officers are Harry L. Allison, Clerk; John W. Batchelor, Tax Collector; M. W. Williams, Treasurer; Vincent L. Roth, Auditor.

Gaining strength daily because of his campaign, "Give Southern California a Break," Buron R. Fitts will seriously challenge Gov. Young for San Bernardino county's Republican vote. Rolph will probably run third in the county. Young, favored with an organization built up by a score of appointments during the past four years, was a favorite to win the county early in the race, but Fitts has cut into the Young vote, it is admitted even by Young supporters.

SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 24.—Following a rather lethargic campaign, there are only three outstanding contests among candidates for county offices in San Diego. There seems to be a concerted movement under way "to eliminate the so-called Courthouse gang" and this has found expression in the race for District Attorney, Sheriff and Coroner.

In the contest for District Attorney, Stephen Connell, incumbent, is opposed by John Coker and Thomas Whelan, each of which has built his campaign on "economy and results." While many predict a close race, those in the know are forecasting Connell's re-election.

Ed F. Cooper, present Sheriff, will fight it out with John D. Cornell and Flemmer Adams, relying on his record in office to put him over. In the Coroner's race, S. C. Kelly, incumbent, is pitted against Dave Lee Gershon, Chester D. Gunn and Herbert B. Frisbie, with the balance of public approval in his favor.

Ada York, county Superintendent of Schools, is opposed by Frank Y. Van Valin. Having held the office for many years, and with a fine record of achievement, Miss York's re-election is conceded easily.

J. B. McLees, County Clerk; Chauncey Rose Hammond, County Auditor, and Herbert Croghan, County Tax Collector, are unopposed. For Assessor, George W. Moulton, incumbent, will race James Hervey Johnson and Arthur E. Blethen, with good chances of re-election. The Treasurer's office presents a three-cornered fight with George W. Heston opposed by A. F. Dessureault, Legion man, and Will S. Heller, and slated to outdistance his opponents will little effort.

John H. Ferry, Recorder, will face Harriet E. Crane, Charles A. Sieck and O. M. Swope, with a long record in office in his favor. Edwin Reed, public administrator for many years, is expected to find the opposition of Le Roy Bailey, Charles L. Cass and Alessandro Zauri easy to overcome. In the Surveyor's race, Ernest R. Childs, incumbent, looks an easy winner over Earl S. Casey. Three are running for constable and two will be selected from among Harry E. Webber, Howard S. Jopling and George H. Cooley.

A hot fight is predicted for city justice, with Claude L. Chambers, incumbent, facing Emmett L. Fitzpatrick, Herman Preese, H. C. Hopkins and Marcus W. Robbins. Office of township justice of the peace will be fought out by Eugene Daney, Jr., and Arthur L. Mundo, with each considered fairly strong.

John W. Preston for associate justice of the Supreme Court, No. 1; John W. Shenk for associate justice of the Supreme Court, No. 2; Charles R. Barnard for presiding justice of the Fourth Appellate Court; E. J. Marks for associate justice of the Fourth Appellate Court, office No. 1; Lacy D. Jennings for associate justice of the Fourth Appellate Court, office No. 2, and Clarence Harden for Superior Court judge, all are unopposed.

Phil D. Swing, Representative in Congress of the Eleventh District, also has no opposition. The State Senator race from the Fortieth District finds William E. Harper facing Edward H. Dowell, with Harper having the edge. For the Assembly, Seventy-eighth District, John T. Kean and George B. Bowers will battle it out with the outcome considered doubtful. Each has many adherents here.

In the Governor's race, Fitts seems to be piling up considerable favor in this area, with Frank F. Merriam going strong for the Lieutenant-Governorship.

SANTA BARBARA

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 24.—Santa Barbara county voters should flock to the polls by the largest percentage in years, including the Presidential election just passed, with three important contests for county offices and several minor contests for district offices to be settled.

The campaign for the office of the County Superintendent of Schools has been the most active, with four candidates, Melvin E. Bowman and Samuel O. Welday, Santa Barbara city school principals; Clarence Ruth, principal of Lompoc city schools, and Muriel Edwards, principal of the Santa Ynes Union High School.

The preliminary election skirmishes in the fight for the office of District Attorney are most heated with two candidates, Percy Heckendorf of Santa Barbara and Thomas Weldon of Santa Maria, out. The battle here is whether the northern part of the county will be represented in the county offices. Both the present District Attorney, Clarence E. Ward, and the present County Superintendent of Schools, A. S. Pope, are not running for re-election.

Two candidates, one Sheriff James Ross, who has served the county for some twelve years, and his deputy, Ben Hoover of Lompoc, are fighting for this office. County Clerk D. F. Hunt is opposed by Philip Bradley for re-election, completing the scramble for county offices.

Others unopposed include: County Recorder Yris Covarrubias, County Assessor Charles S. Tomlinson, County Auditor Albert T. Eaves, County Tax Collector H. C. Sweetser, County Treasurer W. B. Metcalf, County Surveyor Owen H. O'Neill and Coroner E. G. Dodge.

There are two contests in the race for Supervisor, Chairman C. L. Preisker of Santa Maria, is opposed by H. R. Saulsbury, a rancher, while Supervisor Sam J. Stanwood of Santa Barbara, is opposed by Jack Hayden. There is no opposition for the offices of justice of the peace, Jacob Shoup and Thomas Poole, both appointees, running for re-election. George R. Bliss is unopposed for re-election as a member of the Assembly from the Forty-ninth District.

For Congress, Arthur Monroe Free apparently is leading in favor as opposed to W. Scott Smith and Emmet C. Rittenhouse.

In favor for Governor, the county apparently is pretty much divided. Buron Fitts has gained much ground in the south end of the county of late, while James Rolph, Jr., also has strengthened himself in the north, but Gov. Young is predicted by political seers to nose out his two opponents here. The race for Lieutenant-Governor in this county is anybody's, Tallant Tubbs and H. L. Carnahan favored slightly.

NEAR-RIOT AT SANTA BARBARA IN FIGHT AGAINST OFFSHORE GAMING

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 24. Santa Barbara's police were forced back to their secondary defense last night by a mob of some 1500 people on Stearn's Wharf in a wild fight, almost a riot, to prevent anyone from going out on the William H. Harriman, gambling barge and pleasure craft.

But the officers came back stronger than ever this afternoon as the shore boats running between the barge and the land were getting ready to start up again for the Sunday rush. Thirty uniformed men, armed with clubs, were posted on Stearn's Wharf shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon and were warning prospective patrons from getting into the shore boats.

The imposing array of police apparently intimidated the large holiday crowd milling about the wharf and along the water front, made curious about the gambling barge from the publicity it has received and anxious to see some police action.

Last night bedlam broke loose when a huge crowd of pleasure seekers, already pepped up about the gambling barge, gathered on the wharf and insisted on going out in the shore boats. The police were stationed on the wharf and made futile attempts to manage the seething mass of excited people.

Only three arrests were made. No one was injured, but a policeman was knocked down and several persons were slugged. Bert Gorman of Venice, J. C. Long of Los Angeles and T. L. Ivy of Dallas were arrested for disturbing the peace. They, with E. P. Hackew, who was arrested Saturday, will appear before Police Judge E. A. Rizor in the morning.

As the tide was exceptionally high last night, the police found it almost impossible to interfere with the shore boats carrying passengers to and from the gambling barge.

While the police guarded the landings on the wharf and breakwater, the shore boats would float along the side of either structure and the insistent and daring amateur gamblers would jump into the open craft.

SEVEN-YEAR-OLD LIE CONFESSED

Woman Writes Yucaipa City Building Inspector and Asks Forgiveness

YUCAIPA, Aug. 24.—M. E. Armstrong, building inspector, has just received a letter in which a woman asks him for forgiveness for a lie told way back in 1923.

"We were building an addition to our house and because I thought we might not have to pay a fee, I told you the work was being done by my husband. That was untrue and I knew it was untrue. Ever since then my conscience has hurt me and I want to confess to you now that I told a lie and hope for forgiveness."

Armstrong says he wishes some of those who falsify about big construction would be so stricken.

SAN LUIS OBISPO

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Aug. 24.—Bitter county politics and a fight to keep a representative in the coming session of the Legislature will enliven San Luis Obispo county's primary election.

Normally, a strong Young county, heavy voting in the "wet" section along the coast may swing a majority here to Rolph for Governor. For Congress from the Eighth District, Emmet C. Rittenhouse and Congressman Arthur M. Free are conceded an edge in this district over W. Scott Smith. Chris N. Jefferson of Paso Robles, is a candidate for re-election to the State Assembly, opposed by R. C. Deyoe and H. P. Fanning, both of Monterey county.

San Luis Obispo and Monterey counties are consolidated into one Assembly district. Monterey county has one State Senator. San Luis Obispo will not have a chance to elect a State Senator until the next session.

Sheriff Jesse P. Lowery is opposed by Murray Hathway, cowboy candidate. A keen fight is predicted here, with county sectionalism playing a strong part.

The same elements contribute to the three-cornered race for District Attorney, perhaps the hardest contested county office. The incumbent, H. J. Dubin, is opposed by Sam V. Wright and A. H. Brazil.

Supervisor John L. Marquart is opposed by Ettore Caccia and Peter Boysen in the Second District, while Supervisor Asa Porter will face J. W. Shannon and J. A. Bosse in the Fourth District. Other county officers are unopposed.

The only San Luis Obispo township contest is for the office of constable, which has developed into a free-for-all among M. J. Castro, incumbent; Bennie Bettencourt, Charles Gates, Ralph Metz and W. M. Kiger.

As for the Governorship race in San Luis Obispo county, Mayor Rolph of San Francisco is believed to have a strong following, due to his frequent recent visits here, although Dist.-Atty. Buron Fitts has a large following among those who realize the importance, from the standpoint of benefit and fairness to the southern part of the State, in electing a Southern California man to the Governorship. Young is expected to run third.

It is conceded that large majority of those who vote for Rolph's nomination will favor Tallant Tubbs for the Lieutenant-Governorship, although Lieut.-Gov. Carnahan has an exceptionally strong following in this section, so that few except the most sanguine supporters of each will hazard a guess as to the outcome.

VENTURA

VENTURA, Aug. 24.—More local heat has developed over the primary election of next Tuesday than any other in a dozen years. The reason is that a large share of the county offices are being bitterly contested, whereas for a good many years this has not been the case.

The hottest fight rages over one of the humblest offices, namely, constable of Ventura township, where nine candidates are conducting a house-to-house canvass. In addition to the incumbent, J. J. Salcido, this position is sought by E. C. Blowers, Clarence F. Carrothers, Henry J. Dover, Cecil A. Dunham, James Esperance, Anthony Natale, John W. Newby and W. P. Thompson.

Other county offices which are the centers of contests are: Sheriff, R. E. Clark, incumbent, and C. R. French; District Attorney, James C. Hollingsworth, incumbent, Jarrett Beckett, W. H. Finley; Auditor, Charles P. Daly, J. M. Hooey; Recorder, R. N. Haydon, incumbent, and Neal B. Bowker; Tax Collector, Robert S. Cooney, T. L. Eustis, T. C. Tychsen; Surveyor, Charles W. Petit, incumbent, Donald C. MacMillan.

Largely, it is believed, as a result of these contests, the city of Ventura this year established a remarkable record of registration, the books showing 6132 qualified electors as against a 1930 census population of 11,432, or a registration of 54 per cent of the total number of people.

The Governorship battle has waxed hot, with the Fitts forces claiming a heavy strength in the Santa Paula and Fillmore districts and likewise claiming the county as a whole. In the Oxnard and Ventura districts Young is believed to rate very strong, with Rolph a factor. As matters stand today, the local managers of all three gubernatorial candidates are forecasting a county victory on Tuesday.

For the first time in a number of elections, A. M. Free has been meeting a real contest here for his seat in Congress, with Emmet C. Rittenhouse, Santa Cruz attorney, showing much strength.

Ventura county is electing no State Senator this year, and Assemblyman Dan Emmett's name is on the ballot without competition.

THREE NEGROES BULLET VICTIMS

Harold Mason May Die; Two Women Badly Wounded

William Causey Sought on Murderous Attack Count

His Wife and Myrtle Reeves in Serious Condition

PASADENA, Aug. 24.—A man is near death and two women are in a serious condition at the Pasadena Hospital today as the result of bullet wounds assertedly inflicted last night by the estranged husband of one of the victims. Those involved in the case are Negroes. Arrest of William Causey, 40 years of age, of 526 South Oak Knoll avenue, on charges of murderous assault, is expected momentarily.

Those whom the police assert Causey shot in a jealous rage are: His wife, Mrs. Gertrude Causey, 30; Harold Mason, 38, of 1326 Forest avenue, and Myrtle Reeves, 19, of 473 Westgate avenue. One of the three bullets pierced Mason's liver, probably fatally wounding him, another struck Mrs. Causey's chest and ranged downward to her stomach, while the third shot pierced Miss Reeves's neck, narrowly missing her jugular vein.

Last night, according to Detective Sergeant Edward Ewing and Patrolman Clair Corbin, Mrs. Causey went for an automobile ride with Mason, and four other women.

Causey, driving his roadster, passed the other automobile and recognized his wife as one of the occupants. When Mason parked his machine in front of 471 Westgate, Causey leaped from his roadster and after attempting to persuade his estranged wife to leave her companions, drew a revolver and started shooting. Although probably fatally wounded, Mason grappled with his assailant and succeeded in wresting the gun from his hand before he lapsed into unconsciousness.

The three victims were taken to the Pasadena Emergency Hospital, where Dr. William Wagner removed the bullet which had struck Mrs. Causey. After administration of first aid, the trio were transferred to the Pasadena Hospital.

A search was started immediately for Causey, who escaped in his machine. Shortly before the shooting, according to the police, he approached a friend and secured the revolver which he had given as security for a $1 loan.

The shots attracted 500 persons to the scene and resulted in a traffic jam along Westgate and Lincoln avenues.

LAGUNA ART COLONY AUCTION CONCLUDES

LAGUNA BEACH, Aug. 24.—Te Laguna Beach Art Association closed the auction on the little pictures at the Art Gallery last night. The bids, starting with $10 each, soared until the pictures were sold at a large price.

The paintings were donated by active members of the association and the money is to be used in improvements of the gallery. This is the second year that the auction has been held and the profits exceeded the sale of a year ago.

Many persons came from all over Southern California to bid on the canvasses on display. A reception was held last night at the close of the auction.

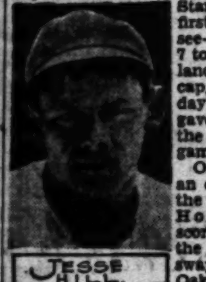
HOLLYWOOD, OAKS SPLIT TWIN BILL

Stars Annex Opener by 7-to-5 Talley, but Lose in Nightcap, 2 to 1

OAKLAND, Aug. 24. (AP)—Hollywood and Oakland divided the Sunday double-header here today, the Stars taking the first game, a see-saw affair, 7 to 5, and Oakland the nightcap, 2 to 1. Today's victory gave Hollywood the series, four games to three.



JESSE HILL

Oakland took an early lead in the opener but Hollywood scored three in the fifth to hold sway until Oakland put over two each in the sixth and seventh. Hollywood added three more in the eighth to take the game. Hill, Hollywood, and Arlett, Oakland, each got a home run.

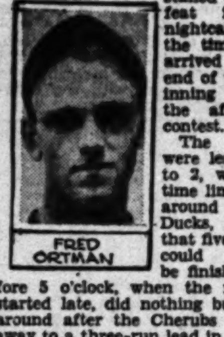
Portland Cops First Clash by Rally in Tenth

Time Limit Makes Nightcap Farce No Contest

Series Ends with Each Side Having Three Wins

BY BOB RAY

After upsetting the Angels in the first game, 9 to 6, with a three-run rally in the tenth, Larry Woodall's Portland Ducks stalled off a defeat in the nightcap until the time limit arrived at the end of the third inning to make the affair no contest.



FRED ORTMAN

The Angels were leading, 10 to 2, when the time limit rolled around but the Ducks, knowing that five innings could not be finished before 5 o'clock, when the nightcap started late, did nothing but clown around after the Cherubs had got away to a three-run lead in the first frame. The farce had to be stopped at 5 o'clock to enable the Portlanders to catch a train.

Inasmuch as it was no contest, all of those Angel base hits and stolen bases do not go down in the records. Also, Angie Walsh and Ken Williams do not get credit for the home runs they clouted.

As a result of their win in the opener, the Ducks managed to get an even break in the series with the Seraphs, each side having three victories for the week.

OPENER EXCITING

Although the second game was a travesty of the national pastime, the fans did get their money's worth in the opener, which was a free-hitting, nip-and-tuck that saw the Seraphs three times come from behind to tie the score only to have the Beavers hammer across three runs in the tenth to break the deadlock.

Walter French, the former Army gridiron star who is now holding down center field for the Ducks, was the hero of the Portland victory. Frenchie banged out five hits in six times at bat, tallied four times, started the winning rally and scored the first of the three Portland runs in the tenth.

Wilbert Peters and Ray Keating, the starting hurlers, both proved ineffective and Fred Ortman and Clyde Barfoot took up the mound dutie. Ortman

POLOISTS PLAY TIE IN TRIALS

Hitchcock's Varsity Whites Held Even by Reds

Game Ends in Deadlock at Port Washington, 13-13

Pedley Plays Star Role by Scoring Eight Goals

PORT WASHINGTON (N. Y.) Aug. 24. (AP)—Tommy Hitchcock's varsity Whites ran into stubborn opposition from the Reds, or junior varsity, in today's trial match for the international series and were held to a 13-13 tie. It was the first time since the polo trials began that Hitchcock's varsity failed to win.

TOMMY HITCHCOCK

The varsity lined up with Hitchcock at No. 3, Eric Pedley of California, at No. 1; Winston Guest at back, and Cecil Smith of Texas, at No. 2. The opposing Reds had Earle A. S. Hopping at No. 2, H. W. (Rube) Williams of Texas at No. 3, Elmer Boeseke of California at back, and G. H. (Pete) Bostwick and Stephen Sanford dividing duty at No. 1.

The largest crowd of the trials saw a fast and exciting match. Once again Hitchcock, Guest and Smith fed the ball to Pedley and the Californian tallied eight goals for the best individual performance of the day.

The Reds, given a handicap of seven goals, held a 13-9 lead as late as the sixth chukker, but the Whites came with a rush to count twice in the seventh and twice in the eighth chukkers to deadlock the final score.

Hitchcock narrowly escaped serious injury in the fourth period when he was thrown from his pony. He escaped with a shaking up, however, and resumed play.

Vic Williams Heads Quarter-Milers Selected

BY TED VOSBURGH
Associated Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 24. (AP)—A formidable team of sixty-six men, selected on the basis of the National Amateur Athletic Union championships here Friday and Saturday, was named today for the international track and field meet with Great Britain at Chicago Wednesday night.

VIC WILLIAMS

In a special sprint on the Chicago program Eddie Tolan, George Simpson and Russell Sweet will clash with Britain's three fastest humans.

These sprinters, "hot" from their activities here and in the British Empire games at Hamilton, Ont., also are to clash in the 400-yard relays and perhaps the medley as well.

Run on the English system, the Chicago meet will consist mostly of relay events and field competition in which the aggregate made by each country's representatives will decide the winner. There are fourteen events exclusive of the special sprints which will not count toward determining the result of the meet.

The poor racing judgment shown by Pete Brown, defending champion, and Morgan Taylor, Illinois A.C., in burning themselves out with a sprinting pace in the first half of the 440-yard senior championship yesterday will not cost them a berth on the team. Although they failed to place, both were named among the seven quarter-milers headed by Vic Williams of the Los Angeles A. C., the winner, from whom will be selected the mile relay team and a 440 man to run on the medley quartet.

In most cases the A.A.U. officials in charge of picking the team stood

NINTH-INNING THEFT PUTS SKIDS UNDER GIANT CLUB

BY WILLIAM WEEKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Aug. 24. (AP)—A cream-colored streak, a big cloud of dust, and young Dannie Taylor had stolen home in the ninth inning today and with it he snatched another ball game for the Cubs from the Giants.

The play, one of baseball's most sensational and one rarely seen, came in the ninth inning of the final game of the series today and gave the Cubs a breath-taking, 3-to-2 triumph, to boost them full five games ahead of the pack in the National League championship struggle. It also was Chicago's third victory in the four-game series with the Manhattan maulers.

GUY BUSH

GIANTS TIE SCORE

The Giants tied the score at 2-all in their half of the ninth and when Wilson popped out to open the Cub half, it appeared that another capacity crowd of 45,000 spectators would have to stick around in Wrigley Field for quite a while. But Taylor, a young man from West Newton, Pa., who doubled in the winning run in the final game of the Brooklyn series last week, got his second hit of the day, a single to left. He stole second and hustled on to third when Bob O'Farrell threw poorly in attempting to catch him.

Joe Heving, who had relieved Fred Fitzsimmons as New York's pitcher in the eighth, got his orders and walked Hartnett and Lester Bell, filling the bases after Kelly had struck out, to get at Guy Bush, Cub hurler who had fanned twice. Heving got two strikes on Bush, then deliberately wound up and threw a wide one. Taylor started with the pitch and hit the plate so quickly that no effort was made to get him.

The stage obviously was all set for the play, for Bush leaped back out of the way, took one look and raced for the Cub bench.

The battle was as bitterly fought as a world series contest. The Giants needed a victory to give them an even break in the series, but Bush was accorded such brilliant support that, although he was hit fairly hard, the Giants were stalled off until the ninth before they could tie up.

MAX BAER, CAMPBELL IN CLASH

Livermore Heavy Favored to Take "Make-or-Break" San Francisco Bout

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—In a "make-or-break-fight" for the Livermore heavyweight, Max Baer meets Frankie Campbell, former San Franciscan, tomorrow night in a ten - round contest at Recreation Park. If Baer wins decisively it will have a strong effect on the eastern campaign that is expected to start shortly. If Campbell knocks out or beats his rival, it will have a depressing effect upon the stock of one Max Baer, a setback that will be hard to overcome.

MAX BAER.

Opinion strongly favors Baer, who is and has been a 2-to-1 favorite to win. Even money is also offered that Campbell will not stay six full rounds.

The referee has not been selected and it is unlikely that any official announcement will come until tomorrow night.

Baer, although still much of a novice, has done pretty much all that could be asked of him, save in his recent fight with Les Kennedy in Los Angeles, when Max lost the decision.

He looks to have the making of a great fighter, is fast with his punches and a hard-hitter, although he leaves himself open at times. His speed somewhat compensates for that lack in his pugilistic make-up.

In weight, Baer will have an advantage of eight or nine pounds and in general build, with height and reach he will have a distinct advantage over Frankie.

ERVAST WINS STAKE EVENT

Baron Long's Steed Annexes First Running of President's Plate Event Over Ironsides

AGUA CALIENTE (Mex.) Aug. 24.—Baron Long, San Diego breeder and sportsman, collected his first stake this afternoon since the Agua Caliente Jockey Club got under way last winter when Ervast, 4-year-old son of Palcines, dashed to an easy victory in the first running of the President's plate.

Ervast won by a length and a half from Ironsides, Man o' War colt from the C. B. Irwin barn, and in so doing set a new track record for a mile and one-eighth. The fleet San Diego-bred gelding clipped four-fifths second over the record set during the winter meeting by Dowagiac. Ervast ran the distance in 1m. 49 4-5s. A field of six went to the post in the stake, which was worth $5000 in added money with a special trophy given by Wirt G. Bowman, president of the Agua Caliente Jockey Club, also going to the winning owner.

Starter Byron Steele got them away well with Ervast going to the top at once along with Hatrick. Rounding the first turn, Sunspero, carrying the purple silks of the La Brea stable of Hamilton Cotton of Los Angeles, went to the front with Ervast following on the rail. Hatrick followed with Ironsides next in line. Heading down the backstretch, Sunspero pulled into a clear lead, but Ervast caught him again near the far bend. Heading around the stretch turn, Ironsides moved up on the outside of Ervast and as they swung into the stretch, Seth's Hope also began to move up. Down they came in the lane for home. Ervast immediately pulled into a safe lead on the rail with Ironsides following.

Sunspero, tiring, began to drop back and Seth's Hope came up to get the short end of the purse at the wire. Sunspero, Hatrick and Mi and Mole Hill trailed the leaders home. Miss Artemesia Calles, daughter of Plutarco Calles, former President of Mexico, crowned the winner when he returned to the judges' circle. Jockey Georgie Woolf was presented with a floral wreath in token of victory. Walter Fenwick, trainer, received the silver plater for Baron Long, who was not

CLEVELAND WINS, LOSES IN YANK DOUBLE-HEADER

NEW YORK, Aug. 24. (AP)—Wes Ferrell's pitching gave Cleveland an even break in the Yankees' final double-header against the West today. New York took the first game in eleven innings, 5 to 3, while Cleveland annexed the second, 4 to 2.

The Yankees ended the home stay against the West with nine victories and six defeats.

It was Wes Ferrell's twenty-second victory and his eleventh straight success. He has now exceeded his last year's record. Pennock's one bad inning gave Cleveland the game.

Lou Gehrig did the best hitting of the day with six hits.

In the opener the Yankees won their first game of the final series with the Indians, but had to go eleven innings to do it. Dusty Cooke was the hero with a home run with two on and

MERCURIES DESERVE CHEERS

BY BRAVEN DYER

IT LOOKS as if it's about time they held the National A.A.U. track-and-field meet out this way, what with the Los Angeles Athletic Club, Olympic Club and Washington finishing in the first three positions for the second successive year. Eastern squads have had little to crow about since 1927 when the Illinois Athletic Club won the team title. Even on this occasion the West Coast copped the next three positions with the Olympic Club, Hollywood Athletic and Los Angeles Athletic Club. In 1928 the Mercuries were champions, followed by New York and Illinois. Last year it was Olympic Club, Los Angeles Athletic Club and Washington.

The outstanding performance of last Saturday, from a Los Angeles Athletic Club standpoint, was Bob Maxwell's low-hurdle victory. Maxwell is a veteran of many campaigns and most of us thought he was pretty well washed up. But Bob has been training diligently under the expert eye of Boyd Comstock and his triumph five years after graduation from college is an achievement worth crowing about. Maxwell captained the 1925 Pomona College team and holds the Pacific Coast record in the lows at 23.7s.

Praise should also be bestowed upon Vic Williams, who had the guts to go out on a heavy track and run Pete Bowen into the mud. Anybody who can do that is a he-man for Bowen has long been regarded as the kingpin of American quarter-milers.

Herman Brix, Harry Hinkle, Jim De Mers and Fred Sturdy did just what was expected of them. Dick Pomeroy's triumph in the 440-yard hurdles rates him as a great athlete also, for Dick has been out of Caltech four or five years, I believe. The quarter-mile hurdles are a terrible race to run but at that Dick came perilously close to a new world's record.

After awhile Pittsburgh fans will probably get tired of seeing our Los Angeles athletes, football and track, in action!

The sensational victory scored by the Los Angeles A.C. gives the local club a tight hold on all major national championships for the year 1930.

WESTERN WOMEN'S GOLF TOURNEY STARTS TODAY

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 24. (AP)—Old Man Par threatens to retain his mastery at the expense of nearly all of the 100 women golfers who will tee off tomorrow in the qualifying round of the annual women's golf tournament.

Few practice cards turned in show feminine club wielders beating 82, perfect stroking for women. Tournament followers doubt if even the best entrants can approach man's par of 73 over the irregular Hillcrest Country Club course.

Mrs. O. S. Hill, defending champion from Kansas City, paired with Miss Dorothy Page of Madison, Wis., is scheduled to be first off the tee at 8:30 a.m. A year ago over the Mayfield Country Club course at Cleveland, Mrs. Hill was medalist with an excellent 77, beating

COLEMAN BROTHERS WIN

Defeat Sparks, Mescall, 3 and 2, in Exhibition Match Played Over California Links

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

With Lester furnishing the offensive punch, while Fay stepped in opportunely to nip a belated rally in the bud, the Coleman brothers of California featured rare teamwork yesterday afternoon to defeat Johnny Mescall and Wally Sparks, 3 and 2, in an eighteen-hole exhibition match played over the Cheviot Hills links.

Two weeks ago in the first match at Fox Hills, it was Fay who came through in the nick of time to stave off defeat, but this time it was Lester's birdies that started the visitors tobogganing. Both Fay and Lester had individual balls of 72, par for the course, but mixed in enough birdies for a best ball of 66.

LESTER COLEMAN

Sparks was in rare form through the fairway, but foozled no less than four putts for birdies on the first nine. Despite his weak putting, Wally enjoyed the best individual ball of the day, a 71. Mescall was somewhat off form, registering a 76. The Fox Hills team had a best ball of 70.

The first four holes were halved with pars, the Californians going 1 up at the fifth on Lester's birdie 3. Six and seven were also halved with pars, but the Colemans were not long held in check. Lester birdied the long eighth with a 4 on nine to put the California team 3 up at the turn.

Johnny came to life on the par 5 twelfth hole with a birdie to win back a hole. The next two holes were halved in pars, Fay getting a 3 at the par 4 fifteenth to again put the team three holes in the lead once more.

Sparks holed a brilliant thirty-five-foot putt on the sixteenth hole for what looked like a win, but Fay banged in a fifteen-footer to end the match.

JAY COHN HUMBLED BY MILWAUKEE RACKETER

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 24. (AP)—Frankie Parker, 14-year-old Milwaukeean, today defeated a national champion, Jay Cohn, Santa Monica, Cal., to take the title in the boys' singles at the Wisconsin State open tennis tournament here. The scores were 6-4, 7-5.

Parker is ace of the western boys' division and co-holder of two national doubles titles, Karl Kamrath, Austin, Tex., defeated Parker, 6-4, 6-3, to win the juniors' championship and then outslugged Doc Barr, Dallas, Tex., 6-1, 6-0, 5-7, 3-6, 6-1, to take the men's title.

In the doubles, Kamrath and Barr defeated Parker and Billy Schommer, Milwaukee, 6-3, 6-4, 6-3, for the men's title and Parker and Cohn teamed to win the junior championship by beating Harry Jews and Earl Tetting, both of Milwaukee, 6-3, 7-5, 6-3.

Cards Take Two Contests from Phillies

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. (AP)—Washington trounced Philadelphia, 7 to 3, today and whittled down the Athletics' lead in the American League race to seven and one-half games.

A triple by Sammy West off the centerfield fence with two men on base in the sixth inning broke a tie and settled the game. Both Walberg and Crowder were hit freely, but the latter scattered the blows. Pop bottles were thrown onto the field as the Washington team and crowd protested that Simmons had interfered with Cronin in an attempt to complete a double play.

SOX SPLIT

BOSTON, Aug. 24. (AP)—Chicago closed its last visit to Boston this year by dividing a double-header with the Red Sox. Boston won the first game, 2 to 0, and the White Sox the second, 5 to 4, in eleven innings.

Milt Gaston held the White Sox to three scattered singles in the first game while his mates were having a slightly better time with Faber, who allowed seven hits and two runs.

The second game was also a pitchers' battle, but this time Caraway had the better of Eddie Durham, the young Red Sox pitcher from the South. Jolley drove in the winning run in the eleventh.

BROWNS BEST

DETROIT, Aug. 24. (AP)—The St. Louis Browns broke Earl Whitehill's string of eleven straight victories today, taking the first of a two-game series with Detroit, 7 to 5.

Whitehill, who had defeated every other team in the league during his winning streak, was easy for the Browns, allowing thirteen hits during eight innings before he was relieved by George Uhle. Stiles, Collins and Kimsey pitched for St. Louis. Kimsey held the Tigers hitless during the two and two-thirds innings he worked and was credited with the victory. Score:

PHILS FALL

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24. (AP) — The Cardinals took a double-header from the lowly Phillies here today, 9 to 4 and 6 to 4. The Cardinals used their base hits to the better advantage. In the opener, each team collected fourteen hits, while in the nightcap the Phillies outhit the Cardinals, 10 to 9. St. Louis won all five games of the series which ended today.

Jim Lindsay, who, until recently, had been used chiefly for relief duty, went the distance in the opener for the Cardinals, but Claude Willoughby, his starting rival, lasted only an inning and a third.

SEALS WIN AND TIE WITH SUDS

Morning Game Goes Twelve Frames Without Decision

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24. (AP)—An orgy of runs saw the Seattle Indians tie a twelve-inning morning game, 6 to 6, with San Francisco and lose the extra-inning nightcap, 9 to 10, here today.

The Seals caught up with the Indians in the eighth inning of the opener by a two-run rally. Both teams went scoreless for four more innings when the game was halted by the time limit.

The Seattle club staged a four-run ninth-inning rally in the second to tie up the nightcap at eight-all. The Indians added another run in the tenth but the Seals went them one better. The visitors bagged thirty-two safeties in the two games, one less than the home team. Scores:

BUCS STOPPED

CINCINNATI, Aug. 24. (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds snapped Pittsburgh's winning streak of seven straight by winning the second game of today's bargain bill, 2 to 0, after losing the first, 9 to 6.

Kremer won his seventeenth victory of the season by pitching the Pirates to victory in the opener and also broke the Reds' string of five straight triumphs, compiled in that many games with the faltering Robins.

Ray Kolp and Steve Swetonic engaged in a tight pitchers' battle in the nightcap with Swetonic weakening in the seventh when the Reds scored twice after two were out on Swanson's double, Cuccinello's single, a walk to Heilmann and a single by Craword. Scores:

ANGELS BOW TO DUCKS, 9-6

Portland Scores Three in Tenth to Nab Opener; Time Limit Makes Nightcap No Contest

got credit for the victory, while Barfoot, the victim of the Ducks' winning rally, was lifted in the tenth for Ballou and was charged with the defeat.

Portland banged out a total of eighteen hits in the opener, nicking Peters for seven in the two and two-thirds innings he worked.

CHERUBS CRIPPLED

With both Moore and Dittmar out with injuries, the Cherubs are a crippled aggregation and figure to lose a lot of games until the two players return to action. George Harper and Johnny Rawlings replaced Moore and Dittmar yesterday and looked woefully weak both in the field and at the plate.

The Angels are now trailing the Hollywood Stars by two and a half games and are figured to have the gap widened a lot more during the next two weeks when they face the Seals and the Sheiks meet the sinking Mission Reds.

Augie Walsh and Junk Walters were the rival hurlers in the nightcap, which didn't get under way until almost 4:30 o'clock. The Seraphs bunched four hits for three runs in the first inning and the Ducks, not trying to play, let them score five more in the second round. Walters was lifted to let Lahti, a young rookie, pitch for him in this inning. The move was made to take up a bit more time and make sure that the required five innings were not played before the time limit was up.

The Ducks started in on Peters in the first inning of the opener, getting two runs on a pair of hits. French led off with a single to center and sprinted all the way around when Robertson doubled to right center. Cramer's sacrifice fly to Schulmerich moved Robertson to third from where he counted while Williams was grounding out to Jacobs.

Peters got by the second without being scored on, although he was in trouble, but the Portlanders chased the Cherub southpaw in the third when, after two were out, Rhiel and Johnson singled and Orwoll doubled for another run. Barfoot then replaced Peters and retired Palm for the third out.

In the home half of the third the Angels bunched four hits off Keating to drive across three runs and knot the count. Barfoot and Sigafoos opened the frame with hits, but Harper flied out. The runners advanced to second and third when Keating stuck out his foot to knock down Haney's rap through the box and threw Fred out at first. Schulmerich took second on the throw-in and tallied when Jacobs shot one to left for a hit. Statz walked, but Rawlings fanned for the third out.

DUCKS TAKE LEAD

Portland took the lead again in the fourth, when French and Cramer doubled for a run. Cramer's double, however, was a pop fly that Harper should have caught easily, but he loafed after it and Rawlings was unable to get to the ball. Cramer should have been the third out, so that run was a gift.

Jacobs hit one over the fence to the left of the light tower in the fifth to again pull the Cherubs up on even terms.

The Beavers forged to the front again in the sixth by shoving across a couple of runs off Barfoot. French slashed a hit off Jacobs's glove for a starter and continued when Sigafoos, who fielded the ball, threw into the runner at first. Robertson doubled over Harper's head to bring French over the plate. Cramer beat out a hit to Barfoot and Robertson took third. Williams's sacrifice fly to Harper scored Robertson. Cramer stole second but ran wild on Rhiel's fly to Harper and was doubled off second to end the rally.

The Angels got one run back in the home half of the sixth, which saw Keating make his departure. Warren walked and, after Barfoot had fanned, Sigafoos singled to left to send Dally to third. That was all for Keating, Ortman taking the mound. Warren scored when Harper forced Sigafoos at second.

Los Angeles tied it up in the eighth with the aid of some loose fielding by the Ducks. Rawlings opened the frame with an infield hit to Robertson and Skiff, batting for Warren, bunted him to second. Barfoot's sacrifice fly to French put Rawlings on third, from where he came home with the tying run, when French, Cramer, Rhiel and Johnson gathered around and let Sigafoos's Texas leaguer drop between them for what went for a double when second base was left uncovered. Harper, up for the fourth time with a chance to drive in a run, grounded out to end the inning.

Both sides threatened in the ninth, but the Ducks did better than that in the tenth, chasing over three runs to break the deadlock. French led off with his fifth hit and was bunted along by Robertson. Cramer dropped one between Harper and Rawlings for a single and French galloped over the plate with one of the three winning runs. A wild pitch, an intentional pass to Williams, Rhiel's single and Johnson's sacrifice fly made it three runs for the inning before Ballou, who had replaced Barfoot after Rhiel's hit, could get the Ducks out. UNITED STATES COPS SLOOP RACE SERIES

SEASIDE PARK (N. J.) Aug. 24. (AP)—Gaining first and third places in the final races of the series, the United States, represented by the Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing Association, defeated Canada, 42 points to 37, in the eight-race international sloop series today. It was America's first triumph in the series in four years.

The United States took a two-point lead at the end of the seventh race yesterday and added six to its total in the final race while Canada was held to three.

and a single by Frank Hogan. Jackson also singled and Roettger walked, but Fitzsimmons hit into the first of the Cubs' three double plays to end the inning.

The Cubs got the run back and another one with it in the fourth. Cuyler fanned, but Hack Wilson singled and Taylor made his first contribution, a double which sent Wilson to third. Kelly flied out, but Gabby Hartnett smashed a single to center, scoring both runners.

Bush was in trouble several times from there on to the ninth, but Cuyler leaned back into the crowd to rob Lindstrom of a double in the sixth, with Leach on, and Wilson backed into the spectators on the next play to snag Terry's booming drive. English kicked in with two fine stops, and all this help kept Bush on top until the ninth.

Terry started the ninth with a single and hiked to third on Ott's single. O'Farrell hit into a double play, but Terry came in with the tying run.

The Giants slapped Bush for eleven hits, including a double by Ott. The Cubs, however, could do little with Fred Fitzsimmons except in their scoring fourth. He gave only six hits before he was removed for a pinch batsman in the eighth, but three of them were doubles—by Cuyler, Taylor and Kelly. He fanned seven men, to three by Bush.

Today's triumph gave the Cubs nine victories over New York in nineteen games, and maintained their record of winning every series of the present home stand. The Boston Braves were beaten four times in a row. Philadelphia was beaten three times out of five and the Robins and Giants were subdued three out of four times each.

Marse Joe McCarthy's club will rest tomorrow, before breaking into a two-game series with the Pittsburgh Pirates Tuesday.

The series also accounted for a new National League attendance record for a four-game series—178,000 customers jamming Wrigley Field to displace the mark of 156,000 who watched the Brooklyn series. Score:

MARSHALL SIGNED BY LOU DARO

Young Mat Giant to Top Mat Card Planned Next for Olympic

Everett Marshall, the powerful young Coloradan, who is regarded as Champion Gus Sonnenberg's outstanding challenger in the country today, was signed by Promoter Lou Daro for one of the three star bouts planned for the Olympic September 3.

EVERETT MARSHALL

The promoter expects to sign Marshall's opponent today. He is awaiting answers to offers for the bout wired to the three wrestlers who have proven sensations in the East this year. They are Count Zaranoff, a spectacular Polish grappler who gave Sonnenberg the longest match the title-holder has ever had on the mat; "Bibber" McCoy, former Holy Cross football star and an expert with the flying tackle, and Henri De Glane, French champion.

It is the promoter's hope to get one of these wrestlers here for the next mat show to face Marshall in the feature event of the card. None of those he wired offers for the bout has ever been seen in action in this section.

BETTY NUTHALL NET WINNER

three years the crown of American women's tennis goes overseas, although the first triumph of a foreign contender was by the former Molla Bjursted, now Mrs. Mallory. Nevertheless, the popularity of the engaging British invader has been such that she was cheered to the echo by a crowd of 2500 spectators as the big championship trophy, filled with American beauty roses, was presented to her.

The crowd sympathized with the gallant efforts of the dark-haired, slim Californian, but responded with sportsmanlike spirit to the superior game and match-play ability of beaming Betty.

Except for a courageous rally in the second set, Mrs. Harper was outclassed, her defense beaten down by the sheer force of Betty's low, raking strokes.

Nervous and uncertain as she entered her first national championship final, the Californian lost the first set in the short space of fifteen minutes. She came back gallantly in the final set, only to be abruptly checked after gaining a lead of 4-2 on games and 30-love on points in the seventh game.

The American's uphill fight was marked by superb generalship and control. She angled some beautiful drives for clean placements, but lacked the stroking power to force further advantage. Betty, regaining control of her service, raced through four straight games to clinch the set and title. Miss Nuthall put over three successive and terrific service shots to pull herself out of the hole in the seventh game.

Miss Nuthall's victory was scored on her third attempt. She reached the finals in 1927, losing to Miss Wills and last year was put out in an early round by Mrs. Molla Mallory. This was the English girl's first national championship. She has never so much as reached the final round of the British tournament at Wimbledon, but she waded through the Moody-less ranks here with the loss of only one set, that to Marjorie Morrill in the semifinals.

The doubles was a seesaw affair in which the tide of fortune shifted often and rapidly. Concentrating their attack on little Miss Palfrey, the Californians, due largely to steadiness of Mrs. Harper, captured the first set easily. It was Miss Nuthall's turn to star, as she and her partner rallied to take the second set with ease.

Mrs. Harper and Miss Cross ran up a 3-0 lead in the final set, on a break through Miss Nuthall's service, but the British-American pair drew level again. The set went to deuce when Miss Nuthall's service again was pierced, in the tenth game, and it was Miss Palfrey who carried off honors in the concluding battle for points. She scored with beautiful volleys as Miss Cross's service was broken in the eleventh game. Then on her own service, the Boston girl withstood a prolonged deuce game to win after being four times at match point.

In an exhibition mixed doubles match, played after the two main bouts, Clifford Sutter of New Orleans, the intercollegiate champion, and Penelope Anderson of Richmond, Va., divided two sets with Ellsworth Vines of Pasadena, Cal., and the Baroness Maud Rosenbaum Levi of Italy. The Sutter-Anderson combination won the first set, 6-4, and lost the second, 3-6.

pionships and the men's national gymnastics titles were all won by the L.A.A.C. this summer. Four championships in the brief space of three months constitute a national record for one club. It only goes to show what fine things are being done by Leslie A. Henry and his coworkers on the board of athletic governors of the club, who are building up every sport in preparation for a great team in the Olympic Games, to be held nere two years hence.

Henry, Boyd Comstock, Charley Keppen and other club officials are undoubtedly more than merely pleased with the showing made by the track team. It was a clear-cut triumph for the Pacific Coast and a real victory for the so-called "old-timers" on the team. Of the 45 points scored in the meet, 40 were made by Mercury regulars.

Frank Holborow did the right thing when he stopped the Hawkins-Bennett bout at Hollywood Friday night because the boys were not pleasing the assembled customers. If this measure were adopted more often we might have better fights. The boys are getting paid to entertain the public, and when they cease to entertain they are no longer worth signing.

Saturday was a tough day for sprint champions. Frank Wykoff came home from his vacation to discover that he had a broken ankle. Percy Williams pulled a tendon and will probably be out of the British-American meet at Chicago this week, which is too bad, for Williams is a great sprinter. You don't have to look twice at his record to know that. Wykoff probably wishes he had gone to Pittsburgh now. Frank has had a lot of tough luck and it is to be hoped that Lady Luck will start riding with him soon.

Bumped into C. C. Pyle at the Hollywood fights Friday night. Cash and Carry is now dabbling in real estate, but still likes to talk sports. And he has a good word for Red Grange, despite the fact that the two dissolved partnership a long time ago.

"Red is likely to have his greatest year of pro football this fall," said Pyle. "The Chicago Bears will have their best team in many seasons and if Red has a line in front of him he will show fans plenty. The Bears have a new coach in a chap named Jones, who has been in charge at the Great Lakes, and Zuppke and Stagg tell me he is one of the best in the business. I hope Red has a big year. To me he is the greatest player of modern times."

Ace Hudkins goes into action again tomorrow night at the Olympic. I will never forget that April night in 1925 when the Wildcat first gained national recognition by making a sorry sight of the sheik of Los Angeles, Joe Benjamin. Ace won every round, much to the consternation of everybody concerned. Eddie Frayne, now in New York, was the lone local scribe who had the temerity to pick Hudkins over Benjamin. Ace generally gives spectators a run for their money and it's too bad from the fans' standpoint that he has grown into the big-money class, which keeps him inactive so long.

JENNINGS AGAIN WINS PUBLIC PARKS TOURNEY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. (AP)—George Jennings of Chicago, defending national public parks tennis champion, today retained his singles title by defeating Dooly Mitchell of Washington in straight sets, 6-4, 7-5, 6-1.

It was the concluding match of the tournament. The champion won largely on Mitchell's series of shots into the net. His retrieves, driving forehand and stragetic placements carried him through.

Jennings also shared the doubles title, having paired with Jack Delara, Los Angeles, yesterday to beat Tom Markey, Indianapolis, and Ed Yeomans, Washington, in straight sets.

VEGA WINS STAR-BOAT LAURELS AT NEWPORT

Billy Lyons's Vega with 44 points won the August series for star boats at the Newport Harbor Yacht Club, Jim Webster of the Southern California Yachting Association announced yesterday. The Plumb brothers' Westwind and the Moira, sailed by Hooks Beardsley, finished in a tie for second place with 40 points apiece. Jack Keith's All Star was third. The Sirius, skippered by Danny Murphy, was fourth and Tom and Rob Webster's Tom Robin was fifth.

Newport officials announced last night that Walton Hubbard, winner of the elimination series for the international star boat series, will leave Wednesday night for Chesapeake Bay. Hubbard's gold star Tempe IV has already been shipped east.

You DON'T have to be wealthy to enjoy an OCEAN VOYAGE

IT'S A MISTAKE to believe that an ocean voyage is something only to be dreamed of, craved for, by the most of us ...something only to be enjoyed by the "favored few." Practically every day great Admiral liners sail almost from our front door affording ocean voyages which are, in every sense excepting their duration, the equal of that "trip to Europe" you have dreamed of. AN AND THE LOST EMPIRE was being led off to prison, the girl, he had rescued from the treacherous at home among her female Dion Splendidus and his wife, forth in their litter to a banquet. The had come that afternoon from a family the Emperor's favor.

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

The banquet lasted until late in the night. While the guests yawned behind their hands from boredom, the Emperor Sublatus showed no sign of leaving, and none dared make any motion to go while the Emperor remained. But finally an officer arrived with a message for which Sublatus apparently had been waiting. He smiled his satisfaction.

Dion Splendidus returned home, his heart heavy with grief. He knew that the predicament in which Praeclarus found himself was due to love of his daughter. It was cruel to ask her to make such a choice. But it was for the girl to decide. When he presented the Emperor's ultimatum to her, she did not flinch. "I have a dagger," she said.

NORTH DOME OFFSETTING

Companies Drill Sections Which Require Protection

Continental Makes Shallow Production Look Good

Standard Expected to Start Another Project Shortly

Decision of the Milham Exploration Company to protect its lease on the north dome of the Kettleman Hills oil field is the result of the Pacific Western Oil Company starting operations on the same section and may eventually result in a new location by the Standard Oil Company.

Most of the drilling activity on the north dome is confined to eight or nine sections bunched together where it will require offsetting projects by the various oil companies interested. Although there is an agreement still in force that does not permit the completion of at least twenty wells for more than a year, the principal operating companies continue to make new locations as a means of preventing their respective properties from being drained.

Milham Exploration is grading location for its Continental No. 1 on the south half of the northwest quarter of Sec. 1, 22-17 and will probably be drilling ahead within a month. Pacific Western is preparing to rig up No. 12 to offset Milham's latest project which is only a short distance from the company's discovery well, the Elliott No. 1 on Sec. 2, 22-17. This well was completed in October, 1928, for 3500 barrels of high gravity oil per day and at present is flowing at the rate of 1784 barrels daily from a depth of 7236 feet. Since its completion, six other wells have been brought in that have been allowed to continue producing.

An interesting thing about the north dome of the Kettleman Hills oil field is that the Continental Oil Company's Elliott No. 12-8 on Sec. 12, 22-17 is the shallowest producer. It is putting out 3100 barrels of oil a day from a depth of 6676 feet and possibly indicates that so far the shallow sand is the best there.

On Sec. 36, 21-17 on the north dome, the Shell Oil Company's Dixon No. 1 is drilling below 4751 feet. It offsets Associated's Whepley No. 1 completed a week ago for 3500 barrels daily on the adjoining section to the west. The Petroleum Securities Company's Felix No. 1 is producing 700 barrels daily from a depth of 7276 feet and Felix No. 2 is drilling below 5846 feet. Standard's No. 65 on Sec. 29, 21-17 is drilling below 6380 feet and the company's No. 47 on Sec. 35, 21-17 is down 4234 feet.

Miley's State Consolidated Joins Empire

Announcement was made Saturday that through a merger just completed the Empire Lease and Royalty Company, with offices in the Chapman Building, is taking over the interests of the State Consolidated Oil Company, of which E. J. Miley is president. State Consolidated, back in 1911, drilled the discovery well of the Ventura-avenue oil field.

Samuel Mellon, president of the Empire organization, states that his company plans to proceed with a drilling program which calls for work on leases in several States. The company is negotiating, he says, with several other companies in the expectation of eventually bringing their royalty interests into his organization.

General Keeps Drills Active at Poso Creek

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—General Petroleum Corporation is still developing its Sill lease in the Poso Creek field. The most recent well site is Sill No. 9, located 684 feet south and 788 feet east from the northwest corner of Sec. 26, 28-27. General has rigs up on two other locations on the lease for Sill No. 7 and Sill No. 8.

General recently completed its Helsen No. 32 on Sec. 16, 27-28, in the Round Mountain area and placed it on the pump. It is doing about 200 barrels daily of 15.5 gravity oil. The depth is 1650 feet.

The company has begun a deep test in the Belridge field on Sec. 30, 28-21. The drill will seek to tap prospective high-gravity production below 5000 feet.

SMELTER FOR CUSTOM ORE

Los Angeles Men Plan Project for Kingman

Shufelt Takes Over Cerbat District Mine Groups

Gold Property Runs Into Heavy Flow of Water

KINGMAN (Ariz.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—The Kingman Refining and Smelting Corporation has filed articles of incorporation with the Arizona Corporation Commission, with $1,000,000 capitalization. Organization has been in progress for several months, with announced determination to build a custom smelter at this point. Incorporators and directors are Elmer A. Hester, William F. Engler and W. E. Little of 1614 South Flower street, Los Angeles.

Notable activity is reported in the Cerbat section, north of Kingman, where G. Warren Shufelt of Los Angeles has taken over a number of mining groups. There is inclusion of the estate of the Kingman Merger Mines, with eight patented and thirteen lode claims, property that has had large production in the past.

Mrs. W. G. O'Brien of this city has leased, under bond, to Mr. Shufelt the old O'Brien property, from which has been taken ore running seven ounces gold to the ton, as well as values in silver and lead.

Between Cerbat and Mineral Park is Bobtail Basin, wherein a vein on the Cordelia property has made a showing in gold between $20 and $300 to the ton. The mine is being worked by John M. Gross and associates.

A heavy flow of water has been struck in the working shaft of the Gold King Coalition property, twenty miles southeast of Kingman, on the way to a working level at 300 feet. The main values are in gold, though some ruby silver has been found. The company is building a number of model homes of reinforced concrete.

SAN JOAQUIN FIELDS BUSY DURING JULY

Output Runs in Excess of 5,000,000 Barrels Report of Institute Shows

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Oil production figures compiled by the Pacific Coast office of the American Petroleum Institute just released show a total of 5,020,817 barrels produced in the fields of the San Joaquin Valley during July. This was a daily average of 142,029 barrels and came from 4363 wells.

Production was derived from the following eleven fields:

Midway-Sunset, 1,983,475 barrels; Elk Hills, 556,712; Kern River, 431,958; Kettleman Hills, 417,475; Mt. Poso, 338,877; Coalinga, 286,456; Round Mountain, 116,236; McKittrick, 115,835; Fruitvale, 75,739; Lost Hills-Belridge, 68,304; Wheeler Ridge, 18,014.

During July there were six new wells brought in with a total daily initial output of 841 barrels. Kern River field completed one well with a daily output of 350 barrels. Poso Creek brought in two, doing 200 barrels; Round Mountain had one for 175 barrels, and Midway-Sunset had two doing a total of 116 barrels.

There were eleven new rigs erected during the month in the valley and there were forty-one wells under active drilling process.

Brass Plants in Market for Copper Cakes

CLIFTON (Ariz.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Frank Ayer, manager of the Morenci branch of the Phelps-Dodge Corporation, states that success has attended the copper refining methods at the local smelter, following experimental work that has been in progress for more than a year.

He stated that a carload of cast copper "cakes" shipped from the smelter to the Rome Brass Company proved to be well adapted to the brass company's needs and that they could be rolled as well as the copper that had been electrically produced.

Strong demand has materialized for this novel product, orders having been received during the past month for 500,000 pounds more than sold the month before. The Phelps-Dodge workers are the only ones of any importance operating in this district, this due to slack conditions in the copper market.

Hetch Hetchy Revenue Falls Under Estimate

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—The 1930 estimated tax rate of $4.05, 11 cents higher than that of last year, may have another 8 cents added in the opinion of Supervisor Rossi, chairman of the finance committee. Revenue from Hetch Hetchy power sales to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, estimated at $2,000,000 for the fiscal year, has fallen short of that figure by $575,000 and Rossi fears the difference will have to be balanced in the general fund.

JERGINS'S DEEP WELL BEST

Signal Hill Operator Drills Farthest with Successful Result; Unusual Depths Common Here

BY PORTER FLINT

Of all the wells drilled to obtain deeper production in proven oil fields, and in widely separated wildcat areas, the Jergins Trust at Long Beach has the most substantial producer in California.

Jergins Trust's Municipal No. 9, located near the Long Beach Cemetery in the Signal Hill oil field, was completed several months ago for an initial flow of 500 barrels of oil a day and at present is producing at the rate of 292 barrels daily from a depth of 8324 feet. Jergins also has Municipal No. 26, which is putting out 426 barrels of oil a day from a depth of 8100 feet.

To the Sovereign Oil Company goes the record of having the second best deepest producer in the strata. Its No. 3 at Signal Hill is yielding 254 barrels daily from a depth of 8283 feet. Jergins Trust drilled Municipal No. 27 to a depth of 8308 feet and, failing to obtain oil, suspended operations.

Signal Hill has twenty-eight wells that were drilled and completed at depths below 7550 feet. This group is producing 5241 barrels of oil a day, each hole averaging 187 barrels daily. Of the twenty-eight producers, the Shell Oil Company's C-No. 5 near the center of the field has the best output. It is yielding 1000 barrels of oil a day from a depth of 7674 feet.

There have been a number of deep tests in various areas in the State which have gone farther than Jergins Trust's Municipal No. 9. One of these is the Standard Oil Company's Mascot No. 1, near Taft. It went to 9629 feet, failing to produce oil, and now is suspended. The company's Saticoy-Citrus No. 5 near Saticoy went to 8530 feet without success, and the Del Amo No. 1 wildcat, originally drilled to 8500 feet in search of a connecting link between the Dominguez and Signal Hill oil fields, is preparing to drill still deeper. It has been taken over by the Tenacity Petroleum Company.

Another project which attracted attention was the Shell Oil Company's Nesa No. 11 at Signal Hill. It went to 9280 feet, but after swabbing for a long time without success was plugged back. Oscar Howard drilled his Hathaway No. 7, in the southwesterly portion of the Santa Fe Springs field, to 9350 feet, but being unable to effect a complete water shut-off plugged back to the Meyer zone for production.

Operators now believe that the Superior Oil Company's Huffman No. 1, on the northwest quarter of Sec. 29, 21-17, on the north dome of the Kettleman Hills oil field, has an excellent chance to become the State's deepest oil producer. This conclusion is based on the fact that the project has not yet penetrated the black shale which is considered an important marker. Since the black shale was encountered higher up in the Associated Oil Company's Whepley No. 1, near by, Superior's project must go considerably deeper. Yesterday it was drilling below 8240 feet, having less than 100 feet to go to reach the depth of Jergins Trust's Municipal No. 9.

A report recently issued by H. Paul Grimm clearly indicates the importance of deep sand production in the Santa Fe Springs field. The Hathaway zone, eighth to be developed there, produced 1,240,435 barrels of oil during July, leading all other zones during that period. The O'Connell zone was second with 1,075,606 barrels of oil during July. Aided by the Clarke sand, which put out 90,000 barrels during July, the three deepest zones in that field yielded nearly two-thirds of the field's total flow during July. The deepest producing well at Santa Fe Springs is flowing from a depth of 8135 feet.

Meteor Crater Again Beckons Mine Company

WINSLOW (Ariz.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—There is report that work will be resumed soon by the Meteor Crater Exploration and Mining Company near this point. It will be necessary to install heavy pumping equipment to handle the flood of water encountered below 800 feet in the shaft.

It is proposed to sink to 1400 feet and thence drift, with expectation of securing either an enormous meteoric body or its fragments, imbedded in the shattered sandstone. The work has excited much scientific interest, for surface fragments of the meteor show valuable percentages of platinum, iridium and nickel, while 92 per cent of the bulk is of iron of high quality. This metal is assumed to be buried under one of the walls of the crater, where diamond drilling has failed to penetrate, owing to the hardness of the iron encountered. For many years exploration has been conducted by a company headed by D. M. Barringer of Philadelphia. In general charge for a number of years past has been G. M. Colvocoresses, a mining engineer, now a resident of Phoenix. Walter C. Goeglein is superintendent of the property.

SURVEY FOR PIPE LINES GOES AHEAD

Company Planning to Distribute Fuel to Several Mines

GLOBE (Ariz.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive—There appears assurance that the natural gas pipe line from Eastern New Mexico will be brought directly into Globe, Miami and Superior by way of Clifton. It has not been learned whether this will be an independent line or a branch of that which is to be built to Douglas.

The main customers will be the smelters at Clifton, Miami, Hayden and Douglas. There appears to be no assurance that even Tucson or Phoenix will be included, as statement is made that a single smelting furnace will consume more gas than a large town and be much easier to supply.

The towns of Clifton, Safford, Globe, Miami, Superior, Hayden and Ray may be supplied in rather incidental fashion. Here the Arizona Edison Company probably will contract for distribution. The Texas Natural Gas Company is to build the line to this point, with its surveys already under way.

The Western Gas Company has contracted with the Phelps-Dodge Corporation to supply its smelters, mills and mines at Douglas, Bisbee, Clifton and Morenci. There is no understanding that the two contracts are in anywise associated.

Humble Drill Finds Showing in New Region

SEMINOLE (Tex.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—In a test which the Humble Oil and Refining Company is drilling in Gaines county, at a point about fifteen miles southeast of the Hobbs pool in New Mexico, a heavy showing of oil has been encountered.

The well is in hard lime at a depth of a little more than 4675 feet, as compared with the producing horizon of 4100 to 4200 feet in the Hobbs area. Several locations have been made and wells are being drilled in Gaines, Yoakum and Terry counties, all situated adjacent to the Lea county line of New Mexico.

In the Hobbs field the potential production, which is now around 200,000 barrels daily, is expected to mount to more than 500,000 barrels daily by January 1, 1931, if the present ratio of production is maintained for the remainder of the year. There are now twenty-nine wells being drilled which will be completed within the next thirty days. The proved structure has a length of about five miles north and south and a width of about one mile.

Washes Gravel to Pay Costs

PLACERVILLE, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—The Aladdin Mining Company reports that fifty mine cars of gravel are washed daily at its Rising Hope mine, three miles from Placerville. The production is stated to be almost covering expenses, with development of a large body of profitable material progressing. The gravel washed is said to average around $7 per yard. The tunnel is to be extended about ninety feet to tap the main channel.

Preliminary work has begun on the once-famous Jumper gold mine in the Stent district of Tuolumne county, according to advices from the property. The Jumper is credited with producing $6,000,000, but has lain idle many years. Good ore is said to have been exposed when high cost of labor and supplies forced former operators to quit work.

Two Holes are Ready to Spud

OILDALE, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—The Chanslor-Canfield-Midway Oil Company, with two rigs up, but no drilling jobs in the Kern Front field, is going ahead with work that may put both projects in the drilling list soon. They are Fee No. 36 and 37, on Sec. 23, 28-27.

Actual C.C.M.O. production for July was 67,686 barrels from Sec. 23, 28-27. This figure is 214 barrels less than the reported production for the month.

HOBBS HITS LIVELY PACE

Million Barrels Estimated as Daily Output

More than 300,000 from Fourteen Holes

Seventy-four Wells Running Drill Day and Night

ARTESIA (N. M.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—A probable potential production of 1,000,000 barrels of oil daily is seen for the Hobbs field within the next forty days. Prominent oil operators who have studied the conditions in southeastern New Mexico believe that the Hobbs area might be capable of producing that much oil. The potential output of this particular section has steadily mounted, notwithstanding the proration order, limiting the market output to 35,000 barrels daily for the past several weeks.

During the first fourteen days of August the potential of the Hobbs area practically doubled. In that period fourteen new producers were completed, bringing the potential up to 301,000 barrels daily from forty-two wells. There now are seventy-four wells drilling in the field.

JULY PRODUCTION GAIN

During July, seven fields in Lea county, actually produced 1,250,000 barrels of crude, operating under the proration order. This production came from fifty-nine wells. Eddy county produced 44,000 barrels during the same period from 216 wells, under proration. The total output for southeastern New Mexico in this time was slightly under 1,300,000 barrels.

The Hobbs sector has held the spotlight for several months and little attention has been paid to wildcat wells drilling in Eddy and Lea counties. Further evidence that the operating companies intend to drill up the Hobbs area in short order is indicated by the addition of eleven new wells, ten of which are adjacent to the proven field. Among the two most recent locations which have been staked, is one in the townsite of Hobbs for Midwest Refining Company. It is known as Turner No. 29. It is the second well to be located in the town of Hobbs, the first test was the Hobbs High Oil Company, Inc.'s State No. 1 on Sec. 25, 18-38. The other new location is Grimes No. 1 of the Atlantic Oil and Production Company on Sec. 20, 18-38.

Material is going in for a wildcat that will be watched closely, north of Lovington, the county seat. The test will be drilled by the Galt-Brown Company and is known as State No. 1. It is on Sec. 9, 15-35.

One of the outstanding developments during the past ten days was the showing obtained in State No. 8 of the Midwest Refining Company on Sec. 4, 19-38, at 4026 feet. It is estimated as being good for 10,000 barrels daily, 149 feet above the regular sand. The well was drilled to 4175 feet to obtain the highest potential rating.

Pipe Lines to Afford Hobbs Market Outlet

McGAMEY (Tex.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—On August 1 the total amount of crude oil in storage in the Hobbs field of New Mexico was only 185,960 barrels, leaving an unfilled tankage of 212,040 barrels. There are fifteen storage tanks in the field, ranging in capacity from 5000 barrels to 64,000 barrels. The companies having storage tanks are the Atlantic Pipe Line Company, the Humble Pipe Line Company, the Midwest Refining Company, the Shell Pipe Line Company, the Walker Oil Corporation, the Tidal Refining Company and the Tidal Oil Company. Although all the wells in the field did not become connected with pipe lines until in July, the total pipe line runs during that month was 1,024,651 barrels. Of this amount, the Humble Pipe Line Company handled 423,131 barrels, the Shell Pipe Line Company, 198,322 barrels, and the Atlantic Pipe Line Company, 403,131 barrels. If the current prorated allowable production of 35,000 barrels daily is continued, the pipe line runs will be maintained a little above the million-barrel monthly figure.

BIG ENGINE TO RUN MILL

Fifty-Ton Output Expected Under Diesel Power

Bluestone Copper Working with Diamond Drills

Kruttschnitt Given Post in Australian Mines

TUCSON (Ariz.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—At the annual meeting of the Bunker Hill-Arizona Mining Company, held at Chehalis, Wash., authorization was given for the ordering of a 165-horsepower Diesel engine, with complete electrical equipment. When this is installed there is to be started production of fifty tons of ore a day. At the head of the company is Glen Barlow of Portland. In charge at the mine is Chester L. Proebstel.

H. L. Berkey, president of the Amex Copper Company, with headquarters in Tucson, states that a sufficient number of Canario Copper Company shares have been deposited and that development of the Canario mines, near Nacozari, Son., will be started soon on a large scale by the Amex organization.

Operations are to be resumed near Arivaca by the Calizona Mining and Milling Company, which is installing new machinery. In charge of operations is J. D. Mester.

Gish Brothers report the opening of a deposit of barite of good quality in the Graham mountains, forty-five miles north of Willcox.

Ed A. Stone is in charge of development of the Bluestone Copper Company's property at Ajo, adjoining New Cornelia ground. Two diamond drills are at work developing what is stated to be a large deposit of low-grade concentrating or leaching copper ore.

Machinery has been received at the Ballas mine in the Quijotoa mountains, forty-five miles east of Ajo. This is a property at one time held by the Julian interests of Los Angeles. W. Stewart Button of Riverside, Cal., has an option on the property from the owner, Richard J. Ballas, of Tucson.

Julius Kruttschnitt, for eighteen years manager at Tucson for the Southwest Development and Exploration division of the American Smelting and Refining Company, has been appointed manager of the company's operations on the silver, lead and zinc mines in the Mount Isa section of Australia. He will leave soon for his new work. He is the son of Julius Kruttschnitt, former executive of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company.

Coolidge Dam Power May Run Mine Machines

GLOBE (Ariz.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Steel has been received for the new head frame and ore bin on the main shaft of the Old Dominion Copper Company. Erection is by the El Paso Foundry and Machine Company of El Paso, under direction of I. H. Barkdoll, general manager for the Old Dominion Company.

Announcement has been made that the United Vanadium Corporation is considering the possibility of securing electric power from the near-by Coolidge dam. Mill capacity is being increased to 100 tons a day, with machinery to be moved from a similar enterprise near Wickenburg. The additions will include a rod mill, magnetic separator and crusher.

Forty claims have been added to the forty-three claim group of the Spring Creek Leasing Company's gold-and-lead property. Development is progressing on the property, according to L. E. Foster of Phoenix, president of the company.

TERRA BELLA IS BUSY WITH DRILL

DELANO, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Terra Bella Drilling Company has location staked for its third drilling job in the new Tulare county field, near Porterville. The location is on Sec. 34, 22-27. The company's No. 1 well has finally obtained a water shut-off and the well is doing about seventy-five barrels daily of an oil running high in lubricating value.

MINE ACTIVITY AT MAGALIA

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—The old Magalia district in Butte county, embracing the Magalia, Mammoth and other historic gold-bearing channels, has become one of the most active mining sections of California. Numerous companies, including old Nevada corporations vainly striving to develop profitable producers since the collapse of the Divide boom more than ten years ago, are developing new holdings, reopening old properties and prospecting virgin territory.

The Genii Mining Company announces that it has contracted for construction of a washing plant and conveyor at its placers near Magalia, and expects to commence producing in the early fall. The washing plant will handle about 400 yards of gravel daily, and the conveyor will move debris to a canyon where the waste will be prevented from escaping to navigable streams. Cost of the plant is to be $75,000.

The Princess Mining Company is sinking a 500-foot shaft near the Genii, to be followed by comprehensive development of the Magalia channel. Powerful equipment is in place. The Aladdin, Mammoth Magalia, Kelly Hill, Din-Nutte, and several other companies are active in the district, and holdings have recently passed to control of Los Angeles, Denver, Seattle and San Francisco interests.

The Walker Mining Company, now California's leading copper producer, is milling 1600 tons of ore daily near Portola. The gold and silver carried by the ore is said to be covering most of the production cost, with copper values running as high as 10 per cent. Deep shafts are being sunk from the two-mile main tunnel to open downward extensions of the gigantic ore body, which is said to have been demonstrated for more than 2000 feet. Its width varies from ten to sixty feet.

NAVY OPENS BIDS ON ELK HILLS WELLS

Plans to Redrill and Plug Wasteful Holes to Eliminate Further Waste

Sealed bids for the work of officially abandoning thirteen wells in the naval oil reserve of the Elk Hills will be opened today at the office of the Naval Petroleum Reserves in California, at 751 South Figueroa street. The successful bidder will be required to furnish performance bond of 50 per cent of the contract price, the appropriation available amounting to $100,000.

The thirteen wells were drilled about 1910 on what is now the property of the United States Navy in the Elk Hills field. Some were on production for varying periods of time, but all have penetrated the oil and gas measures. Suspension of drilling operations left the wells in such condition that water is permitted to penetrate the oil and gas measures, and the oil and gas are allowed to escape to thief sands.

To eliminate any possibility of further damage to its valuable oil property in the Elk Hills, the Navy Department intends to redrill these wells to the original depth, and plug with cement in accordance with the usual abandonment procedure, ripping, cutting and pulling casing wherever necessary.

The work of redrilling and abandoning the wells will be performed by contract under the direction of Commander I. F. Landis, U.S.N., inspector in charge of the oil reserves. The actual work on the wells in the Elk Hills will be supervised by C. M. Nickerson, petroleum engineer assigned to the Elk Hills field.

Oil Discovery Made Known at Corpus Christi

AUSTIN (Texas) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—What is believed to mark the opening of a new and productive oil field was the bringing in of a well of 500 barrels initial flow by the Saxet Oil Company in the gas field five miles from Corpus Christi, according to reports made to the oil and gas division of the Railroad Commission. The well has a depth of 4304 feet. Gas was discovered in the Saxet field, as it is called, some time ago. Several major companies have leases in the new producing area and an active drilling program will be started, several applications for permits to drill having already been received by the Railroad Commission. The scene of the new producing well is about thirty miles southwest of the Refugio County field and the same distance northeast of t[illegible] field in Kleberg county.

Recement Job for Kern Well Testing Moist

OILDALE, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—The Standard Oil Company has recemented its Fee No. 24 well in the Kern Front field, on Sec. 15, 28-27. The casing was reset at 2102 feet. Total depth is 2334 feet.

Standard completed this project about two weeks ago, but got a flow of water. The fluid broke through an unsuccessful cement job.

WILL ABSORB GAS OF HOBBS WELL

McCAMEY (Tex.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Much of the waste gas in the Hobbs field of New Mexico will soon be turned into gasoline. Besides the casinghead gasoline plant which the Shell Petroleum Company is constructing four miles northwest of Hobbs at a cost of $750,000, the Phillips Petroleum Company will start building a similar plant of 50,000 gallons daily capacity in that field. The latter plant will require 40,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily.

GREATER SOS RANGE URGED

Navy Man Advocates Use of Short-Wave Channels

Effectiveness of Tahiti's Calls for Help Laid to Chance

Heavy Gains in Los Angeles' Europe Travel Expected

BY WAYNE B. CAVE

A radical radio departure in the interests of safety at sea is advocated by Capt. S. G. Hooper, director of Naval Communications, following the liner Tahiti's distress in the South Seas.

He urges that the present 500-kilocycle or 600-meter channel for SOS calls, with its highly limited range, be augmented by various short-wave channels affording almost limitless distance.

It was declared just chance that the Tahiti's short-range call for help was heard at all out in the Pacific fastnesses, where ships often ply thousands of miles outside of hailing distance over present SOS channels, averaging in daylight 500 miles.

Over short-wave bands, Capt. Hooper points out, the appeal for help would go out over vast distances and, with adequate watch maintained over certain channels, the present uncertainty of a call's being heard would be practically eliminated.

For two months the navy has been making tests which support Capt. Hooper's advocacy of the new channels. Owing to the international nature of radio, however, it is declared difficult to invoke the change except universally, and the proposal will be made at the next International Radio Telegraph Convention at Madrid in 1932.

PREDICTION MADE BY FRENCH LINE OFFICIAL

Los Angeles is destined to become one of the principal ports of the country for the embarkation of passengers to Europe, in the opinion of Harold G. De Golia, general passenger agent for the French Line.

"Travel from this port has become so heavy that before long it will be necessary for us to add more vessels to our Pacific-European service," he said, "this, in spite of the fleet of new ships recently placed in this service.

"Southern California's response has been highly gratifying. Since the service was installed last February all our steamers have sailed from this port with full passenger lists. It is far beyond our anticipations. Doubtless the convenience of stepping aboard a ship here and stepping off at Havre without traveling across the continent by train is the greatest appeal."

Another new passenger carrier of that line, the Winnipeg, will make her initial appearance here September 25, next, from Europe. She is the largest of the fleet, and has accommodations for ninety travelers.

George A. Armes, president of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Corporation, left here this week-end for New York to attend the opening of bids September 2, on the construction of four intercoastal passenger liners for W. R. Grace & Co., to be operated by its subsidiary, Panama Mail Steamship Company. Armes's company is expected to be one of the serious contenders for the construction. Acquirement of the contract for the Los Angeles yards, it is said, will induce more activity than since the war. The ships are expected to cost $3,500,000 or more each.

John Charles Thomas, concert artist, is due from Europe on the Hamburg-American liner Tacoma tomorrow en route to San Francisco to sign with the opera association at the Bay City in September. He is recognized as an outstanding baritone, not only in America, but at Covent Garden, London, and at La Monnaie, Brussels. He is accompanied by Mrs. Thomas. The liner was forty-eight travelers aboard, of whom seventeen cabin-class and ten third-class passengers will disembark here.

The Panama Mail liner Venezuela will arrive from San Francisco this morning and sail tonight for Central America and New York with more than 100 passengers and a capacity cargo of Pacific products aboard. Among the passengers are George Abadie, consular representative for France in Honduras; R. D. Quinland, California importer; W. A. Nowell, coffee-plantation owner in Guatemala, and C. E. News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24. (AP)—Next Wednesday will be a busy day at the Matson Line docks, with two arrivals and one sailing, the Malolo and the Manoa are due to arrive at 9 a.m., from Honolulu. The Matsonia will sail for the islands at noon.

The Malolo sails Saturday on her last round trip to Honolulu before starting her next "around the Pacific cruise," on which she is to sail from here September 20, next. During her three months' cruise the liner Wilhelmina is to be withdrawn from the Portland-Seattle-Honolulu service to cover the Malolo's run.

Fifty thousand passengers were carried between shore and ships of the battle fleet in San Francisco Bay by local launch companies during the last ten days without a mishap.

The oil is clean of water. This project is the one originally spudded in by Superior Oil Company and which, under that company's drilling, turned into a dud when the dry oil sand was struck. The latter operator turned it into one of the field's best wells.

Best Tungsten Producers Busy

The Nevada Massachusetts Company is working its plant at capacity on ores from the Humboldt and Stank mines, and reports that operations are netting good profits.

The Tungsten Products Company is adopting an improved method of treatment and plans shortly to increase its yield. A fairly strong demand for Nevada tungsten is said to prevail in eastern markets, with better prices anticipated when production of high-grade steels becomes more normal.

"TIMES" THEATER GUIDE

MOTION PICTURES

Bard's, Eighth between Broadway and Hill—"Shadow of the Law." A picture discussed pro and con, but there is William Powell.

Chinese, 6925 Hollywood — "Hell's Angels." It took Howard Hughes four years and $4,000,000 to produce the colossus of the air; and it was worth it.

Criterion, 642 South Grand — "Our Blushing Brides." A scintillating fast-moving story of the younger set with a heart throb or two from Joan Crawford.

Egyptian, Hollywood Boulevard—"Anybody's War."

Filmarte, 1228 North Vine—"Fragment of an Empire." A remarkable exposition of Russia.

R.K.O. Orpheum, Broadway at Ninth—"The Dawn Patrol." An air victory, as well as a film one. Richard Barthelmess is excellent.

United Artists, Broadway, near 9th—"Eyes of the World." A moralizing ban on hypocrisy handled as well as possible by the cast with Una Merkel.

Uptown, Western and Tenth — "Anybody's War."

STAGE

Belasco, Hill at 11th—"It's a Wise Child." A splendid cast enacts this modern treatment of an old theme. Recommended to those who take comedy with a grain of salt and lots of pepper.

Hollywood Playhouse, Vine near Hollywood Blvd.—"The Champion." A British-American comedy of much entertainment. The excellent cast stars Grant Mitchell.

SAN DIEGO PUPILS ON INCREASE

When School Opens September 2 from 1200 to 1500 More Expected

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 24.—When the public schools open here Tuesday, September 2, approximately 25,500 boys and girls will enroll for the 1930-31 term, according to the expectations of Walter R. Hepner, superintendent. This year Hepner expects an increased initial enrollment of between 1200 and 1500 pupils in the elementary, junior high schools and senior high schools, exclusive of the regular adult classes.

Providing for the increase, Hepner announced that the new and expanded school plants are in readiness and an increased staff of seventy-five teachers has been added. Of this number forty-two new teachers, including the administration staff, will be stationed in the new Herbert Hoover Senior High School. Hepner estimated that 1050 students will enroll in the new institution, greatly reducing the congested condition that has prevailed at San Diego Senior High School.

Hepner based his estimate of increase in the first month's enrollment this year upon the increases shown in the last four years. In 1926 the enrollment for September was 22,140; in 1927, 22,883; 1928, 24,332, and in 1929, 24,915. These figures do not include the enrollment in adult classes.

American Jaws Aid Archeology

CHICAGO, Aug. 24. (AP)—The gum-chewing power of American jaws is one important aid to uncovering archeological mysteries of ancient Mayan civilization in Yucatan, says J. Eric Thompson, assistant curator of the Field Museum.

America's demand for chewing gum, he says, is the impetus that sends thousands of "chicleros," or native laborers, into chicle forests for sap from which gum is made.

As these sap harvesters return with their burdens, they frequently have tales of discovery of Mayan ruins to tell archeologists.

LEGION AT REDLANDS IN LEAD

Members Back from State Convention with Prize and High Prospects

REDLANDS, Aug. 24.—Redlands Legion members are home from the State convention at Sacramento feeling fine, for they not only took first honors in their class of drum-and-bugle corps, but there is every indication that the commander next year for the State of California will be a local man.

Frank Godshall, commander of the local post, stated on his return today that H. Earl Cromas's name was most frequently heard in a discussion of the commander for next year. Cromas was chairman of the finance committee during the past year and for the first time in the history of the Legion in the State the recommendation of the committee was accepted without debate.

Godshall was named to the finance committee this year and A. B. Drake was made a member of the bond issue committee.

Also the district in which Redlands Post is placed won over the urban districts of San Francisco and Los Angeles, which made an effort to get the term of district commander increased from one year to two years.

The Redlands Drum Corps, winning in the Class B division, had a rating that was second only to the South Pasadena corps, which won in the first division. Redlands' winning is considered due to the hard work of Wilson Spoor, the drum major; Harold Melville and O. P. Thayer. Redlands fell in Class B because it has less than thirty members.

Fraternal Body Picnic Attended by Thousands

REDONDO BEACH, Aug. 24.—Twenty thousand persons attended the second annual picnic of the California State Fraternal Congress in Library Park here today. A parade in which drill teams of the assembled orders, the Municipal Band, the Daily Breeze Girls' Band and the Dokkies' Band of Los Angeles took part, opened the day's exercises.

The visitors were welcomed by Mayor May B. Hopkins, and Gov. Young, introduced by Ben B. Jones of Los Angeles, gave the principal address.

Prizes in the various events were provided by the Redondo Chamber of Commerce and the Boosters' Association.

North Carolina Plans to Raise Wild Animals

RALEIGH (N. C.) Aug. 24. (AP)—North Carolina may undertake a State farm for the propagation of fur-bearing animals.

Col. J. W. Harrelson, director of the Department of Conservation and Development, and State Game Warden C. H. England are considering the proposition, they have announced.

Although the State still realizes $2,000,000 a year from the sale of wild animal pelts, the industry has decreased considerably during the last several years. Types of valuable fur-bearers that now are extinct or have been greatly decimated would be raised on the State farm and released in sections where they once thrived.

MARINES PREFER TO BE LEATHERNECKS

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Why are marines called leathernecks? The expression is not due to the sun-tanned effect that marines acquire from too much exposure to tropical suns, but was coined several decades ago when the sea soldiers wore around their necks stiff leather collars, which were fastened at the back with a metal buckle.

These leather stocks were not only considered a smart feature of the marine uniform, but had additional advantage of making the wearer keep his head erect in the approved military manner.

The term "Devil Dog," said to have been applied to the marines by Bavarian troops during the World War, is not in good standing with the sea soldiers, who claim the epithet probably is the result of some war correspondent's imagination.

PLATICAS DE LOS LUNES

POR EL PROF. R. GUERRERO

"Al medio día", dice el articulo que estmos estudiando, "cruzan el real de la feria las sevillanitas, bien plantadas en la jaca andaluza y vestidas de corto".

La palabra "real", usada como substantivo, denota entre otras cosas el sitio en que está la tienda (tent) del rey o del general, y, por extensión, el sitio donde está acampado un ejército. Significa asimismo el campo donde se celebra una feria, y en tal sentido es como se halla usado ese término en la frase arriba citada.

Nos dice el escritor que las sevillanitas van bien plantadas; es decir, sentadas en sus jacas. Las mujeres no montan en España a horcajadas como los hombres, sino que montan a mujeriegas en sillas de amazona, que tiene un arzón lateral por sobre el cual cruza la jinete su pierna derecha. Ambos pies los lleva, pues, la mujer del lado izquierdo del caballo y suyo. El pie izquierdo lo apoya en el estribo.

Denomínase "jaca" en España el caballo cuya alzada no llega a siete cuartas, y llámase "jaca de dos cuerpos" la que, aproximándose a las siete cuartas, aunque sin alcanzarlas, es por su robustez y buenas proporciones capaz del mismo servicio que el caballo de alzada. En América no se usa la palabra "jaca".

El traje masculino corto que actualmente se usa en Sevilla consta de pantalón largo de paño ajustado de arriba y con boca acampanada, chaquetilla corta de paño adornada de trencilla negra, faja muy ajustada, camisa blanca, corbata muy estrecha, y sombrero ancho de fieltro de un tono muy discreto. De este traje han tomado modelo las mujeres que visten de corto para montar a caballo, ya sea en fiestas de tienta y cinegéticas, ya en paseos como el de la feria. Claro es que, en vez del pantalón masculino, lleva la jinete una falda de paño larga y ajustada.

"Casi todas (las amazonas sevillanas) echan pie a tierra y entran en las casetas de los Círculos a tomar el aperitivo", sigue diciéndonos el articulista de ABC. Ya hemos hablado de las famosas, típicas casetas de la feria de Sevilla. Son, en lo general, construcciones provisionales de lona y armazón de madera que levantan las familias pudientes, las sociedades, etc., para pasar en ellas los días de la feria en continua tertulia y holgorio. Los círculos (casinos o clubs) más importantes de Sevilla levantan lujosas casetas en la feria, y a ésas dice el escritor que van las señoritas a tomar el aperitivo. Debo advertir, de paso, que los puristas tachan de galicismo la voz "círculo" en la acepción de sociedad, asamblea, reunión, corporación, casino, corro, etc. Tanto Baralt como el padre Juan Mir censuran severamente ese uso, advirtiendo que los escritores clásicos no emplearon nunca la palabra "círculo" en el sentido apuntado. Ello no obstante, así se la usa en toda España y también en América.

El escritor nos asegura que las sevillanitas elegantes de hoy día entran en las casetas a tomar el "aperitivo". Las cosas han cambiado mucho, sin duda, desde la época en que yo estuve en Sevilla. Pude entonces observar que las señoras casi nunca tocaban el vino que en gran abundancia se servía en las mesas de los hoteles, y del que, en general, sólo bebían los señores. Las mujeres se contentaban con agua clara. Pero el mundo marcha, y hoy vemos a las muchachas modernas hacer muchísimas de las cosas que creíamos exclusivamente reservadas al sexo fuerte.

Huelga casi decir que "aperitivos" son todas aquellas substancias o combinación de substancias que ingiere uno para abrirse el apetito (appetizers). En sociedad, se hace uso para tal fin de una variedad casi ilimitada de licores o mezclas de licores. Ejemplos típicos de aperitivos son los variadísimos "cocktails", cuya preparación se debe a la fértil inventiva de los taberneros yanquis. Las bebidas aperitivas más enérgicas son las que contienen principios amargos, como ajenjo, lúpulo, corteza de naranja, corteza de limón, cálamo, áloes, etc. Buen ejemplo de bebida aperitiva es el "bitter" holandés, que contiene casi todas las substancias mencionadas, y que entra en la preparación de todos los "cocktails". Muy buenos aperitivos son también la cerveza y algunos de los licores fuertes. Los vinos blancos andaluces, como el jerez y la manzanilla, son muy gratos al paladar y excelentes aperitivos.

LIBRARY BOOK TEST ON RADIO

National Air Derby This Morning Over KHJ

Minstrels, Jamboree and Classics Programed

> The Times Forum, KHJ, at 1:30 p.m. Florence Cole Talbert and the Harmony Four in a Dunbar program. World wide news at 12:30, 4:45 and 10 p.m.

BY JOHN S. DAGGETT

The following bit of interesting information has been received from the Public Library of the City of Los Angeles:

"How many of the world's best books have you read? That is what the Public Library is attempting to find out by means of a contest which is being featured by its readers' radio review program on KFI. These half-hours of book reviews are broadcast regularly every Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock and are given alternately by Miss Helen Spotts, librarian of the Vermont Square branch, and by Mrs. Rhoda Williams Marshall, principal of the fiction department of the Central Library.

CONTEST STARTS TODAY

"During the contest, which begins this afternoon, as part of her program, Miss Spotts will read every other week a dramatic incident from one book chosen from a list entitled "One Hundred of the World's Best Books." Copies of this list may be obtained from the Central Library or any branch. Listeners recognizing the book from which a passage is taken, are urged to send the title with their name and address to the library. Mrs. Marshall will announce the title of the book on the following Monday, with the names of those sending in correct answers."

These periods should prove interesting as well as educational.

MONDAY WITHOUT BLUES

KHJ at 11:30 this morning will bring from Chicago the National Air Derby. These are the Marine Corps air races and among the broadcasting features will be the sound effects created by the crowds and airplane motors. At 4 this afternoon, Henry Burbig's Syncopated History comes over CBS in entertaining burlesque of historic episodes. A male quartet and orchestra will be additional features. At 6 tonight Guy Lombardo's Orchestra sends a repertoire of new numbers for which he predicts popularity. A male quartet will offer a medley of University of California songs.

For lovers of concert music, dial at 7 for the Inglewood Park half-hour—Raymond Paige's baton will offer gems from Friml, Victor Herbert and Zamecnik. For insanity simple but funny and sometimes musical—the Blue Monday Jamboreedors from 8 to 10 from KFRC. Tonight they dedicate their period to the fire department. "Fireman, save my child" will ring from the ether rafter.

CLASSICS FROM KFI

KFI at 6 offers over NBC a varied list of classics, including two of Kreisler's loveliest Viennese airs, "Liebesfreud" and "Liebeslied." Massenet's "Last Dream of the Virgin" and a harp solo by Salzedo will be other highlights. Another promising half-hour of music are the Pacific Serenaders at 9 p.m. with Eva Garcia conducting. Jascha Veissi, violinist of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra and concert master of Standard Symphony, has made the string arrangements. "Gypsy Son" in a special arrangement for three violins is but one of the highlights.

KECA on its NBC Family Party at 5:30 tonight celebrates the independence of Uruguay with native songs of that country. At 8 p.m. "folks who like their entertainment filled with plenty of hokum" should listen to the Cotton Blossom Minstrels—with end men and everything.

WATANABE AS SALESMAN

KNX for noon concert music—with the Hungarian Ensemble from 12 to 12:30. For a laugh, Frank Watanabe trying to sell books at 6:15 p.m. while 9 offers a male quartet singing songs, including "Lucky Me, Lovable You" and "Go Home and Tell Your Mother." The Piano Twins will also be on this period.

KMPC points to Ray Howell's recordings program from 10 to 12 tonight—Ray will feature songs and patter of the South.

Recent Agreement will Expedite Movement of Metals

MONTERREY (Mex.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Mining and smelting interests of Mexico, the National Railways of Mexico, the steamship lines, the stevedores and business men of Tampico have gotten together and solved the differences that have existed for some time, and which resulted in all exports of metals from this country, that had heretofore been passing through Corpus Christi, Tex. Under the new agreement the National Railways and the ocean shipping lines have reduced their rates on metals, the stevedores have accepted a slight increase of wages and the co-operation of business men of Tampico in the prompt movement of such exports have been promised. The metal exports during the last few months have been an important item of the shipments through Corpus Christi. The movement was principally from the Monterrey and Chihuahua districts, and was over the National Railways to Laredo thence over the Texas-Mexican Railroad, which is also a part of the National Railways System, to Corpus Christi.

QUICKSILVER MINE YIELDS NICE PROFIT

Fifteen Per Cent Dividend Paid by Nevada Property on August 19

LOVELOCK (Nev.) Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—The Nevada Quicksilver Company distributed a stock dividend of 15 per cent to stockholders on August 19. The company is producing heavily from its Juniper and Montgomery mines in the Antelope Springs field, thirty-five miles from Lovelock, and reports a large reserve of profitable ore in sight. Recent work at the Montgomery property has been particularly satisfactory.

A small mill has been installed on the Auburn mine near Mill City and will go into commission on dump ores about September 1. The Auburn is one of the oldest gold producers of Nevada, and old workings are said to contain large amounts of commercial ore.

The Nevada Consolidated Mines Company has announced plans for extensive development of a group of gold claims in the Barret Springs section, tributary to Winnemucca. The main shaft is to be sent to a depth of 500 feet, powerful equipment installed, and a dependable water supply developed. Plans are being made for a fifty-ton flotation mill. The property has produced excellent ore, and orebodies are said to be showing improvement with depth.

CITY NEWS—EDITORIAL—SOCIETY—THE DRAMA

TO THE STAY-AT-HOMES

The outcome of tomorrow's primary election depends on that element of the electorate in Southern California that ordinarily remains away from the polls.

And it must be remembered that, so far as the Governorship and all other partisan offices are concerned, tomorrow's election will be final in its results. California is overwhelmingly Republican and, with the negligible chance of an occasional upset, the Republican nominee for each partisan office will inevitably be elected in November. Fitts, Rolph and Young are all candidates for the Republican nomination. Only one of the three can be nominated; the other two will be eliminated. Tomorrow is Southern California's last chance for four years to put a Southern Californian in the Governor's chair.

Registration for the primary election throughout California totals 2,187,474.

Few informed individuals will deny that the fight for the governorship has settled down to a question of whether Southern California is to have more equitable recognition in State government or the old rule of electing Northern California politicians is to be maintained.

Southern California has the bulk of State votes. Southern California has a candidate. The result is up to the voters of Southern California.

The registered vote for the forty-eight Northern California counties is 1,066,927, and for the ten Southern California counties, 1,120,547. If the two geographical sections voted in the same general ratio there would be little doubt as to the outcome; the Southern California candidate, Buron Fitts, would win.

But the relative voting strength of the north and the south in former elections shows that Northern Californians go to the polls in comparatively greater numbers than their southern neighbors.

THIS DISPARITY OF VOTING PERCENTAGES IS BEING DEFINITELY RELIED UPON BY THE SUPPORTERS OF GOV. YOUNG OF BERKELEY AND MAYOR ROLPH OF SAN FRANCISCO. SOME OF THE SUPPORTERS OF THE NORTHERN CANDIDATES ACTUALLY ARE BOASTING THAT THE VOTE OF LOS ANGELES COUNTY—APPROXIMATELY ONE-THIRD OF THE STATE'S TOTAL—NEED NOT ALARM NORTHERN CAMPAIGNERS BECAUSE LOS ANGELES VOTERS WILL NOT GO TO THE POLLS IN SUFFICIENT NUMBERS TO ENDANGER NORTHERN CALIFORNIA CANDIDATES.

The most cynical and outspoken critic of Southern California voters' apathy is Will C. Wood, Gov. Young's bank superintendent, and one of the directors of the administration's political destinies.

In the opinion of Wood: "The Republican vote in Los Angeles county and its effect on the results of the primary has been greatly overestimated." He gives as his reason for so concluding the statement that: "Los Angeles never has cast more than 50 per cent of her Republican registration in any previous gubernatorial primary election." He points reassuringly to Northern California's record of more than 60 per cent vote.

If Wood's estimate of Southern California voters is correct, the more than 100,000 advantage this section has over the registration in the north will be wiped out, as 50 per cent of the 1,120,547 voters of Southern California totals 560,273, and 60 per cent of Northern California's voting strength of 1,066,927 is 640,155. These totals are for all parties, but the general average applies alike to Republicans, Democrats, Socialists and Prohibitionists.

HERE IS A CHALLENGE TO THE SELF-RESPECT AND TO THE LEGITIMATE SELF-INTEREST OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA CITIZENSHIP.

Apparently reliable straw ballots through the State show that Mayor Rolph of San Francisco will carry the north by a considerable plurality, and that Dist.-Atty. Fitts is the favored candidate in his own section of California. The gubernatorial election is not a sectional battle so far as it relates to any intention on the part of Southern California to inflict reprisals on the north for the long succession of Northern Californians in office, including the governorship, but it is obviously divided, section against section, between a northern candidate and a southern candidate. Every indication points to the elimination of Young as a formidable contender.

HENCE, BY STAYING AT HOME ON ELECTION DAY THE REGISTERED NONVOTING ELEMENT IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA WILL DO AS MUCH TO ELECT A NORTHERN CALIFORNIA GOVERNOR AS WILL THE NORTHERN CALIFORNIANS WHO GO TO THE POLLS AND VOTE FOR HIM.

IN THIS FINAL SUMMARY OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION AS IT RELATES TO THE VITALLY IMPORTANT GOVERNORSHIP RACE THE TIMES URGES UNIFIED SUPPORT FOR BURON FITTS AS A WORTHY REPRESENTATIVE BOTH OF SOUTHERN AND OF NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.

LET SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, BY AN UNPRECEDENTED EXPRESSION OF ITS ELECTORATE NAME A SOUTHERN CALIFORNIAN AS OUR NEXT GOVERNOR!

AL G. BARNES NEAR DEATH

Al G. Barnes, one of the country's foremost showmen, suffered a relapse yesterday in his fight against lobar pneumonia in the Roosevelt Hospital, and was reported to be in a serious condition.

Questioning of hospital attaches revealed that Barnes's condition was "not so good." In reply to questions concerning the report that the circus man would leave the hospital within two weeks, it was said "he may not be discharged at all."

RECONCILIATION DENIED

She denied that she and Barnes, whose legal name is Alphonseus George Stonehouse, are reconciled, but that "we are very good friends." Mrs. Barnes was awarded custody of the couple's three children, the

M'PHERSON FACE SCARS DENIED

Scores of Followers Stand Guard at Beach House

Doctor Says Patient May be Moved in Day or So

That the face of Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, shows no scars from a recent beautifying operation was the formal statement yesterday by F. C. Winters, business manager of Angelus Temple, and S. C. Caldwell, secretary of the church board.

Formal announcement of the findings of the two Temple leaders was made following their personal visit to the seaside cottage where the evangelist is recuperating and their careful examination of both sides of the face, back of the ears, under the hair and removal of the ice bag on top of the head.

READY TO TAKE OATH

As the two Temple lieutenants emerged from the beach cabin, following their visit to the sick room and half an hour of detailed scrutiny, Winters said:

"I am ready to make an affidavit or swear on my death bed that there are no scars on Sister's face anywhere, and I am satisfied there has been no such operation as has been reported."

Scores of guards from the Temple surrounded the McPherson beach home yesterday to prevent the curious disturbing the evangelist and Deputy Sheriffs Pride and Box were detailed to the beat in front of the cabin to keep traffic on the highway moving. Motorists caused several traffic jams by stopping to get a view of the haven.

SHE SITS UP IN BED

Mrs. McPherson was able to sit up in bed almost all day and discussed with her physician, Dr. Edward H. Williams, nerve specialist, plans for leaving the beach cottage and seeking more quiet and rest at a mountain retreat. The move will come today or Tuesday, according to Dr. Williams, and will not be a journey of mystery or a flight through the night.

"I discussed with Mrs. McPherson," Dr. Williams said, "the advisability of her taking a brief trip to some quieter place. We agreed that a visit to a more secluded spot, away from the tumult and noise of the heavy traffic along the highway day and night would be beneficial.

"She will not be spirited away, and the trip may be made Monday or Tuesday if conditions warrant."

Mrs. Minnie (Ma) Kennedy, mother of the evangelist, spent a quiet day at the sanatorium, where she is recovering from a broken nose, assertedly received in a fisticuff with her daughter. She reiterated her announcement that she expects to force payment of her hospital bills by her daughter through court action if necessary.

Unreserved confidence in Mrs. McPherson was expressed by the Temple membership yesterday at the morning service when a formal resolution was adopted by the congregation. The resolution pointed out that the Temple pastor "is suffering from a nervous breakdown caused through overwork and the great strain of multiplicity of pastoral duties" and has recently been exposed to some unfriendly criticism.

DEATH AVERTED BY MIRACLE

Baby Carried Mile by Hit-Run Driver

Officer Stewart and Baby Ygnacio Parin

WRENCHED from the arms of a woman who was struck while standing in a pedestrian safety zone by a hit-and-run driver, a 2-year-old baby was last night carried for one mile either on the bumper or in the tonneau of the wildly careening automobile before the fleeing driver discovered it and tossed the child uninjured to the sidewalk.

The baby was Ygnacio Parin and was in the arms of Mrs. Barbara Lopez, 47 years of age, 2510 Aliso street, when the latter in company of Miss Agnes Lopez, 23; David Lopez, same address; Joseph and Albert Peguero, 643 Molten avenue, were standing in a safety zone at North Main street and Avenue 19 and were struck by an unknown motorist who drove away at a high rate of speed without stopping.

All five adults were knocked to the pavement, suffering painful but not dangerous injuries, but when Mrs. Lopez sought the infant it could not be found. At the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where the injured were treated, the group reported the child missing with the supposition that it had been entangled in the bumper of the car and carried away.

Shortly after the arrival of the injured at the hospital Rosendo Palomino walked into Central Police Station with the child and said he had found it crying in the yard of his home at 623 North Figueroa

WILLIAMS LAST RITES TOMORROW

Services in Hollywood for Business Association Aide and World War Major

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow at 10:30 a.m., in the chapel of Gates, Crane & Earl, 1724 Highland avenue, for Maj. Harry Nye Williams, World War veteran and, for a number of years prior to his death assistant treasurer of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association of Los Angeles.

Maj. Williams died Saturday at his home in the Havenhurst Apartments, Hollywood, following an illness which became acute only a few days ago. He was born in Cincinnati July 13, 1870, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis D. Williams.

Much of his boyhood was spent at Falmouth, Mass., on Cape Cod. After graduating from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston, he devoted himself for many years to transportation problems, having been for a considera-

GRAVES OFFERS HIGHWAY PLANS

Supervisor Proposes Scheme to Relieve Property

Government Traffic Survey First Move Suggested

Gasoline Tax Increase to Provide Needed Funds

Sidney T. Graves, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, is making a study of a better method of financing of major traffic highways in Los Angeles county, including incorporated cities, which contemplates the appropriating in an equitable and scientific way of gasoline and license-tax funds to pay the cost and relieve property owners of the burden of special assessments.

According to the Supervisor there is a lack, at present, of reliable information relative to the origin, destination and classification of traffic.

SURVEY ASKED

"The United States, through its Bureau of Public Roads, has made surveys in seven States and has mapped out a financing program which calls for taking gasoline and license-tax funds to pay the cost of constructing main traffic arteries," said Graves.

"By such a survey of traffic it is possible to pay the cost of paving these main arteries and relieve the property owner of special assessments.

"I believe a similar procedure in Los Angeles county would be a step forward and would provide a more equitable method for the construction of our main highways in the county and in incorporated cities of the county."

Graves's plan contemplates three steps:

PLAN PUT FORTH

(1.) That a comprehensive survey of traffic be made with the assistance of the United States government Bureau of Public Roads, which will ascertain and set forth the origin and destination of traffic loads as now carried on our existing highway system; the classification of traffic; the ascertaining of street capacity during peak loads and the preparation of diagrams and charts setting forth the findings of such a survey.

(2.) The preparation and official adoption of a highway plan to be designed under the supervision of the Los Angeles County Regional Planning Commission.

(3.) As a result of the findings of the traffic survey the preparation of a five-year highway construction program, using gasoline and license tax funds, which are returned to the county by the State in proportion to its automobile registration.

INCREASED GAS TAX

"If the gasoline tax," the Supervisor continued, "were increased 1 cent, providing the revenue obtained from the increase is returned to the cities in proportion to their automobile registration, there should be sufficient funds available each year to pay the entire cost of paving all major highways throughout the county, including incorporated cities.

"These funds, if applied on the basis of a scientific traffic survey, would each year construct all the roads needed in proportion to the

Costumes Described

Jeanette MacDonald, Clara Bow, Jean Arthur and Mary Brian displaying studio creations of the latest in women's fashionable costumes.

THAT film fashions, plus discretion and intelligence, will give the modern woman a true style beacon is the belief of Travis Banton, creator of Paramount fashions.

However, he warns against succumbing to the lure of a gown that is conspicuous and out of place, as he holds that there is no failure quite as bitter as the frock that is conspicuously out of its stratum, no matter how costly the materials or how lovely the design may be.

"The theatrical effects in costuming are no longer tolerated by the motion-picture industry," he said, "unless the story situation demands such trappings. The simplicity of true elegance is recognized both on and off the screen."

A gown of white crepe trimmed with crystals and fringe worn by Jeanette MacDonald, Paramount player, is one of the beautiful creations of the season. It is the belief of Banton that crystals and fringe will form a fashion duet this year. Street styles will be jaunty this year, he declares, and shows Clara Bow to prove it. The gown is of dark blue crepe and is fashioned into jacket and pleated skirt, contrasted by a blouse of white satin and a cluster of red, white and blue carnations.

Pink and black is a surprise combination worn by Mary Brian, appearing in Paramount productions. Her dinner costume of the latest mode is described as being of flesh souffle enhanced with inserts of black lace and skirt terminated with a stiffened edge of lace, giving a bell-shaped silhouette.

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

ONE of the historic shrines of California stands in a lonely little graveyard in Foxen Pass, up the valley from Santa Maria.

It is the grave of Benjamin Foxen, the Englishman who saved Fremont from massacre.

Over the grave stands a marble shaft shaped like a broken mast of a ship. The inscription is: "Benjamin Foxen—born in England in 1796; died February 19th, 1874."

SAVED FREMONT

Foxen had been a sea captain of fiery temper who came here in the very early days. He had a ranch just off the present State highway between Los Olivos and Santa Maria.

Through one of his native servants he had heard of the plan of the California troops to waylay Fremont in Gaviota Pass, just where the bridge now crosses the little creek. Although he was taking his life in his hands, he informed Fremont and guided the little American army up Foxen Canyon and into Santa Barbara across San Marcos Pass. It was a terrible march. The soldiers had to swing the artillery over the chasms by ropes.

Fremont arrived in Santa Barbara on Christmas morning when everybody was in church and captured the place without firing a shot.

Foxen was persecuted for years by the native Californians. His house was burned and he finally had to move away for a time.

THE MEMORIAL

SEA CAPTAINS' FEUD

Many stories are told about Foxen.

He had a shipmate with whom he engaged in a perpetual feud. This old captain landed one day in San Luis and asked for the whereabouts of Foxen. "Tell him," he said with a snort, "that I can lick him."

When Foxen heard of this defiance he promptly sent back word for his ancient rival to come out to the ranch and get his block knocked off.

The old sea captain promptly started for the scene to renew the ancient battle.

It happened that the time was winter and it was a winter of torrential rains. Before he could get to the ranch the river was in flood and he couldn't get across.

Foxen, who had come down from the ranch, stood on one side of the flood; his ancient enemy on the other and they bellowed threats at each other across the roaring torrent.

DEAD MEMORIES

Foxen gave the land where he is now buried, but for some reason neglected to give a deed. In the process of time all the land in that part of the valley—including the old church with bleak broken windows and a broken cross, came to be in litigation.

The acre of the dead is overgrown with weeds and sun-shriveled plant life. Here and there among the dead grass is a tombstone marking the last resting-place of some old Spanish pioneer. In a far corner, the broken mast, standing stark and white in the summer sun, is the station of old Benjamin Foxen—glaring and defiant—the grave of the brave old Englishman who saved Fremont and so saved California.

COUNTY BUDGET DECISION TODAY

Tax Rate Not Expected to be Changed, However

A final budget for Los Angeles county for the coming fiscal year, carrying approximately $58,339,939, if no more cuts are made, is expected to be adopted by the Board of Supervisors at a regular meeting today. This will be followed by the fixing of the tax rate for general purposes by the board on September 2. next.

Despite the fact that the expected budget for the coming year $2,091,263 more than adopted in 1929-1930 and a greatly reduced assessed valuation on property, cutting short tax revenue, the board hopes to keep the county tax rate for general purposes down to 88 cents on the $100 of assessed valuation of property, the same as last year.

The increased figure in the budget, is pointed out, will be overcome by revenue, other than taxes, the county will receive during the coming year. One item alone is the sale of the old Hall of Justice Building to the city for $217,000. It is being razed in the extension of Spring street.

The preliminary budget for 1930-1931 asked for $62,729,789, of which $51,742,025 was for general county funds, the figures on which the tax rate is fixed. The balance of $10,987,764 represents the total of special county funds.

During a series of conferences held last week a total of $4,389,850 was slashed from the tentative budget. The General Hospital received the largest cut, amounting to $1,040,726.

The big reduction was made possible largely by, eliminating proposed expenditures for a new nurses' home at the General Hospital, new infirmary buildings at the county farm, a new service building at Juvenile Hall and other buildings and improvements.

KELP DRAGS DOWN MAN UNDER EYES OF FAMILY

While his wife and two children looked on helpless from shore, Sam Millazzo, 28 years of age, a laborer of 2165 Tenth street, San Pedro, fought a losing battle in a tangle of kelp off White Point, west of San Pedro yesterday.

Millazzo, looking for abalones, was swept off outlying rocks by a wave into a bed of kelp. In attempting to swim through the wave-lashed plants his body became entangled and he sank exhausted.

Three Los Angeles friends, Marion Burrios and Wilbur and William Sherman, leaped in to his aid but could not tear him from the clutches of the plant. William Sherman also collapsed in the struggle and had to be helped ashore.

A boat finally was impressed to gain Millazzo's release, but life guards from Cabrillo Beach and a fire department inhalator squad failed to resuscitate him. The body was taken to Palm & McLin's undertaking parlors, San Pedro.

DISABLED BY WAVE, SWIMMER DROWNS

LAGUNA BEACH, Aug. 24. (Exclusive)—Disabled when struck by a heavy wave, Mervin Bennett, 19-year-old youth of Monrovia, was drowned while swimming this afternoon about three miles east of the beach here.

Young Bennett, son of Mrs. W. W. Horton of Monrovia, was an excellent swimmer and with another youth and two women was enjoying an afternoon in the surf.

When Bennett was struck by the huge wave, Faye Carmack, 1002 South Mayflower street, Monrovia, one of his companions, went to his aid. He struggled and held her so tightly that she was forced to fight for her release, and was only able to save herself.

The body was recovered in a short time but efforts to revive the youth were futile. An inquest will be conducted tomorrow. The body is at the Minter & Dickson funeral home.

increased traffic burden without necessitating the assessing of any of the cost on abutting property.

"The burden would then be carried entirely by the traveling public, who use the highways, and the special assessment problem, with which all cities in this State are confronted, would be forever alleviated."

STATE RATES LISTED

Supervisor Graves then pointed out that the gasoline tax in States is as follows:

Alabama, 4 cents; Arizona, 4; Arkansas, 5; California, 3; Colorado, 4; Connecticut, 2; Delaware, 3; District of Columbia, 2; Florida, 6; George, 6; Idaho, 4; Illinois, 3; Indiana, 4; Iowa, 3; Kansas 3; Kentucky, 5; Louisiana, 4; Maine, 4; Maryland, 4; Massachusetts, 2; Michigan, 3; Minnesota, 3; Mississippi, 5; Missouri, 2; Montana, 5; Nebraska, 4; Nevada, 4; New Hampshire, 4; New Jersey, 2; New Mexico, 5; New York, 2; North Carolina, 5; North Dakota, 3; Ohio, 4; Oklahoma, 4; Oregon, Pennsylvania, 4; Rhode Island, 2; South Carolina, 6; South Dakota, 4; Tennessee, 5; Texas, 4; Utah, 3 1-2; Vermont, 4; Virginia, 5; Washington, 3; West Virginia, 4; Wisconsin, 2, and Wyoming, 4.

Thousands Seek Golf Name Prize

More than 20,000 suggestions have been submitted in the contest being sponsored by builders of the new miniature golf course at Fourth street and Vermont avenue to obtain a name for the links, it was announced yesterday. Ballots have been sent not only from all sections of the city but from many outlying communities as well, each one constituting a bid for the $100 prize to be awarded the winner.

The course, measuring forty-five holes in length, is known tentatively as Caliente Golf Park. It is nearing completion and will be opened formally September 1, next.

Mary and Doug to Open Course

Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford will dedicate Mary's new golf course by playing the first foursome with another screen couple, the match to be described in a broadcast of the opening ceremonies over station KFWB from 8:30 to 9 p.m. Friday with other celebrities of the screen appearing before the "mike."

A large group of friends of the star have been presented with invitational cards to the new greens.

The course is located at Wilshire and La Cienega boulevards on property which Miss Pickford has owned for five years.

NONSTOP AVIATORS ON TIPTOE

Signals of Weather Man Being Awaited by Group in Dash to Chicago

Their planes all set to go and "on the line" at Los Angeles Metropolitan Airport, three contestants in the nonstop air race to Chicago, last night depended on the weather man for their starting-time.

Late reports from the Middle West indicated that the pilots will not get away before tomorrow morning. Although meteorologists stated that the weather is clear, Pilots Schoenhair, Wiley Post and Bill Brock feared that head winds would cut down the average of nearly 200 miles an hour they expect to make on the 1725-mile jump.

These three were at Metropolitan yesterday, putting their trim ships through last-minute speed tests for the air battle that will net first-place winner $7500 and second place $4500.

Meanwhile mechanics were working double shifts to get Art Goebel's plane completed. He probably will test-fly it tomorrow. Roscoe Turner, the fifth entry, has been ill, but his ship is ready and he plans to rest as long as possible before heading for Chicago.

All five pilots have the choice of starting at any time during the next eight days with the stipulation that they arrive at Curtiss Airport, Chicago, between 10 a.m. and 7 p.m., central standard time.

The five racing-craft are commercial Lockheed monoplanes, manufactured in Burbank, equipped with special gasoline tanks of 500-gallon average capacity.

Larry Terkelson and Joe Nikrent will officiate at the race start as representatives of the National Aeronautic Association. The dash is scheduled to end during progress of the 1930 National Air Races.

Water in City Pool Clarified

Complaint about the dark color of the city water in the new Fernangeles swimming pool has been removed by the Bureau of Water and Power, according to a report to the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department.

The bureau, by treating the water with chemicals, has changed the dark colored liquid to water which is now sparkling and clear, according to Supervisor Berniker.

Work on the new Reseda Park pool is about 67 per cent complete, according to Berniker. Indications are that it will be finished by the end of the month.

The City Council has referred to the Finance Committee a request that $200 be appropriated for the purchase of two tear-gas guns, ammunition and gas bombs.

THREE NEAR DEATH IN ACCIDENTS

Small Child Dropped by Mother In Avoiding Auto Hit and Car Speeds Away

Three persons were probably fatally injured last night in traffic accidents including the serious injury to a 7-months-old infant who was dropped to the pavement as the mother jumped to avoid a speeding automobile.

The baby was Donna Mae Donersq and was in the arms of her mother of the same name, 1442 Durango street. The mother was crossing Pico street at La Brea avenue when a motorist drove so close to her that she jumped and dropped the child. The baby was treated at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital for a depressed skull fracture and was not expected to live. The driver of the automobile fled without stopping.

Louis Machenberg, 60, 2716 Pomeroy street, received a possible skull fracture when he was struck first by a motorcycle ridden by Addis Calvin, 124 West Avenue 30, and then by an automobile driven by H. B. Harmon, 1231½ East Seventy-seventh Place. In addition to the skull fracture the victim's right leg and arm were broken.

Jack Missuri, 23, 518½ South Gage street, was treated for a skull fracture received last night when the automobile in which he was riding and which was driven by Sam Perrino, 3017 North Main street, collided with another driven by Joe Blanco, 1203 Elysian Park Drive, at the intersection of Sunset avenue and Bunker Hill street.

RALLY LED BY SUNDAY HERE ENDS

With a capacity audience of 5000 persons in attendance Rev. William A. (Billy) Sunday, evangelist, closed the thirty-ninth annual rally of the Union Rescue Mission in Bible Institute Auditorium last night.

Dr. Sunday, speaking in the afternoon and evening, based his night sermon on "How Los Angeles Can be Brought to Jesus Christ."

The address followed a series of testimonials by persons who declared their lives were changed from dereliction to good citizenship through the work of the mission, 226 South Main street.

Contributions to be used in support of the mission—not a member of the Community Chest—during the year were collected.

Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. (Ma) Sunday, who appeared with her husband on the platform last night, will leave today for their ranch, near Hood River, Or., for a week's rest before going to the Middle West to open a revival campaign.

Barnes's first wife, of 1403A San Fernando Road, Glendale, when informed that her ex-husband was in a possible dying condition, said: "I don't know anything about it; don't know anything about him and don't know how old he is."

Meanwhile efforts to locate Dr. L. D. Hollingsworth, in charge of the case, were unavailing.

Barnes was admitted to the hospital on the 15th inst. His progress was reported as favorable until yesterday.

He was injured seriously here two years ago when a zebra he was leading became frightened and dragged him, also inflicting bites on his arms and shoulders.

Barnes sold his circus to the American Circus Corporation for more than $1,000,000 in January, 1929. Eight months later John Ringling announced that he had purchased the Barnes show, along with four others.

Since retiring as head of his circus, which now is on the road, Barnes has devoted his time to the real estate business.

He is one of the most colorful figures in American circus history and his name has figured prominently in the amusement world for thirty-five years.

GAIN MADE BY CHANEY IN ILLNESS

Star Spends Restful Night After Third Transfusion and Chats with Wife

Slight improvement in the condition of Lon Chaney, screen character actor, who was reported near death Saturday, was announced from St. Vincent's Hospital yesterday by his attending physician, Dr. John C. Webster.

Chaney was reported to have spent a restful night, following his third transfusion of blood which was administered late Saturday afternoon. He awoke yesterday in better spirits than for several days and chatted briefly with his wife, who has been at his bedside constantly ever since his condition became serious.

Despite his turn for the better, a close watch is being maintained by his physician and nurses until the critical stage is past.

The actor recently returned from New York, where he went to consult specialists and undergo a course of treatment for a throat disorder. Previously he suffered a severe attack of pneumonia which left him in a weakened, rundown condition. Physicians diagnosed his malady as anemia and ordered him to the hospital for blood transfusions. The first injection was administered several days ago, and on Friday, when his condition became alarming, it was decided further transfusions would be required. The third, when a quart of blood was given, turned the tide in the actor's favor.

POLITICS

THE WATCHMAN

Trend of Political Thought and Action

—BY THE SENTRY ON HIS BEAT—

The Buron-Fitts-for-Governor Club of Glendale reports that a straw vote in ten precincts out of 116 gives Fitts 973; Rolph 117, and Young 92.

Latest indorsements reported by Supervisor John R. Quinn, candidate for the Fourth District, include those of the Long Beach Boulevard Improvement Association, the People's League of Torrance, the Citizens' Progressive League of Hawthorne and the Federated Voters of Los Angeles Amusement Organizations. Mr. Quinn has been indorsed by sixty-three organizations.

"California homes must be relieved of the burden of excessive taxation. Our beaches must be preserved for our citizens and this can be accomplished by making them public parks. Southern California must have her rightful representation in both State and Federal legislatures. For these and many other reasons it is imperative that we elect a vigorous Attorney-General," declares Charles A. Son, candidate for Attorney-General.

With the united support of dry organizations throughout Los Angeles county, and with the indorsement of many other law-enforcement bodies and prominent residents of the county, assurance is growing that Capt. Clyde Plummer, candidate for Sheriff, will be on the ticket in the November election. Capt. Plummer has received the unanimous indorsement of the Anti-Saloon League of California. This indorsement is based on his record, his character and his twenty-one years of actual experience as peace officer in California. In a statement issued in conjunction with this indorsement, Dr. Arthur H. Briggs, State superintendent of the league, stated, "He has courage, personal probity, experience and common sense, a combination that is not easy to find. I sincerely hope that the forces who desire strict law enforcement will unite and cast their ballots for Clyde Plummer for the office of Sheriff of this county."

The ex-heavyweight world champion, Jim Jeffries, has indorsed Frank M. Smith for Attorney-General. Jeffries has taken a personal interest in the campaign and put a punch back of Frank Smith that should land him in the Attorney-General's chair. Dan Tobey and Joe Pirrone, well known in sporting circles, also heartily indorsed Smith.

Because there are two Valentines in local legal circles many voters are confused as to who's who in the election tomorrow, it is revealed.

Judge Frederick C. Valentine cleared up the confusion with the announcement that his term of office has not expired, and, consequently he is not running for reelection. He felt a public statement was needed in view of the fact that another man with a similar name, Dudley Valentine of Municipal Court, is a candidate against Judge Hugh J. Crawford for office No. 8 in Superior Court.

Victory for Judge John L. Fleming next Tuesday among their own race, is predicted in the Chinese-American Citizens' Alliance indorsement highly praising the record established by the jurist during his seven years as a Superior Court judge, it was announced yesterday. The Los Angeles Civic League group notes that Judge Fleming during his tenure of office has been without a fault, and over the signature of its chairman, Ray Kleinberger, states that no other person could fill the office better.

The Northwest Anti-Assessment League, an organization of 4000 Los Angeles property owners banded together to battle against the evil of overlapping assessments, has indorsed Judge Hugh J. Crawford, the "golden rule judge" for re-election to Office No. 8 of the Superior Court, at the primary tomorrow. Indorsement of the jurist's candidacy have come in from every portion of the county, from outstanding organizations and individuals, and Crawford's supporters predict his retention in office by a substantial margin.

Edward B. Evans of Monrovia, candidate for the Superior Court bench, Office No. 5, formerly dean of the College of Law of Drake University of Iowa, and author of law books, has been making a quiet but effective campaign. He has received the indorsement of many members and local unions of the W.C.T.U., also of various taxpayers' leagues, ministers of churches of all denominations, and has received the enthusiastic indorsement of several fraternal societies of which he is a member.

The Civic Research Law Enforcement League, which represents ten religious denomination, the Los Angeles City Federation of the W. C.T.U., the Federated Church Brotherhoods and many other religious and civic organizations, has indorsed the candidacy of Oda Faulconer for election to Office No. 11 of the Superior Court. The purpose of this organization, according to the statement of Rev. M. A. Shipman, its president, is the "mobilizing of a great force of citizens against vice, crime, corruption and inefficiency."

Explaining the highly technical work of the Los Angeles County Assessor's office, Ed W. Hopkins, who is seeking re-election to that office at tomorrow's primaries, spoke over Radio KMIC after an introduction by Carl A. Bundy, chairman of his campaign committee, and president of the Advertising Club of Los Angeles. "Ed W. Hopkins should be re-elected because of his ability, integrity and fidelity to duty," Bundy said.

Mrs. Hattie M. Doughty, president, and Mrs. Louis M. Williams, secretary, of the Los Angeles Woman's Christian Temperance Union, have addressed a letter to Municipal Judge Sheldon announcing that the organization has voted unanimously indorsing him for Superior Court Judge, Office No. Ten. "We feel that this action is merited for the loyalty shown our cause in these years of your judgeship in the Municipal courts," the letter states. The W.C.T.U. has made no other indorsements for this office.

William LaPlante, candidate for County Assessor, received the unanimous indorsement of musicians' local No. 27, international photographers, motion-picture operators, stage employees and studio mechanics.

Senator Charles W. Lyon has announced the receipt of the indorsement of the National Stage and Screen Voters' League.

Unqualified approval of the efforts of the Los Angeles Bar Association to obtain the election of judges who have been selected by the plebiscite of the county associations is contained in a letter written by William I. Hunsaker, jurist. Mr. Hunsaker wrote, in part, "The opinion of a majority of the members of the bar associations of the county expressed by a secret vote would seem to be a fair and trustworthy method of ascertaining the views of the members as to the fitness of the several candidates. In conducting this plebiscite the bar association performed an important public service. A majority of the members voting at this plebiscite indorsed, and I recommend for election, the following candidates for judge of the Superior Court: Judges Arthur Keetch, Henry M. Willis, John L. Fleming, Harry R. Archbald, Hartley Shaw, Edward T. Bishop, Frank C. Collier, J. Walter Hanby, William Hazlett and Walter Guerin."

That of all the twelve men seeking the office, Ed W. Hopkins possesses the prime qualifications for the vitally important post of County Assessor is the eleventh-hour message issued to the voters of Los Angeles county by the incumbent's campaign committee.

"Los Angeles county is the wealthiest county in the West," the statement reads. "Its taxable property is valued at approximately $9,000,000,000. The Assessor's office must appraise each parcel making up this huge total. Necessarily his becomes a highly technical job, where years of experience, both in the office and in the field, are a great asset.

"Ed W. Hopkins started many years ago in the Assessor's office as a junior clerk, followed by years of field work. Now he is at the helm of an organization of specialists which he has welded together into a smoothly functioning machine. His is recognized as one of the most efficient offices of its kind in the world and he has become a national authority on assessment matters.

"Ed W. Hopkins's record is unblemished. He is known for his rugged honesty, unapproachable by special interests. Three other men by the name of Hopkins, but none related to him, have been entered in the race among his eleven opponents.

"We urge every citizen to remember that Ed W. Hopkins is the present Assessor and that his name is preceded on the ballot by the figure '1.' A vote for him is a vote for efficiency and honesty in office and against tricky political tactics."

THREE GARAGES BURNED

Fire of undetermined origin yesterday destroyed three private garages in the rear of 2233 Ewing street, an automobile belonging to Henry Weber, a tenant in the house, which is owned by Charles Farber, and damaged the latter's bungalow, entailing an estimated loss of $5000. The blaze started during Farber's absence and was discovered by his children, who were being cared for by a relative.

"TIMES" ELECTION SERVICE

As is its custom, The Times will collect, tabulate and make public State and county returns from tomorrow's primary election as rapidly as they become available after the close of the polls at 7 p.m. The Times will broadcast returns at frequent intervals from KHJ, the Don Lee radio station, will issue night street editions and will give information by telephone to all who call MAdison 2345.

POOLE WILL MAKE LONG PLANE TOUR

Chamber Aviation Chief Plans Wide Survey of Aircraft Industry

Planning a complete survey of the aviation industry that will require a lengthy tour lasting several weeks, A. W. Poole, aviation manager of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, will leave today for the east over the Western Air Express, Secretary-manager A. G. Arnoll of the Chamber, announced yesterday.

During his tour, Poole will confer with the heads of all of the leaders in aircraft manufacture as well as government officials in Washington, Arnoll said. Of principal importance to this section's branches of the industry is the formulation of a program that will inject new life and interest into aviation and the hope that certain of the large manufacturing interests might locate branch plants in this area, the Chamber believes.

While in the East, Poole will also attend the National Air Races at Chicago where he plans to contact several of the leading figures in the industry.

More Concerns Join City Airport

Two more important aviation concerns have established headquarters at the Los Angeles Municipal Airport, it was announced yesterday by Richard B. Barnitz, director. They are the Pacific Airmotive Corporation and the Aero Brokerage Service Company and their addition marks an important step in the development of the city air-field.

The Pacific Airmotive Corporation, which formerly maintained its offices and shops at Crenshaw Boulevard and Jefferson street, now occupies municipal hangar No. 3. It is under the general management of W. E. (Tommy) Thomas, with Ross Hadley as president and Palmer Nichols, secretary.

The Aero Brokerage Service Company formerly was located at the Metropolitan Airport and is headed by Ed L. Erickson and Lieut. Walter Hawkins. The company deals in new and used airplanes and motors.

Ten air concerns, representing every branch of the industry, now are located at the municipal port.

BARNES GIVEN NEW COUNSEL

Greeley Advice Reversed by Kinsman

Candidate Meets Enthusiastic Supporter

George H. Barnes, who seeks Republican Congressional nomination, shakes hands with Frank H. Greeley, who says, "Go east as the apostle of conservation."

REVERSING the advice of his famous kinsman, Horace Greeley, who said, "Go west, young man," Frank N. Greeley, whose first ballot was cast for U. S. Grant, yesterday enlisted in George H. Barnes's Congressional campaign for the Republican nomination in the Tenth District, commanding, "Go east, sir, as the apostle of conservation."

"For the first time in the years which have followed my first vote, I now find myself able to vote for a Congressional candidate, the leading planks of whose platform are conservation and reforestation," Mr. Greeley said.

"Our faithlessness to the magnificent legacy of the forests with which a benevolent Providence endowed our land has been told from year to year with startling and tragic realism. Our policy has not been one of intelligent conservation, but of ruthless devastation. On our national escutcheon there seems to have been emblazoned the ax dexter and the torch sinister, neither of them couchant, but both rampant!"

"With his fine ideals and enthusiastic devotion to a great cause, it is my hope Mr. Barnes will be nominated tomorrow and later sent to Congress to serve both State and nation by his advocacy of constructive legislation."

Request Made for Accounting of Trust Fund

Because one of the beneficiaries and two of the trustees of a trust fund in the family of the late William Lyman Stewart have died, a suit to re-establish the fund was on file in Superior Court yetserday.

The fund contained $75,000 worth of securities for the benefit of Marjorie, Clement and Richard Stewart, grandchildren of Stewart. Marjorie died April 14, 1922, before attaining her majority. Alfred C. Stewart, a trustee, died December 18, 1927. William Lyman Stewart died June 21, last.

So, according to Sarah Arnold Bender and William Lyman Stewart, Jr., executors of the estate, a new accounting of the trust fund is necessary.

FIRE-PREVENTION WEEK

Co-operation in the observance of fire-prevention week, beginning September 6, requested of the Park Commission by Harry G. Elliott, in behalf of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, has been approved by the commission. The Fire Commission and fire departments already are making arrangements for observance of the week.

VOTE RESULT QUICKLY TOLD

Snap Tally of Tomorrow's Primary on Governor and Supervisor to be Released Early

Immediately following the close of the polls tomorrow night election boards throughout the county will make snap tallies of the votes cast for Governor and Supervisor, according to instructions issued by Registrar of Voters Kerr.

In compliance with the law requiring an early telephonic report on the votes cast for certain candidates, Kerr stated he has made arrangements for the establishment of branch offices at city halls and chambers of commerce in conveniently located centers in the county.

The snap tally will be made by each of the election boards and telephoned to either the office of the registrar or a branch office and then relayed to the main office. With tally made the election boards will proceed to canvass the votes, again telephoning a report at 8:30 p.m., with the results at that time on candidates for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Board of Equalization, Congressman, Senator, Supervisor and Sheriff. The boards will telephone a third report at 9:45 p.m. on the same candidates.

Special telephone facilities will be in use on the fifth floor of the Hall of Justice. Kerr expressed confidence that the various election boards will respond promptly in making their reports, as in the past, and thereby making it possible to give the public the result of the election at an early hour.

GRAVEL FUND REQUESTED

The Board of Public Works, acting on a report of City Engineer Jessup, has asked the City Council make available the sum of $105,000 for the purchase of oiled gravel for the ensuing ten months of the fiscal year for the bureau of engineering. The request was referred to the Finance Committee. The money is to come from the motor-vehicle fund.

CELL USED AS CAR TAG "REMINDER"

Jail Sentence Imposed on Man Who "Forgot" Five Traffic Citations

Don't "forget" your traffic tags unless you are willing to pay a heavy penalty for doing so, Municipal Judge Northrup warned in imposing a jail sentence on one offender in traffic court and heavy fines on another.

W. R. Dirstine, 425 South Workman street, is serving a nine-day jail sentence imposed after he had been haled into court by warrant officers for failing to post bail on five parking tags. Court records showed he had been fined seven times previously for similar offenses.

L. L. Martinez, 1523 West Eighth street, paid two $20 fines imposed by Judge Northrup after being brought in by police when he failed to post bail for parking offenses. He had been tagged eight times before, records revealed.

Today's Bible Text

For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.—1 Tim. iv, 4-5.

AGES

And then you can tell by the rings in the bathtub the different ages of those who have bathed there. Ain't science wonderful!

BEAUTY

A New Orleans maid is now the belle of the universe. That town acknowledges it, and having made the choice, it ought to know.

UNUSUAL

An eastern wise-cracker says that the word "unusual" means bad weather in Los Angeles. Well, that is better than having the word "usual" mean bad weather, as it does in some places.

FOUR HORSEMEN

The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse sweeping over the country breaking and crushing humanity as well as property are forest fires, droughts, Communists and fool drivers.

MARATHON PUZZLE

A Texas woman refused a bequest of $9000. She is an employee of a mattress factory. No man would have turned down a combination of that sort—a soft bed and a small fortune for life. Woman is the long-distance puzzle of man.

MONEY BACK

This is the time of year when the university gets its quarter-back. In the eyes of the student body, this will doubtless be more important than getting any amount of funds back from a deceased alumnus.

CHEWING GUM

Voliva has interdicted the girls of Zion City chewing gum. How does he manage to keep their jaws quiet during the show? One would think he would choose the lesser of two evils. And if nobody chewed gum, where would the Chicago Cubs be?

AN EARL

The grandson of the seventh Earl of Bessborough, George E. Ponsonby, is working with pick and shovel at an oil refinery in Southern California. He shows signs of being worthy of his sires. And if he keeps on, he may even qualify as an American citizen. Our coat-of-arms happens to be a shirt-of-arms with its sleeves rolled up.

RADIO GOES TO SCHOOL

Pasadena is trying out radio in her public schools to prove its practicability in emergencies, for lectures by noted speakers and for special musical programs. With a microphone in the office of the superintendent he will be able to contact every teacher and scholar in the city in a moment's time. When radio goes to school, it acquires a new dignity. It ceases to be an entertainment and becomes an asset. Pasadena is not so slow.

PLUCKY LIPTON

If there is anything to be gained by sympathy and good wishes Sir Thomas Lipton should be cheered to the point of winning the America's cup in the Newport race next month. When the Prince of Wales bade the 80-year-old yachtsman good-by as he left England on the Leviathan for the fifth trial of his various Shamrocks against our swiftest yacht he wished him good luck and then said: "A win for Sir Thomas will be as popular in America as over here."

That these words were scarcely an exaggeration was proved by the New York crowd that welcomed the plucky yacht owner at the pier, where the cry of "We hope you win!" was repeated over and over again.

No wonder the American public, always appreciative of the efforts of a worthy though unsuccessful contestant, holds Sir Thomas in such affectionate regard. Americans like the man who, though defeated time and again, smilingly toes the scratch for another trial, and there is little doubt that they would hail a victory by Shamrock V about as gladly as they would that of the American boat, though, of course, our yachtsmen are expected to do their best to retain the cup won by the schooner America off the Isle of Wight in 1851 and kept in this country ever since.

TOMORROW'S PRIMARY ELECTION

In large measure the primary election Tuesday will decide the course of the State of California for the next four years. In the campaign now closed—except for the voting—The Times has made its position plain as to all the Republican and nonpartisan candidates for office who are to be voted upon in Los Angeles county. A brief summary of its recommendations and the reasons therefor follows:

For Governor The Times favors the selection of Buron Fitts, vigorous and efficient District Attorney of this county, who will take into the office at Sacramento the same honesty of purpose, high ideals and ability which have distinguished his career throughout. He is pledged to a square deal for all parts of the State and is set against the sectionalism which has plagued the State for decades. Only the election of a Southern California man dissociated from the northern machine will end it.

For Lieutenant-Governor Frank F. Merriam of Long Beach is the preferred candidate. Mr. Merriam is a loyal and efficient Southern Californian, who knows legislative work and how it should be conducted. He has served as Speaker of the Assembly.

Secretary of State Jordan, Controller Riley and State Treasurer Charles G. Johnson, all deserve re-election. None of their opponents measures up sufficiently to be preferred.

In the opinion of The Times it is time to make a change in the important office of Attorney-General. The incumbent has had the post twenty-seven years and has never been wholly satisfactory. Of three other candidates, Frank M. Smith is easily the best qualified and should receive the nomination. For district member of the State Board of Equalization, the incumbent, H. G. Cattell, should be re-elected on his record. For Superintendent of Public Instruction, the incumbent, Vierling Kersey, has no opposition.

Representative Evans has no opposition for Congress in the Ninth District and his certain re-election is a deserved tribute to his energy and success. In contrast with Representative Evans's fine record is that of Representative Crail in the Tenth District, fitly described as the least useful Congressman in the California delegation. Crail is extremely prolific of bills to which he pays no attention afterward, neglects matters of the greatest importance to the district and tries to cover the fact up with fake speeches in the Congressional Record and opposes Hoover. The Times recommends the nomination of George R. Barnes, Los Angeles business man and conservation expert, to succeed Crail.

Los Angeles county will elect but one State Senator this year and should be careful in its choice. Senator McKinley deserves the nomination for his work in past legislative sessions on behalf of the county.

Twenty-two members of the State Assembly are to be nominated. The recommendation of The Times for the various districts is as follows:

Fifty-first, Sarah E. Kellogg; Fifty-second, William E. Prather; Fifty-third, M. H. Le Van; Fifty-fourth, William G. Bonelli; Fifty-fifth, Milton M. Golden; Fifty-six, Walter J. Little; Fifty-seventh, W. H. Lollier; Fifty-eighth, Lawrence Cobb; Fifty-ninth, Willard E. Badham; Sixtieth, Willis M. Baum; Sixty-first, Clarence N. Wakefield; Sixty-second, Frederick M. Roberts; Sixty-third, James V. Brewer; Sixty-fourth, Harry Lyons; Sixty-fifth, Sam M. Greene; Sixty-sixth, James E. Stockwell; Sixty-seventh, Charles E. Whiteside; Sixty-eighth, George H. Wilber; Sixty-ninth, Harry F. Sewell; Seventieth, James K. Reid; Seventy-first, Harry B. Riley; Seventy-second, Ben A. Hill.

Three Supervisors are to be elected from three districts. In the First District, Albert N. Chamness of Whittier is the best qualified candidate. In the Third District, Supervisor Graves should be returned; he has served the county well and deserves continuance in office. In the Fourth, Supervisor Quinn stands head and shoulders above his opponents.

For Assessor there is but one candidate who possesses the ability and experience needed for such an important post, and that is the incumbent, Ed W. Hopkins. There are three other Hopkinses on the ballot for this office and care should be taken not to mark the wrong one. The field in all is twelve candidates. The Times recommends Ed W. Hopkins for re-election.

Of the six candidates for Sheriff the outstanding man is Capt. Clyde Plummer, who has ability, integrity, good habits and experience. He should be chosen.

For Superior Court judges this paper recommends: Office No. 1, Judge Keetch; No. 2, Municipal Judge Willis; No. 3, Judge Fleming; No. 4, Judge Archbald; No. 5, Judge Shaw; No. 6, Judge Bishop; No. 7, Judge Collier; No. 8, Judge Crawford; No. 9, Judge Hanby; No. 10, Judge Hazlett; No. 11, Judge Guerin. With but one exception these are the incumbents. It is a mistake to change satisfactory judges since experience counts for so much in these posts.

For the State Supreme Court Justice Preston and Justice Shenk are candidates without opposition, and for the District Court of Appeal Justice York is also without opposition. All are deserving of complimentary votes for ability and efficiency.

THE PACIFIC ERA

American exports to the Far East doubled between 1914 and 1929. They are said to have increased faster than similar American trade with any other part of the outside world. Some commodities have expanded their foreign consumption more than 1500 per cent in the past fifteen years.

"Trade Era with Latins," ran a recent local headline. Latin Americans are here to attend a trade convention in California and incidentally to place large orders with our business concerns. Central and South America are turning from London and Berlin to Los Angeles.

New factories are moving in through our gateway of opportunity. The commercial world is looking out longingly through our port at the marts of trade around the Pacific Basin rim. Cheap fuel in oil and electricity from mountain torrents along with the climatic conditions satisfying to labor are intriguing manufacturing capital. And the big ocean is ideal for distribution. Where can you beat it?

An authority says that the Western States will send goods to the hunters and fishers of Siberia, to factory operatives in swarming cities like Shanghai and Osaka, to the sheep ranchers on the Australian and New Zealand hills and to the patrons of the bazaars of Rangoon and Bombay.

Los Angeles is more than a patch of sunshine, more than a playground for the republic. Earnest people who came to play are staying to work. It is fast becoming one of the busiest spots on the planet. And the Pacific Era is just over the horizon.

LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

HOLLYWOOD calls her children from afar, and even the Bagdad of the East sends to this New Bagdad of the West its seekers of Arabian nights' entertainments. The other night we were the guest of Mme. Debe Trab, who, members of the party assured us, is the foremost of Arabian actresses, well known in the Near East and Cairo and Alexandria and Southern Europe. They say she also danced in the Folies Bergeres in Paris and starred in Syrian plays in New York.

BAGDAD
OH-AH HOLLYWOOD

Of that we do not know. But we do know that Mme. Debe served us an Arabian dinner which was entrancing. And after that Toofik Simon, who has been teaching actors in Otis Skinner's production of "Kismet," which has just been filmed, typical Arab words and customs, and who has directed numerous scenes in pictures which had Arab atmosphere, brought in narghiles for us to smoke, just as we finished the best Turkish coffee that ever kept us awake at night. We can't exactly describe the kick we got out of it. But Carl Haverlin, who was in the party, took three puffs at the narghile, lolled back against a gorgeous oriental cushion and cried:

"Bring in my dancing girls!"

Then Toofik sang a genuine, unadulterated, unimproved Arab love song, which Virginia Flohri played for him, and we felt completely transported. We have never been able to get to Bagdad, but Hollywood has brought Bagdad to us. It was an Arabian night such as one can enjoy only in one of those two places.

Smoking the Narghile

The narghile we bellowsed was a beautiful thing, standing about three feet high, with enough hose attached for an average-size garden. Away up in the highest pinnacle of it was some dampened Persian tobacco. We are told that Turks and Arabs lie back on cushions as they enjoy the soothing effects of that pipe, but we were too much of an amateur. The mileage from the tobacco to our mouth was too great. We had to plant ourself firmly, as if for a tug-of-war, with feet well spread apart, and then begin pulling—from the bottom of our lungs. For two minutes there was no apparent result. No smoke issued from our lips and we could taste none. But we could foretaste it, we felt that the smoke was coming but just hadn't reached us yet. Spurred on by curiosity, we broke all our previous chest-expansion records. We swelled till our shirt buttons were strained almost to the danger point.

BLUG! BLUGLE!

Still it seemed we weren't man enough. But suddenly, just as we were about to give up in despair, results arrived. A great cloud of smoke filled us. It went to the bottom of our lungs—it seemed it went to the bottom of our toes. It came out of our eyes, ears and nose, as well as our throat.

But after we got through coughing we tried again, and sort of got the hang of it. And that narghile gave us a real smoke. By comparison, it made even the most strongly advertised cigarettes taste like ladyfingers.

The John Alden Line

Harry S. Alden, who lives in Laughlin Park, is a direct descendant of John Alden of colonial fame and his son John is the only direct descendant in the tenth generation. Not only are the famous of today either in Los Angeles or on the way, but the famous of the past are represented here by their descendants.

Bigger and Better Snails

Yes, people from the ends of the earth come to Los Angeles and find people and things here which make them feel at home. But sometimes there are disappointments. The other day Fifi Dorsay was doing a bit of shopping when her glance was arrested by a sign chalked on a coffee-shop window:

"Hot Buttered Snails 15 Cents."

"Sapristi!" cried Fifi. "It takes me back to L'Escargot d'Or. It is a breath of my Paris. Give me one doz-zen snail, monsieur."

As she seated herself, as if to eat them right there, the sandwich shover looked puzzled. "You want 'em in a bag?" he asked.

"For why in a bag? I wish them to eat."

So he brought her twelve of those curled-up coffee cakes they call snails, each a meal in itself for anyone who has to think of her figure.

They were beautiful snails, but Fifi looked on them with horror. She gamely ate half of one, though, and paid for all.

"Give them to somebody zat is hungry," she said. "I did not understand your American snail were so beeg. In France we have only ze very small—comme sa. Sank you very much."

WHISTLES SILENCED

By order of Chief Inspector O'Brien of New York, police whistles have been barred as stop-and-go traffic signals in New York City. This innovation is part of the new antinoise campaign which was started recently not only in New York, but other eastern cities. The campaign has silenced about 75 per cent of the auto honking, according to report, and has landed persistent honkers in jail, where they properly belong.

Instead of the whistle, the traffic officer must use his arm and hand, thus relieving his lungs and blowing apparatus and putting the strain on his right thoracic limb. Inspector O'Brien says that the new rule affords greater protection to the public. If policemen can be made to face the traffic when giving the signal, which they must do if they use their arms instead of whistles, results, he says, are bound to be better.

For years before the introduction of the automobile New York traffic officers blew whistles as signals to stop and go at a few congested crossings. But other large cities did not adopt the whistle signal until motor traffic became quite extensive. The present rule silencing the whistles is only an experiment and may not survive a thorough test. Los Angeles is not likely to adopt it until it has been proved to be advantageous, which may not be the case, judging from the complaints already made by New York's traffic victims and by the lame-armed police.

OFF TO HOKKAIDO

Japan is making a determined effort to induce migration from its densely settled regions to its northern island of Hokkaido. Though it lies in about the same latitude as Northern Oregon, Hokkaido has a very harsh winter climate and the southern Japanese have been in no haste to settle there.

To even things up the government offers to lend each settler twelve to twenty-five acres rent free and give him clear title to his homestead if he gets 60 per cent of it in cultivation in five years. So immigration is increasing and Hokkaido is expected to have a population of 6,000,000 in twenty years. But this is not going to solve Japan's problem of overpopulation for Hokkaido, with forty-four neighboring islands, is somewhat smaller in area than Indiana and by no means as fertile.

Japan, with Formosa, Chosen and Sakhalin, has an area of only 260,730 square miles, or 8000 less than that of California and Nevada combined. But while these two States have a population of 5,763,000, Japan has 85,000,000 and is growing at the rate of about 1,000,000 a year. This growth "invests the question of subsistence with great importance," as a bright Tokio statesman quaintly puts it.

Japan yearns to plant more people in Manchuria, but its subjects are allowed no real foothold there. Like Mussolini, the Mikado does not favor birth control and there can be little further development of agriculture. To ship a few millions off to Hokkaido would seem but a temporary expedient, though it will help some.

It must be discomforting to live in a land, no matter how beautiful, where the ever-recurrent thought of the inhabitants is, "There are too many of us."

MEANS SOMETHING

Jackson and O'Brine had been in the air long enough last Saturday to have spanned the earth at the equator at a rate of forty miles per hour. Some day our Navy or the navies of many nations will combine to make a round-the-world-nonstop-refueling flight possible.

ENOUGH IS ENOUGH

By James J. Montague

I once was strong for old John Smith,
Long years before I heard
That his great story was a myth
And false in every word.
I worshiped those brave men of old,
The Knickerbocker Dutch,
But I have recently been told
That they were not so much.
And now to my regret I hear
Columbus was a buccaneer.

Yet still I think that Smith was great—
A bear-cat in a fight;
No matter what historians state
I still believe I'm right.
Columbus I revere a lot
With everything he did,
And I'm convinced that he was not
An earlier Capt. Kidd.
No low-browed rough seafaring crook
Would take the chance Columbus took.

I had to learn my history once,
And I will not again
Review the bold and daring stunts
Of our heroic men.
They may, or they may not have won
The laurels on their brow,
But what they did or left undone
I'll not restudy now.
With history, as with A-B-C,
One learning is enough for me.

THE WASHINGTON WASH

BY STRICKLAND GILLILAN

The political pot is more than simmering just now. It is boiling in spots, like apple butter or lye soap; and when some one of the boiling spots "spits," some politician jerks back his hand and painedly swears, for it burned him.

The Southern Republican party is being Mann-handled just now. I have even heard surreptitious whispers that it is about to be enlisted in the sacred (printer, don't make this "scared") cause of Tom Heflin. Tom seems to have heffled quite successfully in cutting down the vote at the primary, which means that he may have convinced such of his constituency as could read or understand what was read aloud to them, that he was about to annihilate the Pope and hamstring the Vatican State. Tom did it in the Congressional Record. If you don't believe it, get a copy and read it. So long as Tom keeps his perfect control of the Pope and his art of telling a Negro story better than anybody else—not excepting Irvin Cobb—can tell it, he will be a factor to be dealt with in Alabama politics. And to think Alabama once had an Underwood! An Underwood for which some of the citizens are still casting twenty-four votes at every roll call! Long may Heflin heffle!

This thing of making a sacred cow of a man because he has achieved miraculous success in one narrow line, is as unfair to the man himself as it is to the public. Brother Edison is a super genius in electricity, so we try to make him a deputy deity and consult him, as an oracle, on all subjects. The poor old boy knows no more on most subjects than you and I do, dumbbells that we are. But when you take an elderly gentleman who has wisely held himself to one branch of mechanical science for many, many years, doing incalculably more good in that way than he possibly could have done if he had messed around over the whole field—when you take a man of advanced age, drag him out into the open and give him adulation it is bedizening to him; and it leads him to assume that maybe we are right about him. Then the pronunciamentos and the folly begin! Straying in unfamiliar fields, striving to accommodate, he will emit absurdities unconsciously and make himself a foolishness. It is our fault. No other human has done so much to make life happy and comfortable as has Thomas Edison, but that does not qualify him as a seer on subjects he never heard of before. It is a mean, thoughtless, disrespectful thing thus to pillory him though the purpose be to do him honor. Many a big butter-and-egg man knows nothing about steel rails. So this big "battery-and-erg" man is ignorant of a number of things and should not be consulted on those subjects. The hall-mark of our ignorance on any subject is our ignorance of the fact that we are ignorant. There are subjects on which many of us know too little to know we know nothing. Do Mr. Edison honor—too much cannot be done him! But do it discreetly and not humiliatingly. He is a human. Anybody on earth is either a human or less.

Speaking of the 1932 bicentennial of this here now what's-his-name Washington (I forget his given name, but you may know it) a hue to say nothing of cry has been raised against advertising that event with the picture of the late Washington on tire covers, together with an announcement of the event and its date. Now the claim is that the picture doesn't look like George (yeah, that's his name!) Some Congressman who evidently knew George personally says the picture doesn't resemble the British lion tamer. The picture does look like John Gilbert or Ramon Navarro or what silver-screen heroes have you. But few of us saw George, and so far as I am concerned it is a speaking likeness. Many paintings of George were made, mostly by Stuart, one of them being painted alongside the southern elevation of Washington's own north-bound horse. But we do not know that these paintings were likenesses.

Another objector arises—the president of the Chamber of Commerce of Alexandria, where George used to live before prohibition became a live issue—and says it is undignified to advertise the event with a picture of the Papa of his country on a mere tire cover. He says it is disrespectful; he means to the late George, not to the tire. Sentimentally, but not as a practical matter, his point is well taken. How is the event to be advertised to the several millions of American citizens who never see anything except the inside of a delicatessen, a movie and the rear end of the car in front? How are those people ever to hear that there is a celebration? The talkies, by relieving them of the necessity for practice, has let them forget how to read. The old-fashioned printed captions kept them rehearsed in the art of reading—I have heard them all read the captions aloud. So the picture of Washington, together with the figures "1932," might enlighten those folks. They can still read figures, because they can always see the license plates. So while I too weep to see the indignity heaped upon the father, as the feller says, of his country, as an advertising expert I hold to the tire-cover advertising. It is the only kind a lot of us would ever see. And if all the nitwits in America stayed away from the bicentennial, it would be a flop—yea, a flippety-flop, through lack of attendance.

To miss his vacation one year,
But if I had his camp on the Rapidan,
I shouldn't shed ever a tear!

The new Department of Commerce seventeen-and-a-half-million-dollar hut under my window is about to be finished. The final pillars of the facade toward D street are being placed. People do not stop to remember that Thomas Jefferson was almost boiled in oil for spending two and a half millions less than this one building cost for a third of our country's present territory!

As soon as they start tearing down those grimy structures now occupying the space bounded by Fourteenth, Fifteenth, D and Pennsylvania avenue, there will be a good many homeless cockroaches, rats, mice and cimex lectularii. Look up that last pair of words at your peril. Members of the S.P.C.A. are already making a house-to-house canvass of the city to find homes for the cockroaches, etc., that will be thrown out of homes and employment when these buildings, including an ancient theater and a dilapidated hotel and some shine stands with residences of the shiners attached—also a police station—are razed. It is particularly hard on insects to be made homeless at this time, with winter coming on. Perhaps, however, the dismantling may be postponed till the price of insect powder shall have arisen and the panic ended. I shall speak to Dick Eliot about it.

Gov. Ritchie of Maryland shouldn't holler about his State being drought hit and himself uninvited to the conference—hasn't he always pledged his customers that State should be dripping wet so long as he is Governor?

Washington now has a new super-nasty book, involving this time a lady who is still living. It is hoped the slimy reptile who wrote the book may be taken out, along with the slimier (if possible) one who printed it and burned at the stake, with wet wood. I'd suggest a painfuller and more lingering demise if I could think of one. A mere murderer is a gentleman compared to the writers and promulgators of damaging filth. Whether or not there has ever been a kernel of truth from which such nauseating monstrosities are built, is not even an element for consideration in dispensing near-justice to people who peddle dirt and love to befoul memories.

Too Many Stop Signals

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 7.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I note the comments of Harry Carr to the effect that the Supervisors are going to take down some of the boulevard stop signals on the roads between this city and San Pedro. It often seems to me that this boulevard stop and signal business is overdone. Take, for instance, those at Los Feliz and Hillhurst. At this intersection cars from all four directions have to stop. The other day at 2 o'clock in the afternoon (a quiet time) during a period of five minutes 110 cars on Los Feliz were obliged to stop, while nine cars came into that street and only two cars crossed it. About the same condition exists at Vermont and Los Feliz, except there more cars cross Los Feliz. But at both points boulevard stop signs against cars coming into Los Feliz would take care of the traffic and save a lot of profanity.

Also in reference to the style of traffic signals—the round and the hand style. You can see the hand kind nearly twice as far, and for that reason it ought to be used in preference to the other.

Poor Sportsmanship

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 7.—[To the Editor of The Times:] A recent correspondent suggests a plan for State division, whereby the northern border of Arizona would be continued to the Pacific Coast and a new State formed of the territory south of this line.

Recently I happened to read in the San Jose Mercury-Herald a statement by Representative A. M. Free of that city to the effect that the north would lose no seats in the Legislature as a result of this year's census. He explained this curious opinion by saying that under the new reapportionment law, there are only ten southerners in the State Senate, and that the thirty northerners can easily defeat any attempt on the part of the south to gain its representation in the Assembly. He went on to say that the new Congressmen that California expects to receive may be elected at large and in this way it may be possible to elect northerners and not southerners to fill the new seats in the House.

If Mr. Free's brazen statements represent the spirit of the north, it shows poor sportsmanship on the part of that section of the State. If the north really wants State division, cheating the south out of its just rights is the most certain way to bring about this result.

A. W. HAYNES.

Thirty States boast the operation of State crop associations, wherein planters confer with each other as to acreage, prices, etc. Louisiana has just joined the number, during the farm short course which the State University at Baton Rouge holds every year.

Chef Wyman's RECIPES

The Times' free cooking school conducted by Chef Wyman has been discontinued for the summer. Date for resuming has not been set but will be announced later.

BRAN WAFFLES

Two cupfuls of sifted flour, four level teaspoonfuls of baking powder, six tablespoonfuls of melted butter, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, one-fourth cupful of bran, two eggs. Sift the flour, baking powder, and salt together, then add the bran and the milk to which has been added the melted butter. Beat the yolks of the eggs and add them to the mixture, and beat well, then fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites, and bake in a hot waffle iron.

APPLE CRISP PUDDING

Peel and core and slice thin, six cupfuls of apples, sprinkle the apples with a half a cupful of sugar, and one and a half teaspoonfuls of cinnamon, place them in a buttered baking dish, and add a half cupful of water. Sift two cupfuls of flour and chop into it one-half cupful of butter. Sprinkle the flour and butter mixture over the top of the apples, place in the oven and bake until the apples are tender, and the crust is brown.

FROZEN ROQUEFORT CHEESE SALAD

One-third of a cupful of Roquefort cheese, one-third of a cupful of cream sauce, one-third cupful of finely chopped celery, one cupful of finely shredded cabbage, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, a seasoning of paprika, and one cupful of whipped cream. Crush the Roquefort cheese, then press it through a sieve, blend it with the cream sauce, lemon juice and vinegar, add the chopped celery, and the shredded cabbage, and the seasoning of paprika, and fold in the whipped cream. Either place the mixture in a mold that has been rinsed out with cold water, or in refrigerator trays and allow it to harden. Serve on shredded lettuce.

GRAPE SOUFFLE

Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a sauce pan, stir in two tablespoonfuls of flour, and one tablespoonful of corn starch, stir carefully for three minutes, and do not allow to brown, then add one cupful of milk, four tablespoonfuls of sugar, and one-half teaspoonful of lemon extract. Stir over the fire, until it will leave the sides of the pan, cool and gradually beat into it the yolks of three eggs, and a half a cupful of grape pulp, made by rubbing the grapes through a sieve, add the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs, fill a buttered mold with the mixture, and bake in a medium oven for thirty-five minutes. Serve hot with a grape sauce.

Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

BABY'S APPETITE FOR DISGUSTING OBJECTS NEEDS PROMPT ATTENTION

Everything goes to baby's mouth. Sometimes the taste of an old twig or a mouthful of fluff or a lump of dirt will bring its own reaction—baby will make a wry face and spit it out. Sometimes the taste does not offend baby, and he eats and develops an appetite for all sorts of queer and dangerous things.

There are babies who pull hair from their heads and chew it with relish. There are babies who can't be left in their painted, metal cribs for they gnaw off the paint and eat it like candy. Babies develop a taste for wood, nibbling and swallowing bits of it to the utter despair of their mothers.

Dirt eating and plaster eating are common manifestations. Children of low mentality are notoriously without a sense of discrimination and will eat all sorts of disgusting things. But many normal children have these queer appetites, too, which are the result in most cases of some diet deficiency or just a bad habit.

DIET DEFICIENCY COMMON

A deficiency of minerals in the diet is given by most authorities as the most frequent cause of these abnormal appetites. To be perfect, of course, a diet must contain all the elements. This means milk, eggs and meat for the chief proteins; whole grain cereals and sugar for the best type of carbohydrate; vegetables of all kinds, fresh and cooked fruits for the minerals; butter and cream for the best type of fats. This diet insures the child against any deficiencies.

When we say whole grain cereals we mean those which contain both the hull of the grain and its germ. Whole wheat, either the finer or coarser forms, pearl barley, brown rice, oatmeal, graham flour, are all whole grains of different types. Whether used in breads, or as breakfast foods, they provide the child with vitamins and minerals that may not be present in the more refined cereals.

BREAKING THE HABIT

These dirt eating children sometimes improve when they are given more salt in their food in addition to the attention to their whole diet. Wood and paint eating must be discouraged and if the wooden high chair and baby's painted bed are each wound tightly with strips of cloth there will be no surfaces to tempt baby's sharp teeth. Wooden and painted toys, or toys with hair (if he likes hair or fluff) should be replaced with rubber, celluloid and stone ones.

The hair-eating baby should wear a little hood so that he can't pluck out his hair, and if he picks fluff from his blankets they should be replaced by comforts. Any woolen or hairy objects should be removed. The dirt-eating baby should be kept away from the dirt until rapid abandonment of the habit is caused by the changes in diet and the lack of opportunity to indulge it.

The younger the child the more easily are such habits broken, so they should be arrested as soon as discovered. Keep in mind that whatever his present diet it should be changed in some way to correct and improve it.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Bowser's Bath

Never wash friend doggie in cold water; have it lukewarm. After drying with a towel, play with him until he is thoroughly warm and dry before allowing him to lie down for a rest. Dogs get rheumatism just as do a lot of us old fellows.

A Sanitary Telephone

Have you ever used a telephone and detected a heavy, breathy odor around the mouthpiece? The mouthpiece of the telephone is often neglected in the cleanest of homes. It should be washed at least once a week with a disinfectant to do away with cold germs and any odors accumulated from heavy breaths.

Carving Knives

Never keep your carving knives in the drawer with the other kitchen utensils. It is a dangerous practice as one is apt to cut oneself while reaching for something else and the contact with the other cutlery will dull the sharper knives.

In the Linen Closet

Sometimes the edges of unused sheets, pillowcases and towels in the linen closet become soiled from dust. To prevent this slip underneath the pile a clean, discarded sheet and bring the edges up over the linens. This will keep them immaculate indefinitely.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

REDDY MAKES A SLIGHT MISTAKE

The best of us at times will make
A foolish or a grave mistake.
—Reddy Fox.

Reddy Fox is a patient fellow. He is an exceedingly patient fellow when he has something to gain by being patient. Just now he lay hidden by the old stone wall on the edge of the Old Orchard, hoping that Impy the black Chipmunk would show himself. It was partly curiosity that had brought Reddy there. He had heard of that black Chipmunk and he was anxious to see him. At the same time, he hoped that he would be able to catch Impy.

Reddy kept his eyes on the old stone wall in the direction of Striped Chipmunk's home. You see, he knew where Striped Chipmunk was in the habit of disappearing between the stones of the old wall to reach his home down underneath and he felt sure that the black Chipmunk was living in the same place. For a long time nothing happened. Then he saw the head of Striped Chipmunk pop up from behind a big stone. A moment later Striped Chipmunk was sitting up on that stone. Reddy hoped that Striped Chipmunk would come in his direction. He wanted to see that black Chipmunk, but he wouldn't miss the chance of catching Striped Chipmunk if he got it.

Striped Chipmunk sat for quite a while without moving. He was enjoying a sun bath. Finally he turned and, to Reddy's disappointment, raced away along the top of the old stone wall in the opposite direction. Reddy sighed with disappointment. It was a sort of inside sigh, a silent sigh. He was far too clever to sigh in a way that might be heard. How he did hope that that black Chipmunk would come out soon. But when after a long time Impy did not appear, Reddy began to wonder if perhaps he were making a mistake and that Impy was not living in the home of Striped Chipmunk, but had made a home for himself somewhere.

"I guess the thing for me to do," said Reddy to himself, "is to use this nose of mine to discover if there is more than one place in the old wall that is being used right along by Chipmunks. Of course, I am likely to find many places where they once in a while go in or come out between the stones, but if there is any other one place, excepting that one that I know leads to Striped Chipmunk's home, being used regularly, I ought to be able to find it."

So Reddy got to his feet and, as he did so, he looked back in the direction of the Green Forest—the direction from which he had come. His heart gave a little leap. He had caught a glimpse of something black: It was only a glimpse but he was sure that what he had seen was black. Very, very carefully Reddy began to steal forward. With each step he stopped to look and listen. Little by little he moved along. He had not seen that black thing again. He was sure that it was Impy and that Impy had simply disappeared between the stones somewhere. When he reached the place where he thought he had seen it, he stopped, and there he crouched ready to spring.

At last his patience was rewarded. He heard the faintest of sounds—nothing more than the rustle of a leaf. And then he saw something small and black—as black as the blackest thing he had ever seen. It appeared for an instant from between the two stones of the old wall and then disappeared. Reddy took two steps forward and crouched ready to spring. He waited, holding his breath. Once more it appeared and Reddy sprang as only Reddy can. He felt sure that he would have Impy the black Chipmunk as a reward for patience. An instant later Reddy discovered that he had made a slight mistake.

Health and Diet Advice

By DR. FRANK McCOY
Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

CARE IN THE SICK ROOM

A young girl of 14 had a case of inflammatory rheumatism which became complicated with pneumonia. Her family sent me an urgent telephone call, that they believed the girl was dying, and wondered if there was anything I could do to save her.

Upon entering the door of her room I had to gasp at the flood of hot, fetid air which filled the room. When the lights were lit they disclosed that all of the windows were shut with blankets tacked over them. A large open gas stove was burning vigorously, with its flame projecting several inches out of the heater. The room was dirty and untidy. There were nine friends and relatives crowded into the room besides myself.

The first thing I did was to ask them all to leave except the mother, then we opened all of the windows for it was quite warm outside. I also shut off the gas stove. The little patient's red face was almost hidden under a pile of blankets. An examination revealed that she had been entirely wrapped in a woolen blanket torn in long strips. Over this she had two flannel nightgowns. She lay on top of an electric blanket on top of her three heavy woolen blankets and two comforters.

The mother did not know what an enema was, and the patient had not had a bowel movement since she first became sick. Incidentally, the patient had not even been given a sponge bath since the beginning of her illness. The mother had tried to keep up her strength by feeding her fried eggs, potatoes and gravy and similar foods. The girl has temperature of 106 degrees and was delirious. The girl was very sick and would undoubtedly have died had she continued to receive the kind of nursing she had been given.

After a few days of correct nursing, sponge baths, enemas, and no food, but plenty of water to drink, she recovered. This may seem like an extreme case but it differs from many others only in slight details. I am sure that the wrong kind of nursing has killed thousands of patients, whereas, the right care would have resulted in their recovery.

Proper care of the sickroom is most important in all illnesses where the patient is confined to bed, and I am going to outline to you some of the elementary facts of sanitation and hygiene which should be used so that the patient will be made more comfortable and allowed to recover in the shortest time.

The first thing to do is to see that the room is clean. It is distressing to a disabled person to be surrounded by a cluttered heap of objects. The bed should be kept clear of books, papers, pencils, extra pillows and pets. The dressing table in the room should be kept clean and straightened. Cleanliness has a definite health value which cannot be over-rated. See that the room receives a plentiful supply of fresh air. You can arrange it so that the air can be warm and still be fresh. It is a good plan to air out the room frequently, or the windows may be kept partly down at the top all the time. Any heater used should have a flue to conduct the burned air outside, or an electrict heater may be used.

Keep the room as quiet as possible. Any needless ringing of alarm clocks, doorbells or telephones should be avoided. Also, it is better to keep out too many friends or neighbors.

Stiffer Brushes

If the hair brush seems too soft after its bath, dip it in an equal mixture of milk and water. Then dry before the fire or in the sunshine.

The New Toothbrush

Soak the new toothbrush in cold water to which a little salt has been added for twenty-four hours before using. This will prevent the bristles from coming out so readily.

Relay Race Provides Lively Second-Act Climax

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

Elliott Nugent wins all the starring honors in "The Poor Nut." It is his play, written in conjunction with his father, J. C. Nugent, and the primary role belong to him exclusively, by virtue of an exceptionally clever performance.

Incidentally you will be assured of pepful collegy entertainment in this piece, including lots of yelling and cheering during the big relay race.

"The Poor Nut" is on the stage at El Capitan Theater, as an attraction produced under the supervision of Henry Duffy. The presentation is good throughout, with very slight exception. And it is immensely satisfying fun.

Large audiences attended both performances yesterday, a capacity crowd being on hand for the evening. The smooth comedy, never overdone—although it well could be—of Nugent delighted those present and the spectacle of the track meet glimpses brought a resounding applause at the end of the second act.

Nugent made a short curtain speech, informally introducing his father. He threatened to prove his prowess as a track man by running against Frank Wykoff, when Nugent senior came on the stage and reminded him of the star sprinter's injury. Whereupon Nugent evidenced that that was the reason for bravado of the challenge.

"The Poor Nut" is all about the inferiority complex of one John Miller, as those who may possibly have seen the play before will remember. He is a very scholastic individual, but lacking in the attributes which enjoy the acclaim of the fraternity crowd.

In letters written to a girl at another school, who has never seen him, he depicts himself as something of a hero. He is therefore in the situation where he must live up to the idea when the young lady comes to the school to behold the sad-looking student that he really is.

The plot idea is the good old one of the chap without courage suddenly demonstrating his possession of it. Nugent goes in the relay race to save the day for his alma mater, and beats his adversary in a neck-and-neck finish.

However, that is not where the play ends. There are still romantic considerations to be dealt with. The girl whom he has idealized, but really doesn't love, wants to hold him to bargain to marry her. Actually he is in love with another miss. So the final act straightens out this added complication.

There is also the humorous treatment of the visiting girls efforts to psychoanalyze her hero.

All of "The Poor Nut" is breezily and brightly told, and some of it is immensely amusing in a piquant way. There are a few dull spots, perhaps, because the play was written several years ago. But there is nothing to detract materially from the mirth and gayety of this stage piece for very long. "The Poor Nut" will be warmly welcomed by the majority of showgoers.

Norma Lee (Mrs. Nugent) is seen in the heroine role in the play, of the more sedate type, while Ruth Nugent, sister of the star, appears as the "ideal" girl from the other school. Miss Lee is especially effective in her portrayal.

A smashing bit is the one done by Percy Helton as the cheer leader. He has plenty of exercising for a warm evening. Also helping the comedy is William H. Turner as the rubber. Kernan Cripps is the coach, Vesey O'Davoran the professor, while Eric Kalkhurst is cast as the rival runner. Cornelius Keefe, Edward Seabrook and Donald Campbell are others important.

'Champion' will End Engagement Here Saturday

"The Champion," in which Grant Mitchell is starring at the Hollywood Playhouse, is now in the final week of its limited engagement and the last performance will be given Saturday night. The comedian has scored, it is said, in the role of William Burroughs, alias Gunboat Williams, the champion lightweight fighter.

Written for the star by A. E. Thomas and Thomas Louden, "The Champion" has been successful in the East but is on view here for the first time. Mitchell was the original portrayer of the title role. Doris Lloyd as Lady Elizabeth Galton heads the supporting cast and prominent are Claude Allister, Lucy Beaumont, Herbert Bunston, Richard Whorf, Charles Coleman, Robert Williamson, Evan Thomas, Nenette Vallon and Lorna Noy.

John Wray Has Familiar Role

John Wray, who has the title role in "The Czar of Broadway," now at the R.-K.-O. Theater, says he has portrayed a modern gangster so many times he should be qualified to write a book on "How to Be a Racketeer."

As a player of the New York stage, Wray appeared in such pieces as "Broadway," "Silence," "The Enemy" and "Tin Pan Alley," and he both wrote and played in "Nightstick." He was signed for talking motion pictures by Universal Productions, and first was seen on the screen as Himmelstoss in "All Quiet on the Western Front."

As Mort Bradley in "The Czar of Broadway," Wray enacts the part of an underworld king who carries on his criminal activities through intimidation of important business men and public officials. Betty Compson has the leading feminine role as Connie, a cabaret entertainer, and John Harron is cast as a young reporter.

FAWCETT AT M.-G.-M.

George Fawcett, who has played often on the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer program, is back with this organization again in "The New Moon," co-starring Lawrence Tibbett and Grace Moore. The actor plays a Russian count.

"Candle Light" Shines with Stars

Eugenie Leontovich

Brings charm and ability to the Biltmore Theater tonight as a romantic young maid in Siegfried Geyer's Viennese comedy. Other featured players are Reginald Owen and Alan Mowbray.

NOTABLE BILL SCHEDULED

Stage shows, produced at the Hollywood Paramount studios, will start Thursday at the Paramount Theater in conjunction with the four Marx Brothers in "Animal Crackers," their feature comedy film and hilarious successor to "Cocoanuts."

The Marx brothers, last season, temporarily abandoned the New York musical comedy stage to make their first picture for the talking screen. "Animal Crackers," their second, reveals the wild and woolly comedians in a new set of ridiculous antics.

As in "Cocoanuts," Chico again performs at the piano, making use of his own private finger technique. Harpo, of the red hair and silent tongue, slides his nimble fingers over the harp. Groucho, considered by many as the funniest of the four, is cast as a bold big game hunter from Africa.

Featured with the comedians is Lillian Roth, who scored in "The Love Parade," "Vagabond Lover" and "Honey." Miss Roth adds the romantic interest to this comedy. Others in the supporting cast are Margaret Dumont, Louis Serin, Robert Greig and Margaret Irving. Victor Heerman directed.

On the stage, the first show will be presented under the direction of Busby Berkley. An orchestra, augmented for the playing of both syncopated music and popular classical music, will be under the direction of Jules Buffano.

WELL KNOWN ACTRESS TO ENACT ROLE

Marguerite de la Motte Selected for Important "Good Old Days" Part

Marguerite de la Motte, well-known leading woman in motion pictures, has been engaged to play the chief feminine role in "Good Old Days," the Aaron Hoffman comedy which will bring Kolb and Dill to the Hollywood Playhouse Monday, September 1.

Miss De La Motte has made comparatively few stage appearances here, although she has been a guest star in the East and last season headed a vaudeville act with John Bowers over the major circuits. She was Douglas Fairbanks's leading woman in five pictures.

In "Good Old Days" she will be seen as Katie Wagner, the daughter of Albert Wagner, the role to be acted by Max M. Dill.

Brockman Gets Assignment to do Show Lyrics

James Brockman has been signed to write the lyrics for "Gay Temptations of 1930," proposed musical revue which Franklin Productions will sponsor at the Mayan Theater in September, according to an announcement.

Brockman composed the lyrics to "In the Shade of the Sheltering Palm," "I Faw Down, Go Boom," "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles," "As Long as the Shamrock Grows Green" and others.

Today is scheduled for the start of actual rehearsals on the Mayan stage, with 100 girls to be drilled in dances and ensembles by LeRoy Prinz.

Boulevard will Screen Two Fox Pictures Next

"Cheer Up and Smile" and "On Your Back," two new Greater Talkie Season products from the Fox studios, will be screened in the near future at the Boulevard Theater, according to an announcement. The pictures are scheduled to follow "Common Clay," currently playing.

"Cheer Up and Smile" is a comedy of college coeds, cofeaturing Arthur Lake and Dixie Lee. The film opens Thursday.

"On Your Back," starring Irene Rich, will follow.

Era of Fake Declared Gone

The era of "faking" in motion-picture production has passed, bringing a demand upon producers for genuineness in every detail of preparation, according to Roy Del Ruth, Warner Brothers director.

This is particularly true, he says, in providing atmosphere and background in which the fan has become so exacting and so discriminating that he quickly can detect the real from the false. Whether it be a matter of costuming, settings, dialogue or manners, the utmost pains must be taken to provide the genuine, sometimes at the cost of extensive and costly research and study.

Replica of Old Village Built For Film Use

A New England fishing village, 1830 model, was built about a lonely cove on a deserted California coast for use in "Moby Dick," Warner film starring John Barrymore, now showing at Warner Brothers' Downtown Theater.

The American novel of the same name from which this picture is adapted gives an accurate picture, it is said, of the town of New Bedford from which Ahab started his mad voyage after the great white whale, and from these descriptions and from old engravings made 100 years ago, the technical staff of the studio was able to reconstruct a counterpart.

This required the construction of several dozen buildings stretching along the water front and back onto the hills a quarter of a mile away.

Added Feature Scheduled for Loew's State

An added attraction is to augment the regular evening performance tonight at Loew's State Theater.

Louis Armstrong, noted trumpeter, and the cast of girls and principals appearing in Frank Sebastian's new Cotton Club floor show will perform on the stage.

Rube Wolf, celebrating his homecoming as master of ceremonies for the Fanchon ad Marco ideas, and the screen offering, "Good News," are current regular attractions. The added night club show, staged by Walter Brooks, is for the one performance only.

CALIFORNIA GIRL WINS PLAY AWARD

INTERNATIONAL CONCERT GIVEN

Arbos Displays Versatility at Hollywood Bowl

French, Russian and German Composers Represented

Broadcast Program Receives Plaudits of Audience

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

The musical ambassador from Spain, Enrique Fernandez Arbos, conducted an internationally popular program at the Bowl Saturday night. The French Thomas, Bizet and Godard were balanced by the Russians, Rimsky-Korsakoff, Tschaikowsky and Ivanoff, and Wagner's "Ride of the Valkyries" finished a widely varied concert list, which even included an American, John Alden Carpenter. Not a Spanish composer was heard, but as a demonstration of Senor Arbos's versatility the program was excellently planned.

Pleasantly descriptive, lightly romantic, the concert was quite what a popular Saturday night broadcast program should be.

It opened with the beautiful woodwind and harp duet from the overture to "Mignon" (Thomas) floating out over the warm night air. The French horn solo awakened agreeable memories of a bygone opera and at the conclusion the applause was spontaneous and genuine.

The haunting and lovely Andante Cantabile from Tschaikowsky's best-known string quartet came next and it was done in aristocratic good taste. Upon this folk-song motif, so favored in Russia, is imposed a French drawing-room sweetness and charm.

Another Russian number, "The Flight of a Bumble Bee," by Rimsky-Korsakoff, was so skillfully played and so delighted the audience that an encore seemed inevitable, but the length of the program made a repetition unwise.

The music from the second suite of "L'Arlesienne" by Bizet, is less familiar than some of the other twenty-seven pieces composed for this Daudet play. Only the Christmas hymn which forms the theme of the finale reminds one of the prelude in the first concert suite. The excerpts played by Arbos have a Gypsy flair and an almost Spanish rhythm winding up in a terrific tempo which brought the audience to its feet with enthusiasm.

Henri De Busscher, the eminent oboe player who occupies first chair in the orchestra, played "March of the Highlanders" by Benjamin Godard. It was an unusual piece for an oboe, usually so mild and in the pastorale character. As an exhibition number, though, it was admirable, and as always Mr. De Busscher displayed virtuosic ability combined with innate musicianship. He earned the ovation he received.

"Adventures in a Perambulator" is musical and humorous. John Alden Carpenter is shown to be subtle, charming and suave in this delightful fantasy of the life of an infant, and it is in keeping with the courtesy and sincere interest of the gentleman from Spain that he should present it to his American audience at the Bowl.

The Caucasian Sketches of Ivanoff and the thrilling "Ride of the Valkyries" concluded a rich and varied feast of music for a summer's evening.

VINE STREET SECURED FOR NEW COMEDY

Lynn Starling Play, "A Cup of Sugar," to Start Run Next Monday

William P. Trumbull has completed negotiations whereby he will offer at the Vine Street Theater on Monday night, September 1, Lynn Starling's latest comedy effort, "A Cup of Sugar." The play will serve to bring again before Los Angeles audiences the talented comedienne, Dorothy Mackaye, supported by an imposing list of players, including Douglas Gilmore, Barton Hepburn, Kathryn Gibney, Dina Smirnova, Boyd Irwin, Maurice Brierre and Charles Moore.

Starling will be recalled as the author of "In His Arms," "Weak Sisters," in which Trixie Friganza appeared, and "Meet the Wife," starring Mary Boland.

SUIT UNRAVELS ESTATE TANGLE

Court Rules on Cunningham Share Purchase

Widow Bought for Herself, Judge Decides

Heir Who Lost Patrimony Also Loses Action

Decision for Daniel Cunningham's heirs has been filed by Superior Judge Yankwich, who holds that the Cunningham estate is valid and not in violation of the rule against perpetuities. The judge held that no illegality existed in the purchase by Mrs. Margaret Cunningham, the widow, of the interest of one daughter, Mrs. Rose Murray, at Sheriff's sale.

Important properties valued at $2,000,000 were involved in the suit. Among the properties listed as owned by the estate are the ground of the Jewelers' Building, the Lyon, McKinney Company lease, a Main-street lot adjoining the Rives-Strong Building and a residence at 1849 South Gramercy Place.

Mrs. Murray instituted the action to restore her rights to a twelfth interest in the trust, which was sold by one of her creditors and was bought in by her mother, Mrs. Cunningham. When it reached trial the action was prosecuted by E. A. Lynch, trustee in bankruptcy, for the benefit of Mrs. Murray's creditors. Contention was made by the plaintiff that the purchase was made by Mrs. Cunningham for her daughter, Mrs. Murray.

Mrs. Cunningham testified that she ordered the share bid in to protect the trust from outsiders. The widow added that Mrs. Murray owed her $43,000, and that since the sale she paid bills for Mrs. Murray to the amount of $1175. Mrs. Murray testified that she had not conversed with her mother for six months prior to the sale.

Judge Yankwich ruled there was no evidence that Mrs. Cunningham agreed to purchase the interest for her daughter's benefit.

MOTHER ARRESTED ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Mrs. Gloria C. Burton

Three small children with unimpaired appetites and no money with which to buy food is likely to cause a mother to do almost anything, Mrs. Gloria C. Burton, 32 years of age, declared yesterday as she sought to explain her incarceration in the County Jail on accusations of liquor possession and sale.

Mrs. Burton, mother of three girls ranging in age from 4 to 7 years, was arrested by officers of the police vice squad at her home, 328 North Madison avenue. It is asserted that she sold a small quantity of liquor and that a jug of whisky was found concealed in a trunk.

The place of concealment of the liquor was disclosed by Violet Jewell Burton, 6 years of age, under questioning of the officers while the mother was recovering from a fainting spell she underwent when placed under arrest by an officer. Mrs. Burton said the liquor had been given to her by a friend.

According to the arrested woman, her husband, Herbert J. Burton, a vaudeville comedian, left her about three months ago and now is in a hospital in San Antonio, Tex. In the meanwhile the three children are in the care of a friend. Mrs. Burton is scheduled to appear in court today. She is held under $3000 bail.

HEARING ON PROBATION SCHEDULED

Ella Fernekes, convicted of aiding her husband, Frank Fernekes, in passing worthless checks on Los Angeles merchants, today is to appear before Superior Judge Wood for a hearing on her application for probation.

When arrested, Mrs. Fernekes asserted that she knew nothing of her husband's asserted illegal activities. But when tried before Superior Judge Wood, she was found guilty of aiding him in passing worthless checks.

The woman first gained notoriety when she and her husband were being returned to Los Angeles from Texas. Fernekes escaped from officers by leaping through a window of a train speeding at fifty miles an hour. The officer who had charge of the prisoner charged that Mrs. Fernekes interfered with him while her husband was making his escape.

After being convicted of the forgery charge, Mrs. Fernekes was granted permission to file an application for probation.

SEVEN MOTORISTS IN NET

Campaign Against Driving While Drunk Pushed; Some of Arrests Made After Crashes

In a week-end campaign against drunken driving, police yesterday arrested seven motorists on charges of driving while intoxicated after they had been found unable to control their cars and, in some instances, after the drivers had allowed their automobiles to crash into light poles. All of the drivers were given sobriety tests at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital and taken to the Central Police Station.

Frank De La Cruz, 22 years of age, of 4101 Reynolds street, was taken in custody by Officers Riblett and Lund after he drove through signals, according to the officers, at Macy and Alameda streets.

Observed driving in a zig-zag manner at Pico street and Normandie avenue, Ernest J. Gaudet, 38, plumber, of 1348 Harcourt avenue, was arrested by Officers Grant and Christiansen. He was so intoxicated he could not stand up when taken from his automobile, the officers report.

POLE SNAPPED OFF

After driving his car into an electrolier at Whittier Boulevard and Euclid avenue, Jacob Joel, 42, dry cleaner, of 625 South Bixel street, was arrested by Officers Lund and Johnson. The light pole was snapped off and part of it was lying across Joel's machine, the officers say.

Following a collision with a street car at Seventh and Santee streets, Edward Wass, 48, engineer, of 100 South San Pedro street, was taken in custody by Officers Gentil and Moore. No one was injured in the crash.

BATTLE WITH PRISONER

Officer Beard report he was kicked in the ear by Eugene O. Holland, 27, painter, of 5509 Date street, when he attempted to arrest him after a collision at Manchester avenue and Avalon Boulevard. Beard states that Holland, remarking that "he could lick the whole police force," fought against arrest and was only subdued after R. Brave of 641 East Twenty-eighth street, a citizen, came to his assistance.

Driving erratically through a gasoline service station and through signals, Chester H. Warren, 35, clerk, of 207½ Marguerretta street, Alhambra, was arrested by Officer Leach at St. Louis and Pennsylvania avenues.

John L. Williams, 30, salesman, of 410 South Burlington avenue, was found with his automobile parked in the middle of the intersection of Weyburn and Westwood avenues, according to Officer Slater. Williams, Slater reports, was incapable of driving his machine.

Sheriff Invites Public to New Station Opening

Invitation is extended to the public to attend the dedication of the enlarged quarters of the Vermont-avenue Sheriff's substation today at 8:30 p.m.

The substation, one of nine operated by the Sheriff's office, was established more than four years ago. Increase of activities recently made it necessary to take over the entire floor space of the building at One Hundred and Eighth street and Vermont avenue, where it heretofore occupied two rooms.

Subdivision of the quarters now affords a private office for Capt. Neighbors, in charge, an assembly room, a kitchen and other facilities for the eighteen men who form its personnel. It is open twenty-four hours and has charge of county police work in the southwest section of the county.

Among those to be present at the dedication are Sheriff Traeger, Supervisors Quinn and Shaw and Judge Carrell of Gardena.

SIX JAILED FOR LIQUOR VIOLATIONS

Whisky, Alcohol and Beer Seized by Police Squads in Dry-Law Round-up

Possession of whisky, alcohol and home-brewed beer resulted in the arrest, early yesterday morning, of six men.

Joe Lynch, 24 years of age, of 115 East Third street, was found at 114 East Third street with nine pints of whisky and five pints of alcohol, Officers Irvine and Evans reported.

After he drove his automobile into an alley at 113 East Eighth street, William Hirt, 30, of 836 South Main street, was taken into custody by Officer Stonesifer and a squad of officers of the vice division. Search of the car revealed eighty-two pints of whisky, the officers said.

Six quarts of beer in his home at 463 Hartford street caused the arrest of Jack Rash, 29, for possession and sale of liquor. Detective Lieutenant Sears, head of Chief Steckel's special liquor squad, stated he purchased three of the bottles and made the raid with a search warrant.

At 850 West Fifty-second street vice squad officers reported finding fifty-seven quarts of beer, and arrested Robert I. Peacock, 32, as the owner.

L. Valenzuela, 30, of 123½ South Gless street, was arrested for possession and transportation after he is said by vice squad officers to have fled from an automobile containing a gallon jug of whisky.

Marion Wardell's apartment at 426 South Catalina street was raided and officers reported finding one quart of whisky and one quart of gin. Wardell was arrested for possession.

Antique Radios will be Shown

Radio "antiques" are wanted in almost any number, according to an invitation extended yesterday by the management of the National Radio Show Beautiful, which starts a six-day run one week from today in Ambassador Auditorium.

Everyone having a home-made super heterodyne of the vintage of 1923 or 1924 was asked by the show officials to permit it to be entered in the radio show museum, expected to be one of the curious highlights of the exposition. Old-time radio equipment of every type is being sought.

Radio's progress has been swifter than that of any other science, one exhibitor stated. It was pointed out that the museum of antiques, located near the finest radio models that engineers of the current year have been able to produce will go far in denoting the development of this popular field of invention.

Almost all the radio stars of fourteen of Los Angeles's largest broadcast studios have been announced as entertainers, in person, during the show's run.

WEEK-END HOLD-UPS SLUMP

Only Four Encounters with Bandits Reported, Victims Losing Total of $58.50

In marked contrast to last week, when bandits went on a rampage and victimized sixteen persons, robberies over the week-end dropped to an almost record low number, a check-up of police reports revealed last night. Only four hold-ups were reported, and they yielded total plunder of only $58.50.

Forced to halt his car when three armed bandits drove up beside him at Alameda and Seventh streets early yesterday, W. P. Knock, 2167 East Fourteenth street, was robbed of $4.50. After threatening to kill him if he attempted to follow them the men, in an expensive sedan, drove away.

STATION ROBBED

Arthur Kellog, 126 West Vernon avenue, was robbed of $25 by a lone robber who entered his service station at Vernon avenue and San Pedro street early yesterday. After taking the contents of the cash register the bandit locked Kellog in the rear of the station and escaped. Kellog freed himself from the room and called police.

E. C. Gardner, 839 South Wilton Drive, and a woman companion were robbed of $12 and a valuable watch by an armed robber as they sat in a car at Fairfax avenue and Orange Grove Drive late Saturday night.

An hour later a bandit of similar description, aided by a confederate, robbed E. B. French, 1001 1-2 North Berendo street, and a woman companion as they sat in an auto in front of 819 1-2 West Forty-second street. French told police that the men took $17 from him and left in a car.

SUSPECTS IDENTIFIED

Three Negro bandit suspects, arrested late Saturday night, were identified yesterday by victims of two robberies.

James Melbourne, 23 years of age, of 926 East Twenty-first street, was identified by Max Shapiro of 1243 West Fifty-fourth street as the bandit who held him up on the 13th inst. near his home and robbed him of $30. Melbourne was apprehended at Eighteenth street and Central avenue by Detective Lieutenants Kashuba and Olewine on description.

Terry Lee, 35, of 936 East Thirty-second street, and James Richberg, 22, of 1539 A Fifth street, Santa Monica were identified by Mrs. Carrie Conyers of 1027 East Fifty-sixth street, as the two purse snatchers who grabbed her purse near her home on June 6 last. The pair, loitering along Central avenue, were arrested by Officer Hugoboom.

MIND OF JESUS DISCUSSED BY CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS

Selections from Scriptures and Words of Mary Baker Eddy in Lesson-Sermon

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." This demand of Paul's was included in the Responsive Reading in the Lesson-Sermon on "Mind" yesterday at all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermons are comprised of six sections containing Scriptural selections with correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, each section dealing with a particular aspect of the subject under consideration.

HUMAN BEINGS CALLED INCURABLY RELIGIOUS

"Man may stay out of church, but the church does not go out of the heart of man, for human beings are 'incurably religious,'" said Swami Dhirananda in his address yesterday at Figueroa Playhouse.

"Even atheists and nonbelievers love, energize, aspire and admire beauty, which no man can help doing, and the hue of religion will be discovered on the wings of their souls," said the speaker. "Religion is opening oneself to what James calls 'the more.' That 'more' means differently to different persons—God, Spirit, a Presence, Law, human service, lukewarm love, or even matter-of-fact living with pale goodness. Evil rots in its own putrefaction. Man cannot be all evil: when he has any good trait he is religious, whether he acknowledges it or not. There is emotional religion, mystical religion and rational religion. However, in rationalizing religion, let us not be deceived. We do not want to invite the coldness of academicians, the pessimism of Schopenhauer, the sneer of Voltaire, the jeer of Nietzsche or the irony of Renan."

Californians to Feature Last Symphony Week

The ninth annual season of "Symphonies Under the Stars" comes to a close in the Hollywood Bowl this week, with three Californians featured during the four concerts. Enrique Arbos, Spanish conductor will direct all four of the presentations.

HENRY EICHHEIM

Georgia Stark, soprano; Alfred Wallenstein, 'cellist, both of Los Angeles, and Henry Eichheim, of Santa Barbara, conductor and composer, will be heard during the week.

Miss Stark will make her first appearance here since she left for Europe four years ago to study. Since that time she has had a year of opera work, singing in Europe, Central America and on the Atlantic Coast. She will appear on the program tomorrow night, singing "Noche Tranquilla," by Nuno.

Eichheim will direct the musicians in playing his own composition "Burma" on Thursday evening. Eichheim wrote the selection on returning from a trip to the Orient, and based it on the religious music and folk songs of the Far East.

Wallenstein, called by many critics America's leading 'cellist, will play a 'cello concerto by Saint-Saens Friday evening.

Arbos will present a program made up entirely of music by Spanish composers tomorrow night.

Horse Brogan Tossers will Let Shoe Fly

Arrangements are being made by the Los Angeles Playground and Recreation Department for the annual municipal horseshoe pitching championships, which will take place on the Exposition Park municipal courts on September 6 and 7.

The championships have been divided into three classifications, including boys under 16 years of age, pitchers from 16 to 70 and the baldheaded horseshoe pitchers.

The municipal and State champion, Walter Krowel, 16, of Los Angeles, will defend his laurels. Krowel, with William Crick, also holds the Los Angeles double championship.

Teams from Hollywood, Culver City, Huntington Park, El Segundo, Hermosa and two Los Angeles playgrounds have entered the contest.

PATRONAGE AT POOLS OF CITY TAKES DIVE

Due to closing of pools because of infantile-paralysis cases in the city during July and lack of August patronage, receipts from the ten city pools show a large deficit compared to seven pools in former years, according to the records of the Playground and Recreation Department. The heaviest attendance of the year was expected during the last two months, particularly in view of the warm weather, but the patronage failed to materialize. Total receipts for the fiscal year to date are $5414.77, compared to $25,848.14 during the same period last year, a loss of approximately $20,000, which had been included in the estimated budget receipts during this year.

BUS SERVICE APPROVED

Operation by Eva M. Stewart of a twenty-six-passenger bus service between Los Angeles and Chicago, with two round trips a month, employing three drivers, so that none will be required to drive more than 200 miles a day, has been approved by the Board of Public Utilities and Transportation. A six-day trip to Chicago is scheduled.

SUIT FILED IN MOVING OF BUILDING

West Eighth-Street Case Indicates Shakes Like Those of Mild Temblor

Tenants of buildings on West Eighth street, which is being widened, seemingly have been experiencing something like the effects of a mild earthquake, occasioned by moving the buildings back to the new property line, according to a suit against a house mover, on file in Superior Court yesterday.

Alice L. Dornberger is suing J. H. Signor, the house mover, and his bondsmen for $8088 damage, asserting carelessness in moving an apartment at 2601 West Eighth street nine feet south. The defendant agreed, for $3000, it is asserted, to move the house without disturbing tenants, and without disconnecting the water, gas, sewers or electricity.

Instead, the door frames were twisted so the doors wouldn't shut, windows were broken, hot water was cut off and considerable plaster fell, the plaintiff asserts. Finally tenants moved out, and the suit was filed.

Girl Stays Free if Not Caught Drunk in Auto

Hazel Conley, 20 years of age, of 7232 Sycamore street, faces a thirty-day jail sentence if she rides in an automobile while drunk during the next six months.

The girl was arrested while riding with Agnes Morrow, 23, San Francisco dancer, and pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk in an automobile. Municipal Judge Marchant suspended a thirty-day jail sentence on condition that she be not guilty of a similar offense for six months. Miss Morrow was arrested on a drunk-driving charge, police reports revealed.

WOMAN ACCIDENTALLY WOUNDED AT HOME

Severely wounded in the right leg when an old army revolver fell to the floor and was accidentally discharged, Miss Virginia Curtis, 2010 Temple street, was removed to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital early yesterday by police. According to Detective Lieutenants Curtis and Sitts, Miss Curtis pulled a blanket from a shelf in a closet and the revolver fell from the shelf. The gun hammer struck the floor and discharged.

LIGHTING MAP SUBMITTED

The assessment district map for the installation of an ornamental lighting system in Western avenue between Jefferson Boulevard and Santa Barbara has been submitted to the City Council by the Street Lighting Engineer. It was referred to the Traffic and Street Lighting Committee.

GARTSIDE CASE REOPENS TODAY

Indictment Charges Theft from E. A. Shaw & Co.

Jury in Former Hearing Failed to Agree

Defendant Says He Thought Deal Legitimate

Hilton Gartside, who was returned to Los Angeles from London, Eng., to stand trial on grand-theft charges, is scheduled to go to trial for the second time today before Superior Judge Aggeler. At his former trial in Judge Hahn's court the jury failed to agree and was discharged.

The indictment charges that Gartside stole $8510 from E. A. Shaw & Co., Los Angeles brokers. Shortly after the loss was discovered, Gartside went to England, where he was arrested.

According to Richard Cantillon and Donald McKay, attorneys for the defendant, Gartside maintains that the funds were given him by Clyde H. Reid, an employee of the E. A. Shaw firm, and that he accepted them to use in a joint speculative enterprise, believing it to be Reid's money.

Several months ago Reid was arrested and accused of embezzling the money. He made a complete statement to District Attorney's investigators, implicating Gartside. Reid later received a sentence to the County Jail for his part in the affair and then testified for the State at the first trial.

Suit Demands Husband Give Proper Support

In a suit filed yesterday Mrs. Rita L. McCoy asked the court to force her husband, Earnest Clement McCoy, to provide proper food and lodging for herself and three children, aged 1, 3 and 6 years.

McCoy provided a house for his family, his wife, admits, but she asserts it had only two windows and no door, although her husband was making $135 a month. He provided no bathtub and the only ablutions possible were those obtainable in a washtub. To make himself disagreeable, Mrs. McCoy said, her husband burned rubber in the cookstove and on one occasion left ant paste around for the children to play with.

Mrs. McCoy asks exclusive control of her children and adequate support.

Bouquet from His Wife Made Husband Sore

Mrs. Aurelia Lynch "said it with flowers," but the flowers were in a hard vase and the floral tribute hurt when it landed on Floyd Lynch's back, he asserts in his divorce suit.

Besides throwing flowers (in a hard vase) at her husband, Mrs. Lynch hit him with a hanger (coat, not airplane,) scattered ink on his new straw hat in the height of the summer season and threatened to kill him with a monkey wrench, according to the petition.

Lynch asks custody of his three children.

ATTORNEY'S RITES SET

Funeral services for Samuel Spencer Jackson, attorney, who died suddenly at his home in Westwood Hills Friday, will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at Bresee Brothers' chapel, 855 South Figueroa street, it was announced yesterday.

EUROPE SAID TO PROSPER

George Reimers Declares Except for Jobless in England and Germany, Nations Do Well

"If the European countries are as hard up as we have been led to believe, I failed to see it," George A. Reimers, vice-president of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, declared yesterday on his return from a four-months' trip during which he visited England, Scotland, France, Italy, Austria, Czecho-Slovakia, Germany, Holland and Belgium.

"My investigation abroad convinced me that California business is more fundamentally sound than that of any area in the world. They don't work abroad like we do here. They take things too easy. There is no place like California." Mr. Reimers said.

"France and Italy are the most prosperous nations in Europe. The change wrought by Mussolini in Italy is amazing. He has made the Italians do things they didn't believe they could do. It is now a clean, moral area. An intensive building campaign featured by residential and business construction and the erection of public buildings is under way. Everybody is employed. It is a different Italy.

"Belgium and Czecho-Slovakia profited most by the war. I saw more American goods and automobiles in Belgium than in any European country. Belgium's war indemnity is going into buildings and a tremendous construction program is in progress. The 15 per cent war luxury tax was annulled July 15.

"Prior to the war 70 per cent of Czecho-Slovakia's taxes went to Vienna. Now the entire levy is spent in its own area. The result is that Prague, the capital city, has a huge construction campaign under way and has doubled its population in ten years. Practically every motor car I saw in Czecho-Slovakia was of American make.

"The unemployed situation in Germany and England, however, creates a serious condition. In England alone, 2,000,000 persons are without jobs. The English laborer pays a tax of a shilling on every pound he earns."

RADIO PLANTS EXPANDING

Industry Forging Ahead Rapidly in Los Angeles Area, Chamber Report Discloses

Data showing the rapidity with which a new industry is forging to the front in Southern California, that of radio manufacturing, are contained in a newly prepared industrial survey just disclosed by Secretary-Manager A. G. Arnoll of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and which reveals that the total production of this type of manufacturing last year was valued at $3,826,170.

In a report covering investigations and studies made by the department's engineers, R. D. Sangster, industrial manager of the chamber, gives new data and facts pertaining to the manufacture of radio sets hitherto not disclosed, Arnoll said.

The chamber's survey covers the metropolitan area of Los Angeles, embracing Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties. In this territory, there are a total of forty-four firms engaged in the manufacture of radio sets and parts, and a total of seven firms producing only cabinets. Altogether, the industry employs 1034 men and women and represents an investment of $1,431,172.
